REDSKIN COUNTRY Means People

The students, faculty, and school spirit are what make up Redskin Country. Try to imagine a school where there would be no football games, dances, pep assemblies or anything to boost your spirits. If it weren't for the spirit of the school, everyday would be long and boring.

Redskin Country is the school. No matter where you go the spirit of the school is there and is noticed in the people. Not one event can take place without affecting many, if not all, of the students.

However, not just the students are affected. The teachers play a great part in the school spirit, also. They help out in all of the events. If it weren't for the teachers' spirit, there would be no Spirit Festival, Homecoming or any sort of activities.

Redskin Country would be nothing if it weren't for the people and their enthusiasm.

Studying Together, Working Together, Playing Together, Winning Together

Students return with a fresh dedication to a new year together. As they walk down the hall, they can sense the pride that is alive and growing in Marshall High.

By working together as a team, our athletes and performing students bring honor to themselves and to the school. Whether working together on a class project or playing together as a team, Redskin spirit is obvious in all they do.

IN ORDER TO ACHIEVE THEIR GOALS

Working together as a whole gives us reason to have pride in the spirit at Marshall High School. We had a successful year in many areas. The Cross Country team did a great job winning the State Championship title after an undefeated Conference Season. The Marching Band members received a first in competition. The Girls Basketball team earned the honor of participating in the State tournament and took second place. The Debate team placed second, also, in their State finals. Four of our wrestlers made a good showing at State, too. We are proud of them all.

Through the cheerleaders, teachers, student body, and the community, we achieved great turn-outs at the games and meets. Everyone cheering the teams on to victory helped give support to all who participated in the sports and organizations.

The newspaper students work hard to line and match up the articles for the pages that go into the Interchange.

Getting into the Christmas spirit, Jenny Clement decorated her "Chemis-tree".

Seniors Triumphant At Spirit Festival

The spirit of the student body was joined together again in the annual Spirit Festival. Even though Spirit Festival was delayed, the students were still ready to go when the week finally came.

The week's events started on Wednesday when the window displays were judged. The Seniors pulled out a winner in this event with a total of 9 out of 10 points.

Then Thursday came around with the final events. There were a few new events this year replacing some of the old ones, such as the bottle cap flipping, Rubics cube, the surprise event, centipede walk, just to name a few. The last event was the class cheer. The Juniors surprised the Seniors with a first place in this competition.

When the final points were added, the Freshman came in 4th place with 43 points. The Juniors were in 3rd with 62 points, the Sophomores came in 2nd with 73 points and the Seniors came in First place with a total of 84 points which made it a terrific last Spirit Festival for the Senior Class.

STUDENT LIFE

Angie Weatherly Reigns As Queen

Homecoming can be considered one of the most treasured memories of high school. To be elected by fellow classmates to the Homecoming Court is a great honor.

The Court was announced at a special assembly. This assembly was held Monday morning in the gym. This was to enable the Court to enjoy the Homecoming events throughout the week of October 12th-16th. The Court was introduced to the fans at halftime of the Marshall vs. Albion Homecoming game. The attendants appeared in formal gowns and the escorts wore suits and ties.

The 1981 Homecoming Queen was Angie Weatherly and her escort was Dean Wolfman. The Senior representatives were Michelle Cipic and Ed Dennis. The Junior representatives were Ann Washburn and Rod Rocco. The Sophomore representatives were Connie Monk and Troy Miller. The Freshman representatives were Stacey Rogers and Mike Stanton.

Representing the Senior class are Ed Dennis and Michelle Cipic.

Homecoming events spark up the year!

When Homecoming 1981 came to a close, Marshall gleamed with pride. Albion was taken by surprise as the Redskins went on to a 12-7 victory. The stands were packed with fans that cheered the Redskins on to a victorious Homecoming.

Homecoming was done a bit differently this year. In order for the Homecoming Court to enjoy all the festivities during the week, they were announced at a special assembly. This assembly took place Monday morning in the gym.

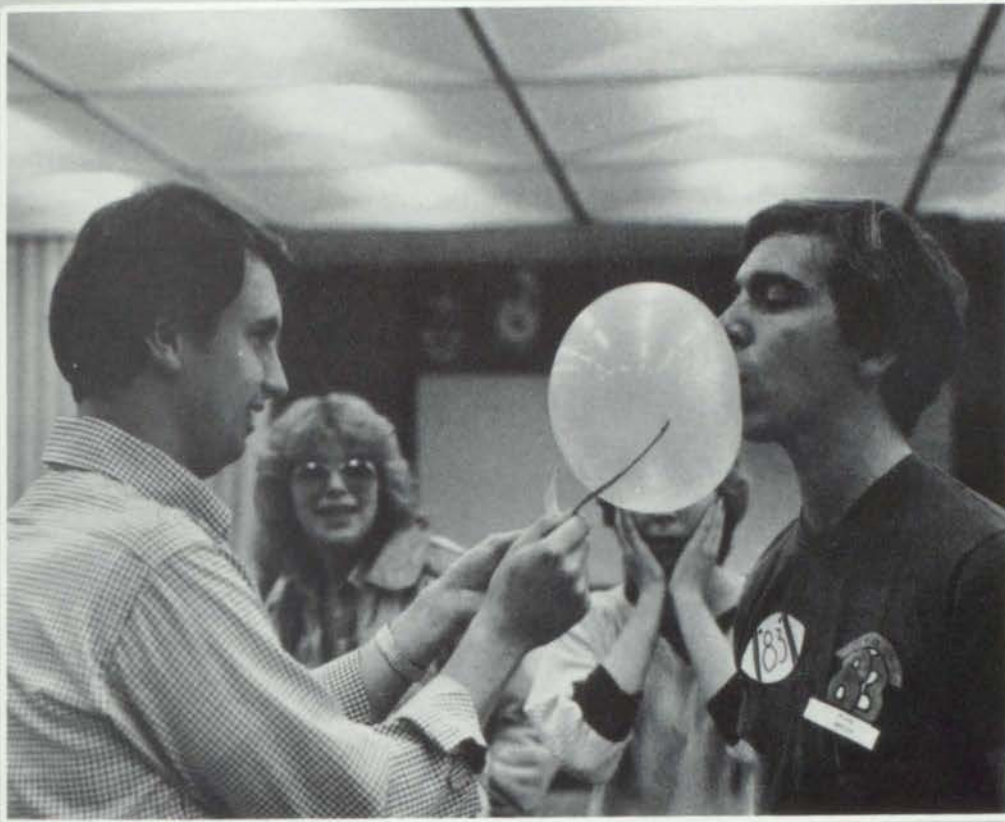

The student body participated in such events throughout the week as dressing for red and black day, hat day, semi-dress up day, famous fact and figure day, and jersey day. When Thursday rolled around, the students were getting keyed for that night's events. The events started off with the hula-hoop contest and ended with the tug-of-war. The Juniors held their ground throughout the night. But with Friday's events still to come, any one of the classes could win. Thursday night ended with the traditional bon fire. Everyone waited for the Albion Wildcat dummy to parish in the fire. The football captains had the honor of tossing the dummy into the flames.

The Senior class cheers enthusiastically for fellow classmen as they compete in various events.

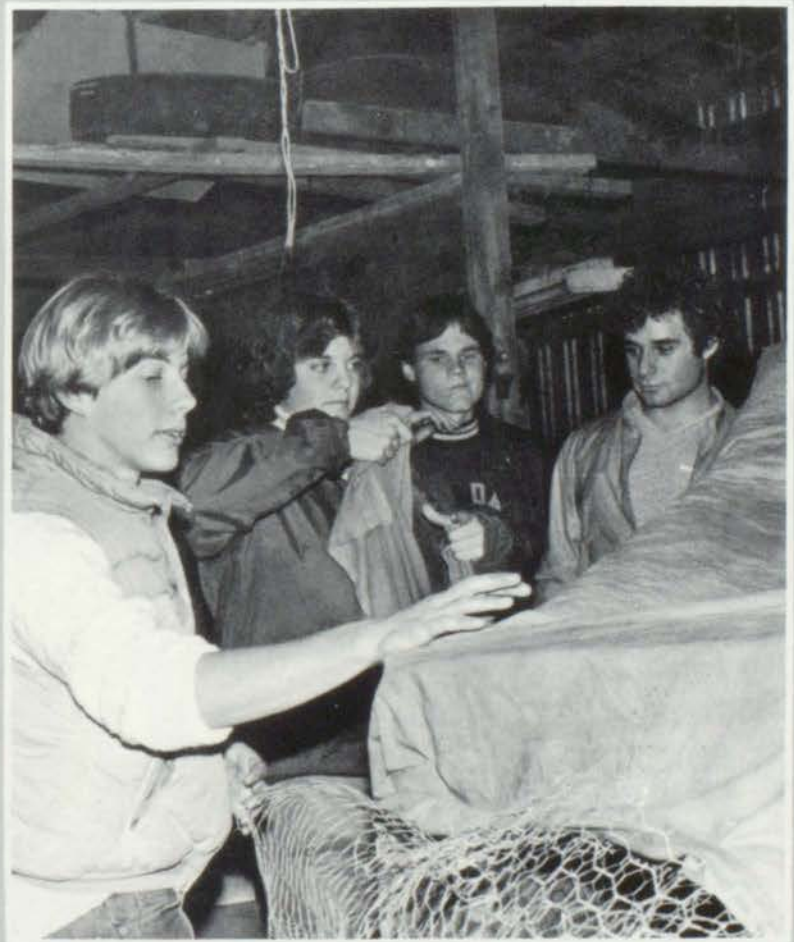

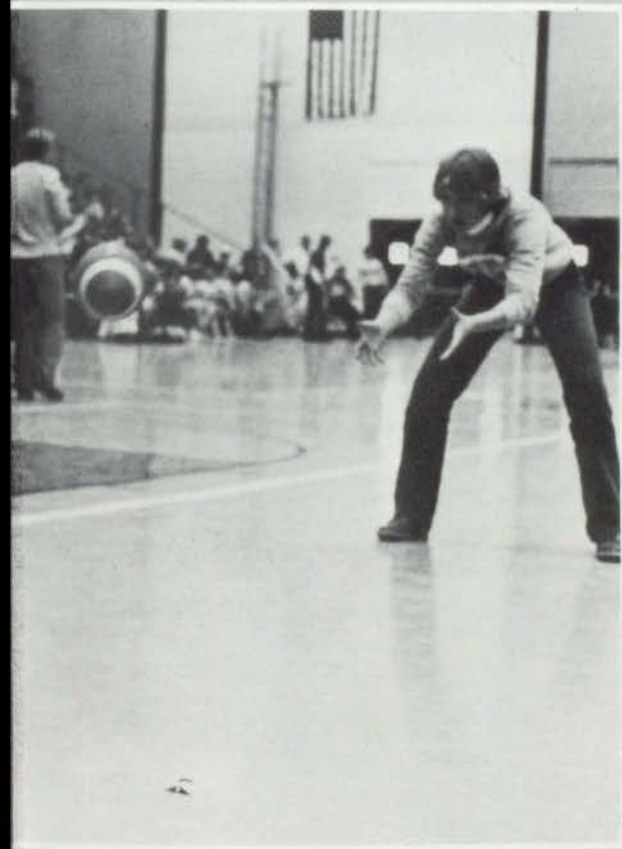

Hula-hooping takes definite hip coordination as shown by Diana Savard.

Seniors Doug Koenig and Mary Leahy pass the first of five footballs in the football hike, an event of accuracy and speed.

Michelle Cipcic, Colleen Clement, Kim Wood and MaryAnn McDonagh participate in the Famous Facts and Figures Day.

Juniors, Homecoming Event Champs!

It was finally Friday and everybody was ready for the days events. The fifth hour bell rang and students gathered in the gym to begin the festivities. The events began with the obstacle course, the Juniors coming in with first place which made their lead increase!

With every event the involvement and excitement of every person expanded. As the assembly came to an end, the student body conjured up what little energy they had left and began the class competition cheer. The Juniors once again scored a victory. Throughout the week students used their free nights constructing lawn displays which were presented at Friday's Homecoming game.

Welcome to Redskin Country

What student doesn't remember the excitement in the tension-filled gymnasium as the courts echoed with "Welcome to Redskin Country!"

Through our school activities we have traveled to surrounding cities, and it is always with pride that we have returned to M.H.S.

We have many reasons to feel the excitement and pride that exemplifies that special Redskin Spirit.

Lorie Young, Marshall's Junior Miss

Junior Miss touched each one of the thirty senior contestants a bit differently. The closeness that appeared between the girls was evident throughout the program. Through weeks of practice and preparation, they got to know each other in a totally different way.

They were judged in these four categories: a talent presentation of their choice, poise and appearance, physical fitness routine, and an interview that was conducted by the five judges.

The girls were presented by their fathers the first night of the program. On the second night, the girls had a chance to introduce themselves.

Friday night's talent award went to Colleen Clement, who sang and presented a slide show. Saturday's talent winner was Lori Kibler, who also sang. The Spirit of Junior Miss is chosen by the girls themselves. They each wrote the name of the girl who they thought was real special, and Jackie Morris was the girl. Sally David's hard work in the academic field was well worth it. She was given the Scholastic Achievement Award which was determined by her ACT scores and her class ranking.

The Second runner-up was Claire Hill. The first runner-up was Lori Watson and Marshall's 1982 Junior Miss was Lorie Young. Instead of a crown, Lorie received a medal that was worn on a black ribbon around her neck. This qualified Lorie to participate in the State Junior Miss Pageant.

In appreciation, the girls presented flowers to Kathy Maurer, Becky Bidelman, and Judy Heidenreich.

A Taste of the Big Apple

Once again, the Juniors pulled together another successful J-Hop. They found it was worth all the long hours of work because of the terrific turn-out.

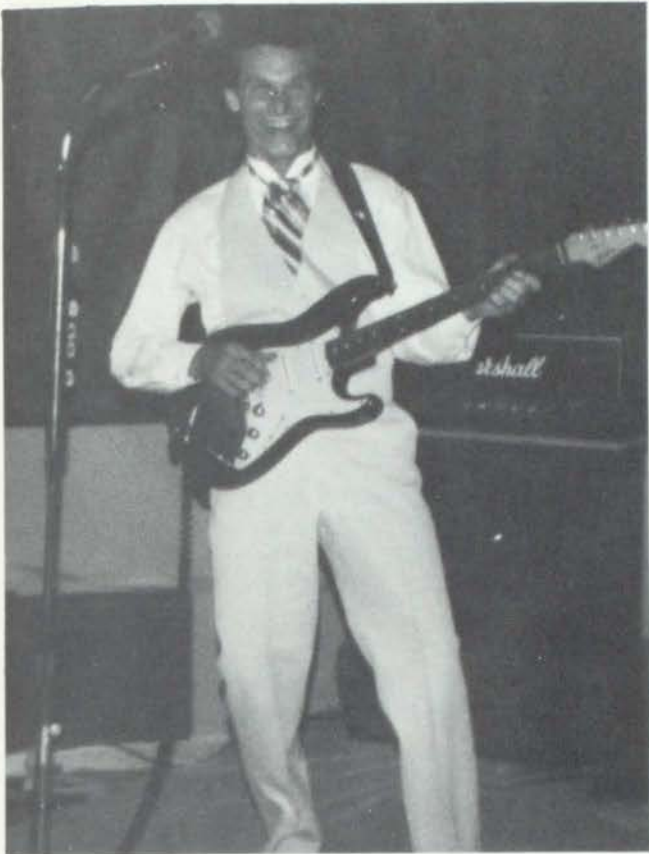

The theme this year was "New York, New York". The setting consisted of several stores, restaurants, and theaters. The dance floor had pink and blue streamers to match the walls. In the back of the sitting area was a mirrored bar from which was served punch and other refreshments.

After the dance, the couples had a choice of bowling or attending a 3-D movie, "The Creature From the Black Lagoon."

The staging for the J-Hop slowly comes to life.

Laura Booten, Bryan Fuller, Denise Wood, and Rick Fuller prepare to leave for the J-Hop.

Connie Begg and Mike Beery enjoy themselves at Cedar Point on the day after J-Hop.

The scenery represented the "New York, New York" theme.

Assemblies Entertain Everyone.

Assemblies are a big part of the high school. There are a few different kinds of assemblies. One type is a pep assembly to raise spirits and key the players for a victory. Another type is a music or a vocal assembly. People from other schools and groups come from all over to perform for the students and faculty. There are many different types of assemblies but all are for the same reason, to entertain the students and the faculty.

Spirit Festival Brightens Winter!

The majority of this year's Spirit Festival events were won by the Seniors. They took first place in the girls' ping-pong, girls' PIG tournament, stacking objects, free throw shooting, puzzle piecing, spider crawl, surprise event, and the mystery question.

The Sophomores surprised most by coming in second. They had first places in boys' ping-pong, mixed doubles ping-pong, Shuffle-board, body language, math game, Rubik's cube, and Bottle cap flipping.

The Juniors took third place. Their first places were name that tune, Tug-O-War, Pizza eating contest, and the class cheer.

Then came the Freshmen in fourth place. Their first places were boys' PIG tournament, Word game, and the centipede race.

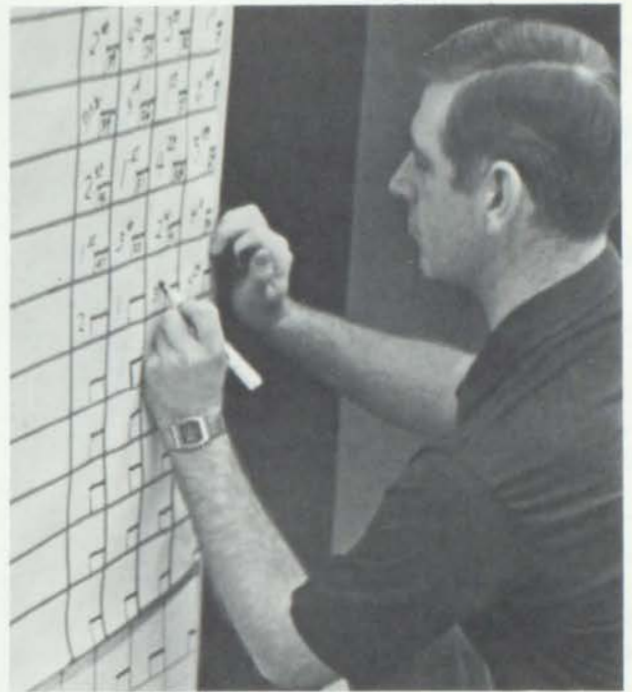

In conclusion, the 1982 Spirit Festival turned out really well, giving the Seniors their first win before leaving the high school.

Trying forcefully to consume their third piece of pizza are Ali Ramon and Tiffany Frohm.

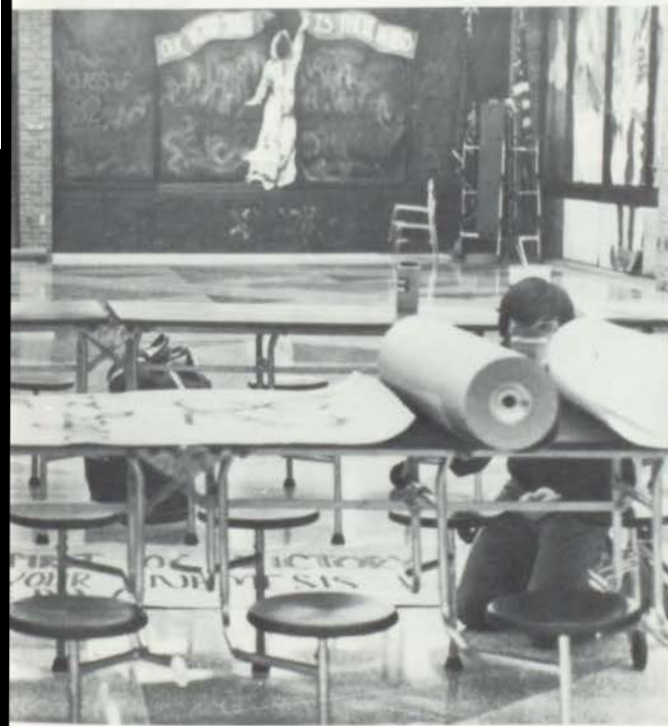

The Juniors gave it their best crawl but only managed to pick up fourth place.

Making an '82 sign to be used at Spirit Festival assembly are Laura Booten and Mike Osborn.

Competing in the Shuffle Board contest are Denee Rosekrans, Mike Bojas, and Tom Stanton.

Participating in the new mystery event are Senior Paul Montgomery and Sophomore Jeff Okon.

Underclassmen Rewarded for Efforts

Students who put forth extra effort in classes are awarded at the end of the year. The awards assembly is to give special recognition for these efforts.

This year the seniors received awards during class night. The underclassmen were honored at separate assemblies. The freshmen supported their award recipients at an assembly, while the sophomores and the juniors attended a second assembly.

The awards given this year were in: Math, English, Science, Foreign Language, Home Economics, Music and Physical Education.

The honor of being singled out for individual effort is exciting.

Let's Go to the Hop

The 50's dance had an extremely good turn out this year, roughly 250 people. The traditional contests were the Limbo, Best Dressed and the dance contest. The winners of the Limbo contest were Junior Jennifer Burris, and Senior, Mike VanWormer. Doug Koenig and Rhonda Lautzenheiser won the dance contest. Five girls and four boys were chosen for the best dressed prizes. The winners were: Jody Craig, Teresa Wirebaugh, Chris Larsen, Beth Ickes, and Deb Wheeler. The boy winners were: Todd Hulce, Brian Roe, Mike VanWormer and Alan Johnson.

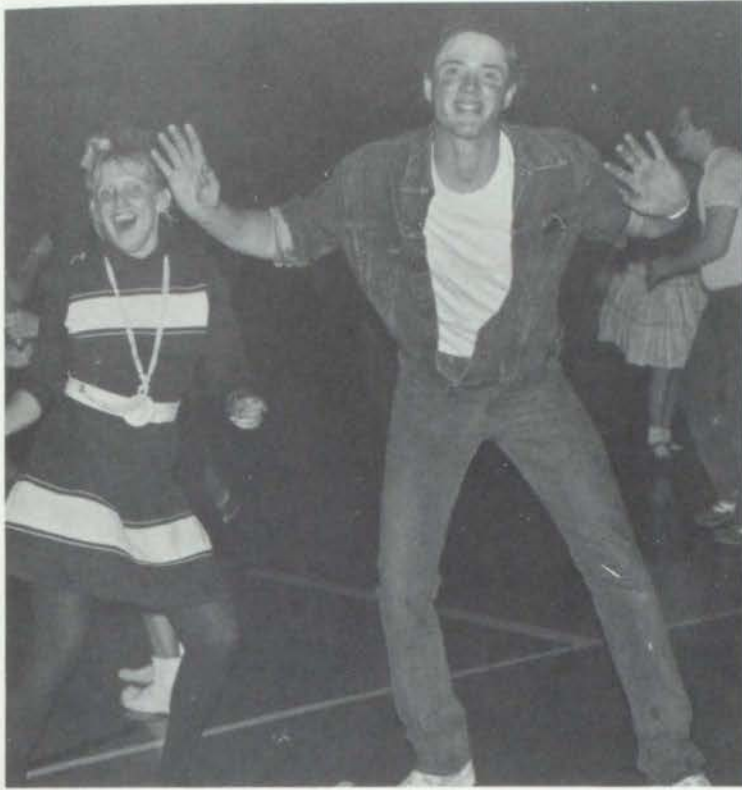

The night, over all, turned out very successfully. The money raised went to the Senior class for caps and gowns for graduation.

SENIORS

Seniors Have Finally Reached Their Horizon.

The last four years have passed quickly, but not without bringing changes in each of us. Besides learning about pronouns, square roots, and carbohydrates, we have learned about sharing, supporting our school activities, the importance of friendship, and maintaining vital adult-teenager relationships. It is memories of these experiences that will enrich our futures.

Success Is An Internal Achievement

The days have gone by quickly, but we have learned to live each one to the maximum of our capabilities. Throughout the four years there were many trying times with which we had to deal. Our parents, friends, and teachers stood by us until the end of each crisis. Now we have to expect the most out of ourselves. We aren't always going to have someone there to lean on through the long, tough climb to success. We have learned that success is attained by individual effort.

Class Night 1982: A Tough Act to Follow

"In the short amount of time we had to throw the show together, the kids did a remarkable job", exclaimed Mr. Armstrong.

There had been talk during the year that class night would never come to life. None of the kids realized what it took to put on such a show, until it was a smashing success. With the guidance and helping hands of C. Lee Ralston, Brian Burns, and Ben Armstrong, class night was thrown together in just three nights. They received gift certificates to a local restaurant in appreciation for their loyalty to the Class of 82'. It had been quite a few years since such a high quality class night had been performed.

The Seniors start off Class Night by playing the music, and lighting the lights.

Graduation, Can This Really Be It?

This can't really be me . . . can it? I am finally a graduate. Through the many years I've shared with my friends and done my best at everything I did. I was so anxious to get out of school and get out on my own. Now that that time is here, I want to turn around in time and relive my high school years. My friends are going to be hard to let go. All the tears we have shared together, the bad times and the good times, the victory and defeat of the teams we were on, brought us closer together. Yes, my friends will truly be hard to let go, yet even in those thoughts I can also think about becoming what I dreamed of when I was a child. My friends and I will encounter new feelings, responsibilities, and ideas. I truly believe this is me!

Not an End, but a Beginning

Now that we put away our caps and gowns, we still hold memories that will be forever cherished. With graduation now behind us, like the sunset signaling the close of a day, we can anticipate the new challenges that will influence our future. As the sunrise heralds the beginning of a new day, so does graduation represent not an ending, but the beginning of our adult lives.

We have now come to the end of four great years. It is time to move on and assume new responsibilities. We will take varied roads as we leave M.H.S., but we will not forget our friends and our years together.

Thank You for Twenty Years, Dr. Timmer

The 1982 Dial staff is proud to be dedicating this book to Marshall Public School's Superintendent, Dr. Nicholas Timmer. Born June 3, 1939 in Grand Rapids, Michigan, he graduated from Christian High School in Grand Rapids. Dr. Timmer went to Grand Rapids Junior College for two years, then he attended Western Michigan University for two years where he received his B.A. He majored in History and minored in Political Science. After another year of schooling at WMU, he earned his M.A. in education.

After finishing his schooling at WMU, he began teaching Junior High Social Studies at Madison Junior High in Marshall. He was promoted, after four years of teaching, to Assistant Principal of the Marshall Middle School, where he assumed a number of different responsibilities. After doing such a fine job, he soon became Principal at MMS.

Dr. Timmer, very busy with this job as principal, still found time to attend classes at MSU in East Lansing, and his hard studying really paid off. After four years of study, he received the honor of chairman of the State Middle School Convention. He then became Superintendent of the Marshall Public Schools.

In 1979, Dr. Timmer became president of Michigan

Association of Middle School Educators. He taught graduate classes in administration for both WMU and MSU. He was appointed to Board of Trustees, Marshall Civic Foundation; Board of Directors, Marshall Junior Achievement; Marshall Area Chamber of Commerce, and President-elect of Southwest Michigan Superintendents Association.

Dr. Timmer and his wife,

Jackie, have three children; Nicholas 14, Amy 12, and Amanda 10. When he is not busy with his outside work, he enjoys athletics, especially golf; church activities, collecting coins, antiques, remodeling homes, traveling, and reading.

We thank Dr. Timmer for all the hard work he has put into the Marshall school system and wish him much success in the future.

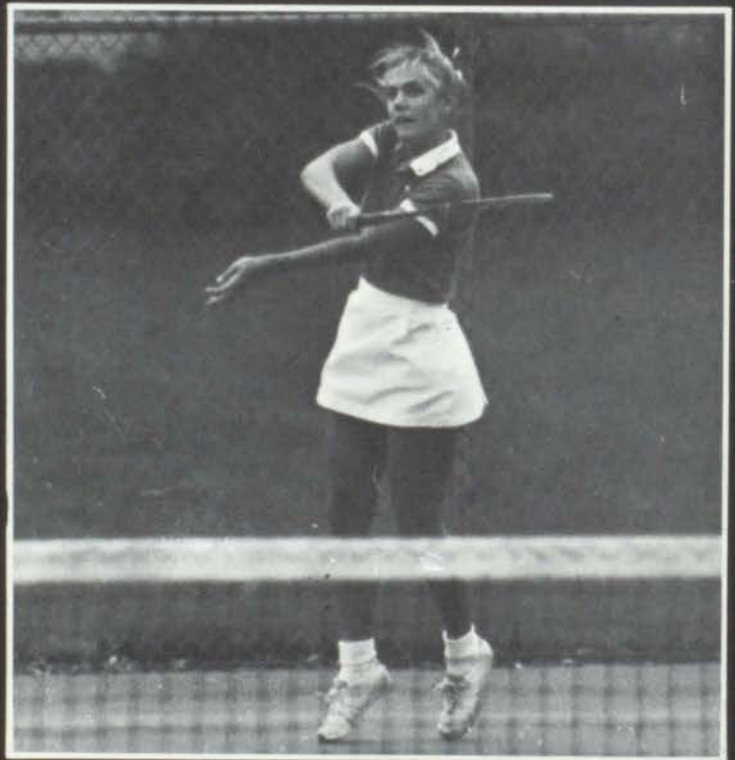

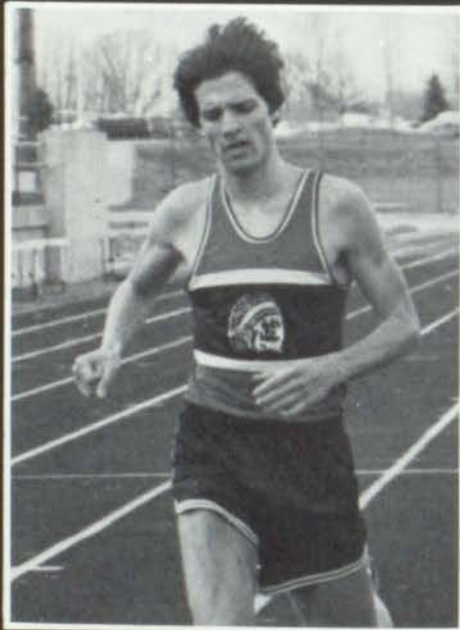

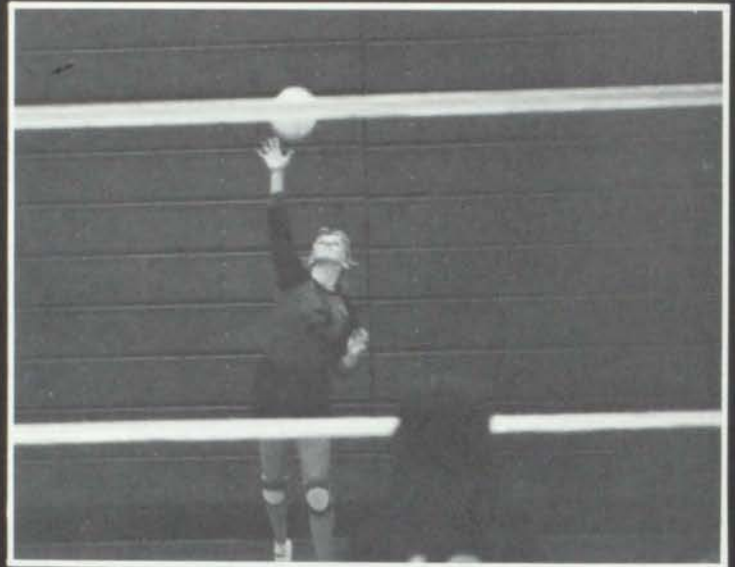

As a boy Nick Timmer enjoyed sports, an involvement which continues.

Dr. Timmer taught social studies in his early teaching career.

'Skins threaten Twin Valley Championship

"I truly don't know what the word quit means. There is nothing that can happen to me that I can't overcome. I will be stronger and stronger as I watch my opponent get more and more tired. It's not how much talent I have but how much I show." says Fred Akers, Texas Football Coach. This describes the 1981 Marshall Redskins perfectly. Although the team only outscored its opponents 150-149 in total points, they posted a 6-3 record and placed 2nd in the Twin Valley. The team simply would not give up and played the same whether they were 20 points behind or 20 points ahead. This years Skins placed 3 players on the All-Conference first team and 4 players on the second team. The players on the first team were Greg Mahrle, Mike Miller, and Keith Elliot. The players on the second team were Mike Mumaw, Mitch Peek, Dean Wolfman, and Brian Huffman. Brian Whittaker, Dave Anderson, and Bob Yonkers all received an honorable mention.

J.V. 'Skins Prepare for Varsity

The 1981 Junior Varsity Football Team compiled a 1-6 record this year, although their record did not reflect the teams efforts and talent. They had many close games that could have gone either way. The Redsin's only win was a 26-6 victory over Hastings, in which everyone played a fine game. Coach Jerry Triage had this to say about his 1981 J.V. team, "The team improved as the season progressed and hopefully this will continue when they go on to the varsity next year. It took awhile for the team to play well together, but once they did it showed up in their play on the field."

Girl 'Skins Have Season To Remember

"We can do it" said the girls' basketball team. They started out their season very confidently.

The coaches, Tom Duffey and Dan Stulberg, knew exactly the talent with which they had to work. The girls couldn't go wrong with all their talent and good coaching. The girls were 19-1 going into Districts. They were Twin Valley champs with a record of 14-0.

The girls swept through as District and Regional Champions. Grosse Isle was a little threat during the quarter-finals, but the girls held on and advanced to the semi-finals in Detroit. They succeeded in beating #1 rated Oxford.

Then came the big one! Going into the state finals the girls had a 24 game winning streak.

They lost a heartbreaker to Okemos. They really didn't have much to be sad about as they turned in a sensational record. Team records and individual records were something to brag about! Sal DeGraw was the first M.H.S. basketball player to go over 1000 points in a high school career. She was first team All State Captain and also received a number of the All State awards from polls all over Michigan. Jody Craig also turned in a few records as she made All State and 1st All Conference. She also had team assist record holder. Ann Washburn received 2nd team All Conference and Carrie Overhiser was awarded Honorable Mention. Janna Sill was voted Most Improved Player. Over all the girls put on a very good and memorable season for all of Marshall.

Girl J.V. 'Skins Take Twin Valley

"The Future All Staters."

The Girls J.V. 'Skins had a great season. Their record really shows it. They ended up their season 17-3 and 15-1 in the Twin Valley, taking the number one spot in the conference.

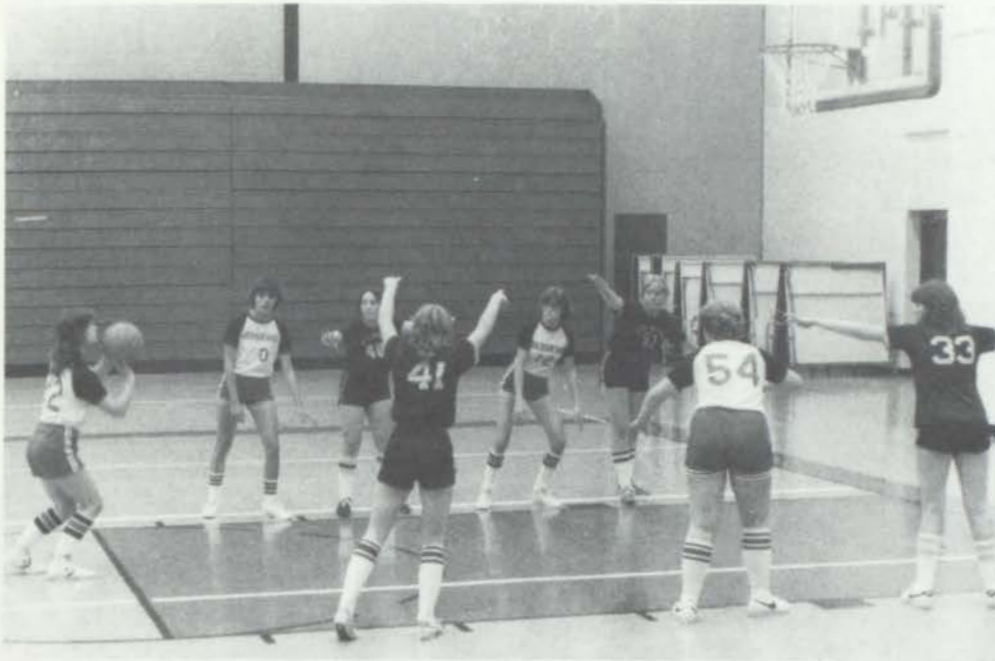

The future of the girl 'Skins is something to look forward to in the following years. This season showed us that they just might be the next all staters. Talent and know how is a big part of basketball and the J.V. 'Skins look like they have both. Working with new girls for his first season at M.H.S., Coach Dan Stulberg exhibited great coaching skills. When a tough game came up he knew just what to do and did it. The girls accomplished something very few can do. They succeeded in working as a team. They knew how to get together for the points. We will be watching the girls with interest in the years to come. There is great success in store for them.

Redskins State Champions "Number One In '81"

Will the Marshall Cross Country team win the state title? That was the question all of Marshall was asking just before the Michigan Class B Championship. Coach Barney Roy's harriers went on to win the state title defeating Grand Rapids Catholic Central by the score of 96 to 120.

Marshall's C.C. team finished the season undefeated with a 7-0 record in the conference meets. They had a 5-0 invitational record along with the Twin Valley Regional and the State title, and not a single meet was close.

Marshall had a very productive season with Todd Kirkby, Tom Kelley, Tim Danziger, Ed Dennis, Mark Wagenschutz, Mark Simmons, Mike Palmer & Chris Delaney. Renee McCosh also participated in the state meet. Coach Roy won the Coach of the Year award as voted by his fellow coaches around the state.

The Junior Varsity won all their meets this year going 3-0 in the invitationals and running away with the T.J. team victory.

Although Marshall is going to lose 5 out of their top 8 runners, they hope to have a good season next year. "Go for two in 82"

SIX GIRLS QUALIFY FOR STATE

Marshall's Girls' Swimming Team finished their year with a 4-6 record. They finished third in the conference and had six team members qualify for state.

Among the girls who went to the state meet, Heather Brazas had the best finish with a 5th place in the 200 I.M. Barb Hummel, Kristen Bills, Leslie DeVera, Beth Fryar, and Julie Osborne also qualified for state and gave strong performances as well. Good Luck next year girls!

Redskin Golfers Rebuild

The Marshall Golfers are just starting to rebuild for next year. They're a pretty young team trying for a big season next year. Coach Reynolds said his team could have been a little stronger as a whole team. Nevertheless, they fought for victory and turned out a fairly good season. They had a Varsity record of 4-7 all and 4-3 in the conference. The J.V. had a 5-5 all and a 5-2 in the conference. The top 2 golfers, Chris O'Connor and Mark Meservey, had some impressive scores. Mark had a 43 average and Chris had a 42 average. There were a lot of other strong golfers, too, like Tim Lake and Rob Porter. The J.V. was lead by Joe Sayers, Brian Palmer, Todd Bredice, Phil Knuass, and Dave Heidenreich. Other strong J.V. golfers were; Chris Quada, Geoff Mitchell, Kevin Perrin, Troy Miller and Jeff Spray. Coach Reynolds is looking forward to next year with his young team.

Young Netters Look Forward to a Rebuilding Year

Although Marshall's Girls' Tennis Team wasn't as victorious as they had hoped to be, they still had put on one tough show. The team won three, but had lost ten matches during the season. The netters always played their hearts out to the finish, though.

The most improved player award was presented to the very deserving player, Jenny Craig. The 1st doubles team consisted of Colleen Woodin and Colleen Clement.

Boys Take 2nd in Twin Valley

Can Marshall have a winning season in '82? This question loomed big in the minds of all Redskin fans as the season began. Marshall had a good team returning with 9 returning lettermen and 8 Seniors coming back for '82. The Redskins were led by co-captains Brad Petty and Mike Mumaw. Brian Huffman, Bob Yonkers, and Mark Meservey completed the starting line up. In addition, Gary O'Dell, Guy Mullen, Greg Taylor, Dave O'Dell, and Todd Brazas came off the bench to add the demention of good depth to the team. Mark Meservey was named to the Twin Valley All Conference First Team and Guy Mullen received an Honorable Mention award for his effort. Although some key injuries occurred during the course of the season, the Redskins compiled a fine 15-7 record and hopefully can equal or better that figure next year.

J.V. 'Skins Show Promise For The Future

The 1981-82 J.V. Basketball team had a fine season this year. The J.V. 'Skins finished with a 13-7 overall record and tied for first in the conference. The team streaked to a 9-1 conference mark before dropping two of its last four games and tying for the championship with Sturgis. The J.V. cagers were an up and down team this year. The team relied on pressure defense and a fast paced offense. If the team continues to improve they will make a fine varsity squad.

Netters Have Changeable Season

Co-captains of the 1982 Girls' Varsity Volleyball team were Jody Craig and Angie Weatherly. The Most Valuable Player award was presented to Sal DeGraw. The Netters were coached by Rick Nieni, who has previously coached the girls. The team ended their season with an overall record of 16-12.

The J.V. Girls Volleyball team held the season record of 11-3. There were many changes in the season this year. The first one occurred when their first coach, Bobbilu Lautzenheiser, had to quit her position. Then came the new coach, Tammy Cipic. The young 'skins were skeptical of their new coach at first, but then became very supportive of her. Co-Captains of the J.V. team were Amy Machata, and Jenny Craig.

The 1982 Varsity Players were: Coach Rick Niemi, Denise Owens, Robin Pell, Jackie Ariss, Sal DeGraw, Ann Washburn, Cathy Antonino, Leslie Zabonick, Lorie Baker, Ann Meade, Jody Craig, Colleen Woodin, Angie Weatherly, and Margie Mortimer.

Matmen Send Four to State

The wrestlers ended their season with a 6 to 7 record for dual matches.

Ben Armstrong commented on his team by stating, "The 1981-82 wrestling season was an up and down season. There was a very large turnout for this year's team, but there were few boys returning from last year's undefeated team with very much experience." The highlights of the season were the wins over Hillsdale and Coldwater.

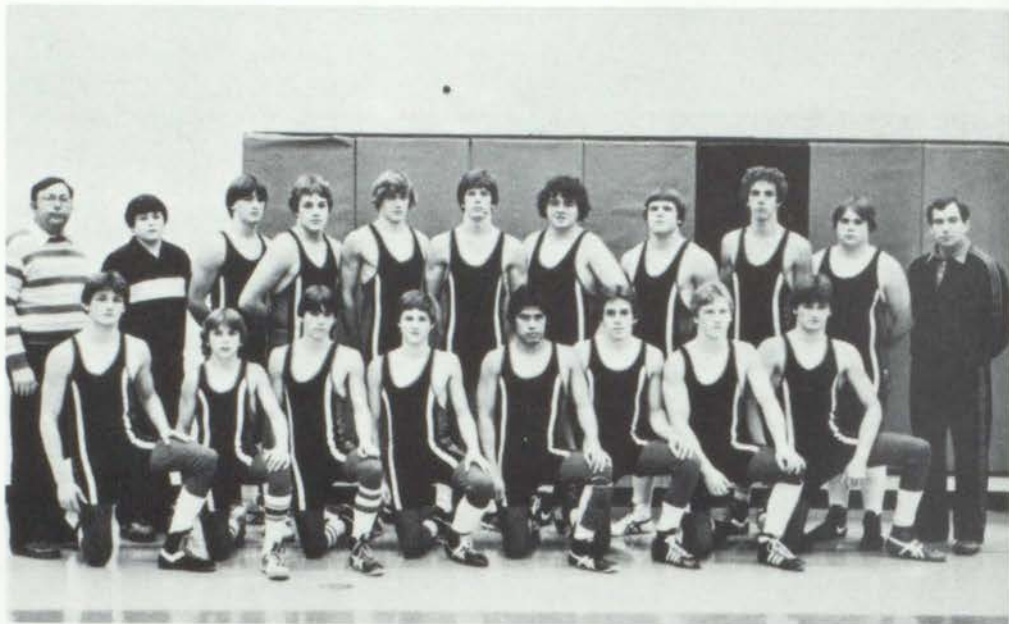

When Marshall's Wrestlers went to districts, they finished 4th out of 18 other schools. Then, moving onto Regionals, the Matmen went on to challenge 31 other teams, and pulled out in a second place position. Finally, in the State Tournament of 92 teams represented, Marshall placed 7th amongst the top ten.

Everyone on the 1981-82 wrestling team, whether they were J.V. or Varsity, played an important factor in the outcome of this year's season.

Wrestling can be one of the toughest sports. Challenges range from floor burns, getting dropped on your head, and to the extremes of starving and overeating so that you will be able to participate in the next match.

You would have to be tough to endure all of these tasks. Yet, this does not even include all of the never-ending, hard, gruesome practices. That's why our wrestlers are one of the best and we're proud of them.

Marshall was represented by four wrestlers at the State Tournament in March. Greg Marhle, Fred Damron, Ted Damron, and Richard Goodman all faired well. Greg placed 3rd in the 155 pound class, Fred Damron placed 2nd in his weight class while his brother, Ted, took 7th in his weight group. Richard Goodman, who also did well at the state meet, was among the four who represented Marshall.

Tankers Look Forward to Next Year

The Marshall High School swim team had a difficult season which started off on the wrong foot. Many problems arose during the season. A prime example was the fact that Marshall's pool was not in working order. The swim team had to travel to K.C.C. to practice everyday for 2½ hours of vigorous training. This created two problems; time and transportation.

Starting out his first year of coaching, Dave Odenbach was a perfect candidate for the job. Before coming to Marshall High School, Odenbach swam competitively in California. The 'Skins went into the season with an immediate 10 point loss because Marshall had no divers. "It was a difficult year," said Odenbach. He hopes to have a much more successful season next year. They ended the season with a 1-7 record.

Hard Work Pays Off

The Marshall Girls' Track Team consisted of over forty athletically inclined girls.

These girls started practice during the end of winter. They met every day in the rain, snow, or sometimes even a little sun. Through hard work and dedication, Marshall's final tracksters took 3rd place in the Twin Valley meet, only a few points out of second.

The team worked very hard to accomplish their goals for receiving their certificates. Of the 40 some girls who participated, 22 received varsity letters, 9 earned varsity certificates and 15 members received J.V. certificates.

The girls were coached by Christy Papes, whose previous coaching experience definitely gave strength to the team.

The high lights of the season were the wins over Sturgis and Hastings. These wins were exceptional because these teams were considered strong teams in the conference.

Amy Whittaker, Bridgitt Flynn, Deb Norgan and Renee McCosh start the mile race with much determination.

Harriers Finish Second

Once again the boys' track team has another year of outstanding performances. Through a great desire of dedication to the team, both from the guys and their coach, Mr. Roy, they hung in there when the competition got tough.

Even though it took awhile to get the team alive, they soon began to perform! The distance runners were one of the team's greatest strengths. Tim Danziger, Chris Delaney, Todd Kirkby, Mike Palmer, Mike Funk, Ed Dennis, and Tom Kelley could be seen running their legs off all over town which really paid off. Tom Kelley placed 1st at Regionals in the 3200 meter run, and 5th in the 2 mile at State. As a whole, the team finished 2nd at Twin Valley.

Coach Mr. Roy earned respect from all of his runners. He didn't stand for any low spirits, and inspired his runners to do their best.

Varsity 'Skins Have Tough Luck

The 1982 Varsity Baseball team was better than their record. The team showed great improvement over the year. They lost several close games that could have gone either way depending upon the bounce of the ball. The young men had several games with excellent ball clubs including Lincoln Park, Lumen Christi, and Sturgis, who was rated 4th in the state. The year was a rebuilding season for the Skins as they had only 6 seniors. By the end of the season the Redskins showed much promise for the future. Hopefully, this will continue next year for a very successful season.

J.V. 'Skins Show Promise For the Future

The 1982 Junior Varsity Baseball team had a good season this year. They finished with an 11-6 record and took second in the Twin Valley. The team had a good attitude toward the game and played well together. Unlike the varsity, it seemed like the J.V. 'skins got all the breaks. When they needed a double play, someone on the other team would hit into one. Coach Trice was very happy with the team's progress and thinks they will do well in the future.

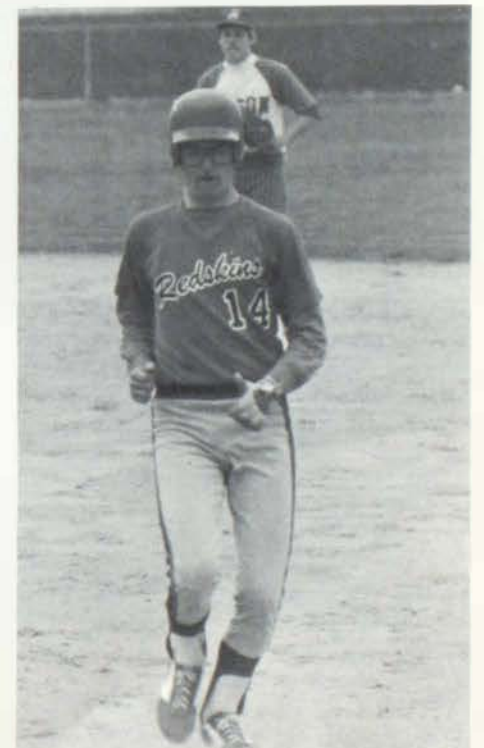

Jeff Eldridge prepares to whallop the ball while the dugout cheers him on.

Rick Crouch hustles back to first before the throw arrives.

Lady Linksters Have A Fine Season

Would the Girls' Golf team have a successful season with only one senior, Liz Gammon, on the team? The answer was yes. The female linksters compiled one of their best records ever. Lead by Junior all-conference selection, Kathleen Moore, the Redskins took second in the Twin Valley. Besides Gammon and Moore, the team consisted of juniors, Robin Hunt and Julie Willis; sophomore, Wendy Perrin; and freshman, Heidi Easterday. With these fine golfers returning next season, the team should look forward to a winning season. The varsity can anticipate excellent help from the J.V.'s as they had an undefeated season.

Netters Have Rough Season

The Marshall Netters had an unexpectedly rough season this year, ending the season with a 5-10 record. The Netters had to come down from a last year's high record of 11-3. The tennis team anticipated a good season but had a lot of tough competition this year. Returning next year are lettermen, Dieter Hunter, Bill Mack, Dave Tuck, Jeff Albright, and Chris Quada. Next year's team will be ready for a winning season under the leadership of coach Paul Rauth.

Cheerleaders Do a Great Job This Year

The 1981-82 cheerleading squad was the most active squad ever. They usually practice three days a week, not including the game. They did several things for the players, students, and community this year. During football, the cheerleaders made a six foot long Hero sandwich for the players and decorated the fountain with the players names. For the basketball season, they made another sandwich and also gave each of the players a boutonniere for good luck. When the cheerleaders weren't busy doing things for the players, they competed in several competitions. Their best finish was at the Coldwater competition where they took a third place. The girls did a fine job this year and will continue to do so in the future.

The entire basketball cheerleading squad presented this mount for the fans at the last home game.

ORGANIZATIONS

Building Council Always on The Move

Although Building Council is in no way a governing body at Marshall High School, it is viewed as a decision making, representative council of students. Some of the functions they organize are Homecoming, Spirit Festival, assemblies, student exchanges and visitations, the blood drive, and student problems. In these areas they set up dates and organize activities. These include lawn and window displays, balloting for Homecoming court, and designating special "days" like Red and Black day for Homecoming. Also, they select assemblies, go to other schools and compare activities, and suggest solutions for problems related to school activities.

The elected Senior chairperson this year was Jim Peters, and Mike Vachow was Junior chairperson. Other parts of the committee were two representatives from each grade and class presidents.

Administrator, Mr. Davis, and the faculty advisors, Ms. Magnus, Ms. Wingerter, Mr. Triage, and Mr. Rowbotham helped a great deal to assist the students' comments, suggestions, and decisions.

Kristi Sommers, Mr. Armstrong, and Amy Whittaker think the situation over carefully before making a final decision.

N.H.S. Expands Enrollment

The Marshall chapter of the National Honor Society has grown to include over thirty members. New Senior members were selected during the month of February and were required to have maintained at least a 3.00 grade point average. In addition, they were selected on the basis of their involvement in extracurricular and community activities, their leadership abilities, and their characters. New Junior members were selected in May and had to have maintained at least a 3.50 grade point average.

This year, the NHS has organized and participated in several activities. Members began their year in December by organizing a panel of college students to discuss college life with interested Seniors. Later, the National Honor Society prepared for the induction of its new Senior members and obtained Dr. Neva Bartel, Dean of Fine Arts at Kellogg Community College, as guest speaker. In April, several members of the society acted as tour guides for parents whose children will be entering high school next year. Later in April, the NHS planned a Senior Citizen Visitation Day to allow the older citizens of our community to experience high school life. NHS members accompanied participants in the activity to a class, lunch, and musical entertainment, provided by the Marshall High School Band. Wrapping up an active year, the NHS inducted the Junior members in May.

The NHS elected Seniors were, Standing: Tim Lake, Jackie Morris, Mark Wagenschutz, Ed Dennis, Julie Osbourn, Erich Heidenreich, Paul Rauth, Teresa Wirebaugh, Lisa Bolinger, Mark Campo, Dawn VonThurn Sitting: Claire Hill, Denise Wood, Deb Wheeler, and Sal DeGraw.

FFA Has A Very Productive Year

The Marshall Future Farmers of America Chapter this year has 93 members. Serving as President was Doug Koenig; Vice President, Todd Hazel; Secretary, Suzanne Stockel; Treasurer, Don Huepenbecker; Reporter, Barb Beneker, and Sentinel, Gus Stockel.

The Marshall F.F.A. was one of six chapters in Michigan to be recognized as an outstanding chapter at the 1981 National F.F.A. convention which was held November 10-12. The Chapter also received recognition from the State F.F.A. association for its community service work at Griner's Nature Center.

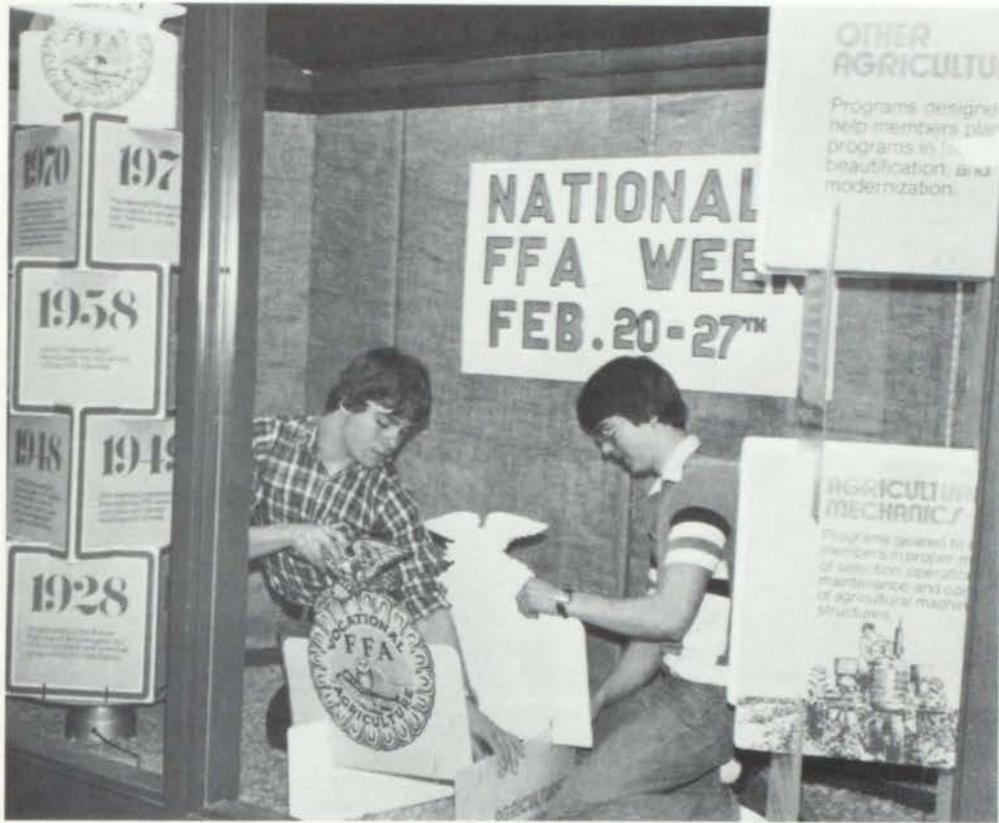

Chapter members sold an all time high of 1370 cases of citrus fruit and 984 pounds of pecans to raise money to support their activities throughout the year. Members attended the National Convention in Kansas City, the State FFA convention at MSU, and leadership camp. Three days out of the summer the ten most active members are taken on a trip up north to a resort at Crystal Lake near Traverse City.

Yearbook Sales Set Record

The 1982 Journalism students pulled together as a staff which helped produce a better organized, and hopefully, more accurate yearbook. We worked to raise money for more pages, colored spreads, and a personalized cover. We thought that having the students' names engraved on the cover added a little personalization to the yearbook. Also, this year we sold a record of over 600 yearbooks.

Mrs. Wheeler, our yearbook advisor, helped to organize and produce good ideas for the yearbook. Brad Petty, our Editor-in-Chief, and Rick Weaver, our Advertising Editor, along with Editors; Angie Sunday, Karla Elyea, Greg Taylor, Heidi Harrison, and Stacy Kiessling, worked to reach their goals and deadlines.

Learning all about the different areas and trying to produce the best ideas we could was hard, but we hoped to produce the best yearbook possible.

Lights, Camera, Action!

One of the extra-curricular activities that are available at Marshall High School is Drama.

C. Lee Ralston directs the plays that are presented at the school. This year two plays were performed: "Whose Life Is It Anyway?" in March, and in November, "Lil' Abner". These students dedicated themselves to hours and hours of practice.

Mark Campo, Joachim Hund, Tim Danziger, and Eric Sullivan have a dress rehearsal before the big night of "Whose Life Is It Anyway?"

In the production of "Whose Life Is It Anyway?", Tim Danziger, and Bob Veramay look in on their patient.

Deb Parrish, Tim Danziger, Bob Veramay, and Jackie Morris rehearse for the opening night of "Lil' Abner".

NEWSPAPER WORKS ON A NEW LOOK.

The 1981-1982 Interchange received many compliments on their newspaper. The newspaper staff set good goals for improvement on the Interchange. The composer machine was returned to the department. This helped improve the quality and appearance of the Interchange. Producing 10 newspapers with 1,000 copies each took a lot of hard work.

Mrs. Wheeler, their helpful advisor, hoped to give all the students a chance to be involved in the different areas of writing the newspaper.

As Editor, Lori Watson did a fine job of guiding her staff.

Disguised as a Connoisseur, Oscar the Grouch, a Mona Lisa, and Raggedy Ann are Connie Petch, Mark Diamond, Monica Casarez, and Shannon Estill.

Working hard at designing a layout is Al Tatar.

THE LIBRARY EXPANDS THEIR INVENTORY

The library contains many useful items other than books for the MHS students. Things such as records, tapes, video cassettes, filmstrips, and vertical files enable students to expand their knowledge. The library has an average of 13,000 books, 50 magazines, and 5 current newspapers displayed throughout it.

Classes research and do projects at the library. Also, it's a place for working on term papers, recreational reading, book reports, and finding information on hobbies and crafts.

Mrs. Housman and Mrs. Meade help produce video programs for later use. They tape trials, special speakers, and speech activities for the students to see themselves and others. Many classrooms take advantage of this learning technique.

Here Mrs. Housman, our head librarian, and Mrs. Meade, our Media Aide are with their morning helpers Karen Hockett and Mel Trine.

The enthusiastic afternoon helpers Sherrie Rapp, Ted Thomas, Carrie Schmidt, Thelma Ousley, and Dorothy Behl get together for a group picture.

Membership Expands in The M-Club

Under the guidance of Ben Armstrong, the M-Club had a very successful year. Their trips, meetings, and sales all had great turn outs.

The M-Club is made up of any varsity athlete who wishes to join the club. The main goal of the club throughout the year is to earn money to take a trip to Cedar Point at the end of the school year.

The way the money is raised is through the concessions at home Basketball games and any tournaments Marshall High School might host. This year there were the Twin Valley Wrestling Tournament, District Basketball Tournament, and the Marshall Sports Festival.

This year's officers were President, Tim Danziger; Vice President, Dean Wolfman; and Points Recorder, Kristi LaBonte.

Through hard work and dedication the M-Club meet their goals and achievements which enabled them to enjoy fun activities throughout the year.

The Craig sisters, Jody and Jenny, team up to sell refreshing Cokes for the M-Club.

JA Helps to Introduce the Business World

Junior Achievement is a non-profit organization financed by people and businesses. It helps students learn leadership talents, gain business knowledge, recognition for their achievements, and get information about many different career areas.

The reason for J.A. is to give the students work experience and insight toward the world of economics. To gain this knowledge, the students can actually get together and run their own businesses. Learning to organize and operate their businesses teaches them a great deal. There are also special staff and volunteer advisors who help the students out.

In these businesses the students learn about taxes, salaries, electing officers, and manufacturing and marketing products or services.

Mr. Strough helped the students out a great deal. He helped organize and set up the businesses, meetings, and promoted the whole program.

The members of the Company of the Year are as follows: Seated: Michael Upston, Sandy Vincent, Pam Harink, Todd Hulce, Lisa LaValley, Standing: Wes Miller, Rick Rentschler, Jim Merritt, Kelly Clissold, Julie Kilbourn, Marsha Wright, Dr. Sherman, and Dave Grinder.

JA-AY Enterprises' members were: Seated: Larry Polendo, Kevin Kornish, Jeff Spray, Diaman Amsler, Amy Wallen, Ellen Lust, Standing: Chris Scheidel, Ken Kilbourn, Mr. Olland, Andy Chapman, Sheryl Godde, Lisa Lamb, Cindy Huggett, Vanessa Shepherd, Deb Reed, Lisa Shepherd, Marilyn Rollins, and Chris Douglas.

Businesses and Awards of Junior Achievement

The Company Redskin Marketing was made up of the following students: Seated: John Collis, Jamie Dickey, Vicky Sherrell, Dave Iding, Traci Bolinger, Standing: Mr. Tranter, Becky Rupp, Vicki Avery, Adriana McCaleb, Nick Groat, Inga Roe, Dave Ham, Don Campbell, Frank Page, Kim Chapple, Jeff Bowen, Deb Norgan, Tim Hicks, Todd McAuliff, and An-Ninh Thi Pham.

The presidents this year were Pam Harink, in charge of Progressive Enterprises which marketed fruit shaped bread boards; Vicky Sherrell, in charge of Redskin Marketing which manufactured heavy coathangers; and Daiman Amsler (1st semester pres.) and Ellen Lust (2nd semester pres.) lead JA-AY Enterprises which produced bottle openers. An Award was given to Kelly Clissold for worker of the year. Progressive Enterprises was named company of the year. And the president of the year award went to Vicky Sherrell.

All in all, J.A. members had a very successful year.

Calculating and recording expenditures for Redskin Marketing is Jamie Dickey, Sheryl Rapp, and Vicky Sherrell.

Co-Op Helps Students Out Financially

With the help of Mr. Johnston a number of Marshall High students participated in the CO-OP program. The students not only earn a few dollars, which is greatly needed these days, but they also get a head start experiencing the world of business.

To be in CO-OP you have to be either a Junior or Senior. The students can either be on a morning or afternoon program. This means that half of the day they work and the other half is spent in school. The students also can earn credits needed to graduate by being in CO-OP.

Mr. Johnston helped the students find jobs, help prepare them for their interviews, fill out applications, and inform them on what will be expected of them from their employers.

This program can be very beneficial for some students, and may be a very good idea for anyone who is interested in expanding their business knowledge.

Filing Co-op forms in the Office is Kris Avery.

Bob Ellis, working hard at McDonalds, prepares some orders of french fries.

Keith Kenyon makes sure there is plenty of meat on display at Felpausch.

Busy with recording some figures at Tidy's is Mike VanWormer

Vo-Ed Students Receive Career Training

Another program offered to the juniors and seniors is the VO-ED program. Students who wish to receive training and skills for a full time job after they graduate can get into this program. They can gain the knowledge of a trade to get into a field of work that they enjoy.

Some of the available work areas are mechanics, cosmetology, data processing, secretarial, horticulture, and combination welding. These are only a few of the 21 areas available to the students.

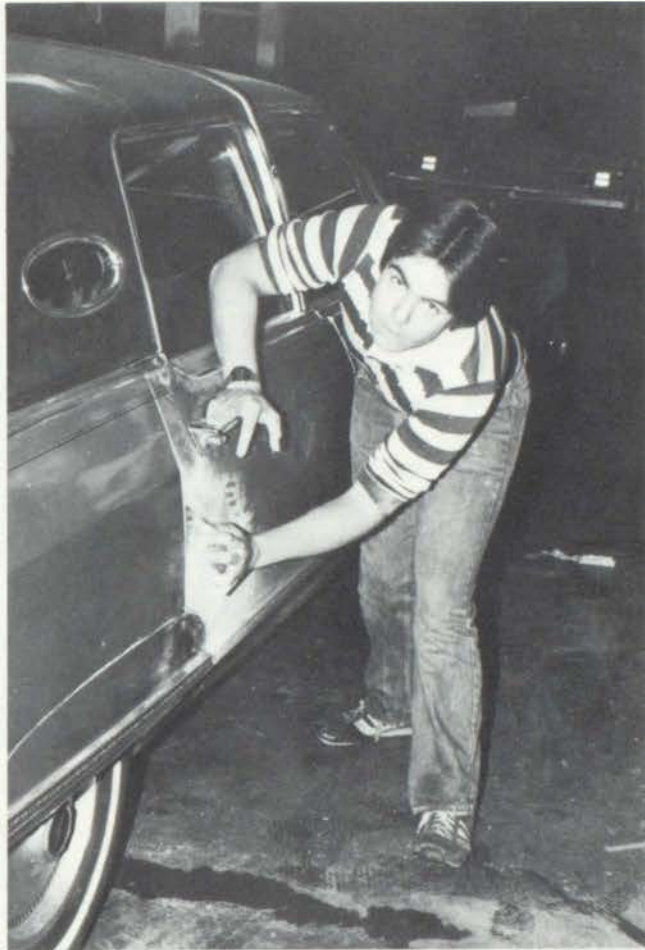

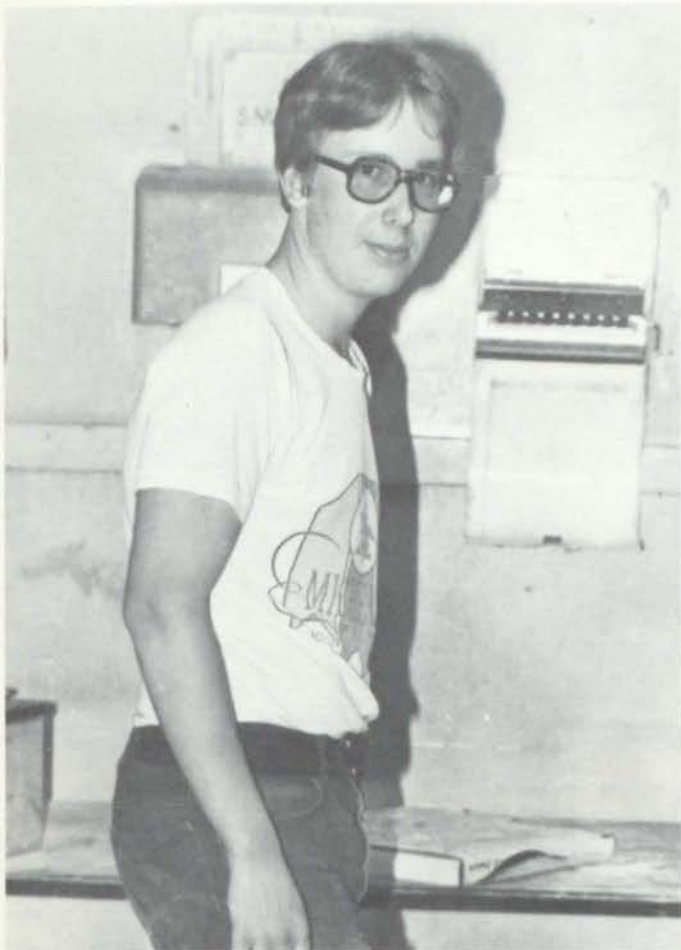

Students can be in VO-ED for one or two years, and those years can be very beneficial for them. They can receive a maximum of three credits a year for completing all of their required hours. The students also go to school half of the day, scheduling the VO-ED programs for morning or afternoon classes.

Jerry Diver, Jerry Bess, Dave Geary, instructor; Brian Stone, and Dan Livingston, instructor; take part in auto mechanics.

Bruce O'Dell wet sands a car to get it ready to paint.

Debate and Forensics Speak Out

The Marshall High School's Debate Team had a very successful year. Marshall's Novice team won speaker and team trophies at a number of invitational tournaments. Marshall's Varsity team compiled an outstanding record during the season by also winning several speaker and team trophies. At the district level, the Varsity team compiled a perfect 6-0 record. Then, at the State tournament John Brundage and Dawn VonThurn debated in the preliminary rounds. They won the quarter-final and semi-final debates, and last a tough 3-2 decision in the final round. Thus, John and Dawn finished second in the State in Class B. John and Dawn both qualified for the John S. Knight Scholarship competition. John Brundage won 1st place and a $1500 scholarship in the competition.

In Forensics, Marshall has had a number of outstanding performances. John Brundage, Elaine Smith, Teri Burns, and Gary Hayes won awards at Saturday invitational tournaments. In addition, John, Elaine, Teri, and Lori Watson qualified for the State Forensics tournament by virtue of their performances at District and Regional competitions.

Radio broadcasters Dave Morell, and Jeff Williams seem to lack enthusiasm for listening to informative speaker Elaine Smith and sales speaker Teri Burns.

ACADEMICS AND FACULTY

Marshall Musicians Look Forward to Another Good Year.

Marshall High School offers many music classes from which to choose. Vocal music is a popular choice. M.H.S. Concert Choir is open to anyone, while Women's Ensemble and Marshall Singer's each require an audition. With their director, Mr. Phillip Clissold, the Ensemble and Singers went to Washington D.C. in May. They have participated in many musical festivals and met with great success.

Are You Interested in a Business Career?

Is a Business Career your future goal? If it is, then Marshall High School has many courses from which to choose. These courses are General Business, Accounting, Office Machines, Business Law, Business Math, and Typing. All of these fine classes round off the M.H.S. Business Education Program. These classes are very popular with the students at M.H.S.

The teachers who make up this department are; Mr. Engle, Ms. Papes, Mr. Armstrong, and Ms. Rieger.

Second hour typing class hurriedly completes their typing assignments.

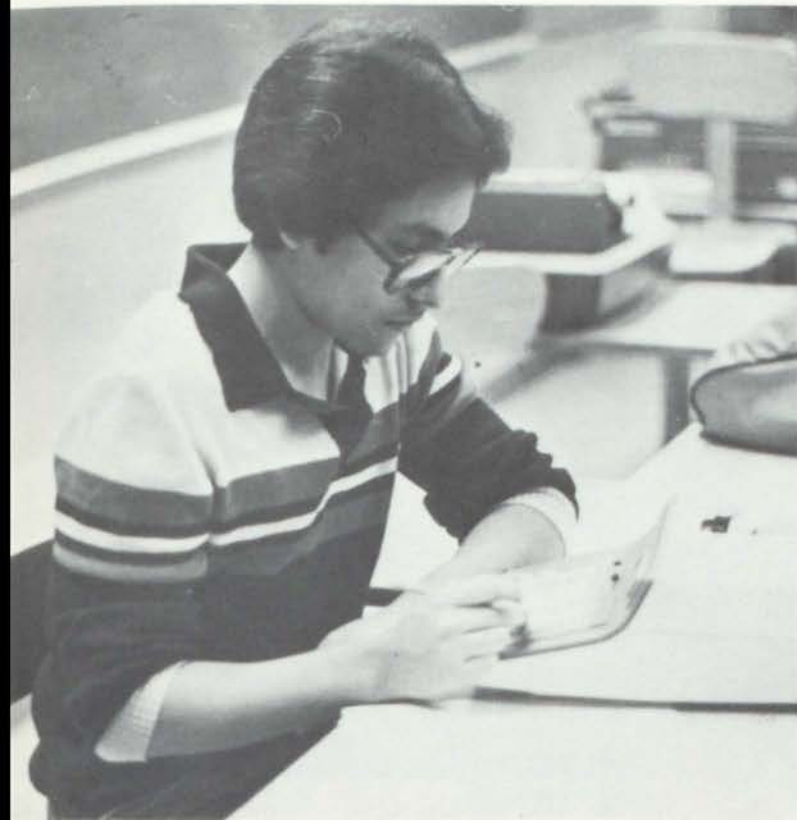

Brent Bidwell waits patiently for his assignment to be given.

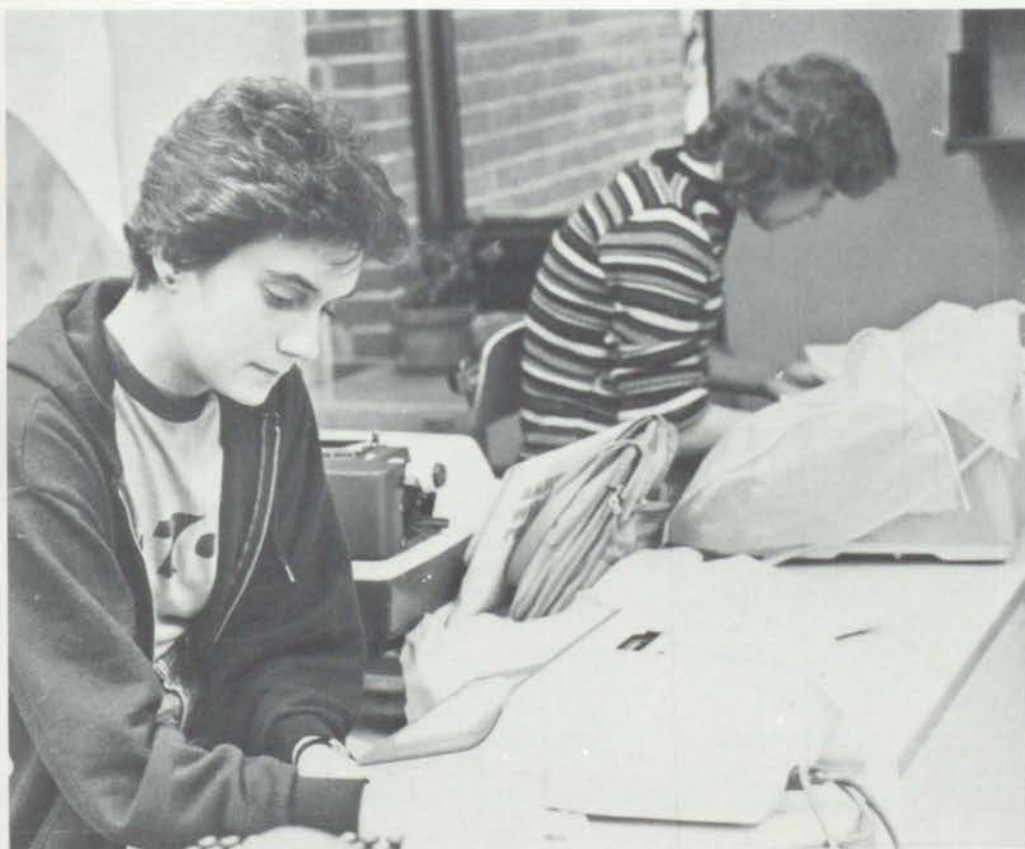

Penny Taylor is busy completing her assignments in Office Machines.

Rick Pena is learning the keyboard of the adding machine.

Mr. Armstrong keeps his 2nd hour Accounting class busy.

The students in Ms. Rieger's Office Machines class are busy adding up their packets to meet the deadline.

Reading, Writing and Homework

In order to get through Marshall High School, a student must take at least three years of English. Some students choose to take a fourth year of English, which is a good idea for those students planning on attending college.

There are two different types of English classes; regular and academic. Depending upon the students ability, they are placed into one of these classes.

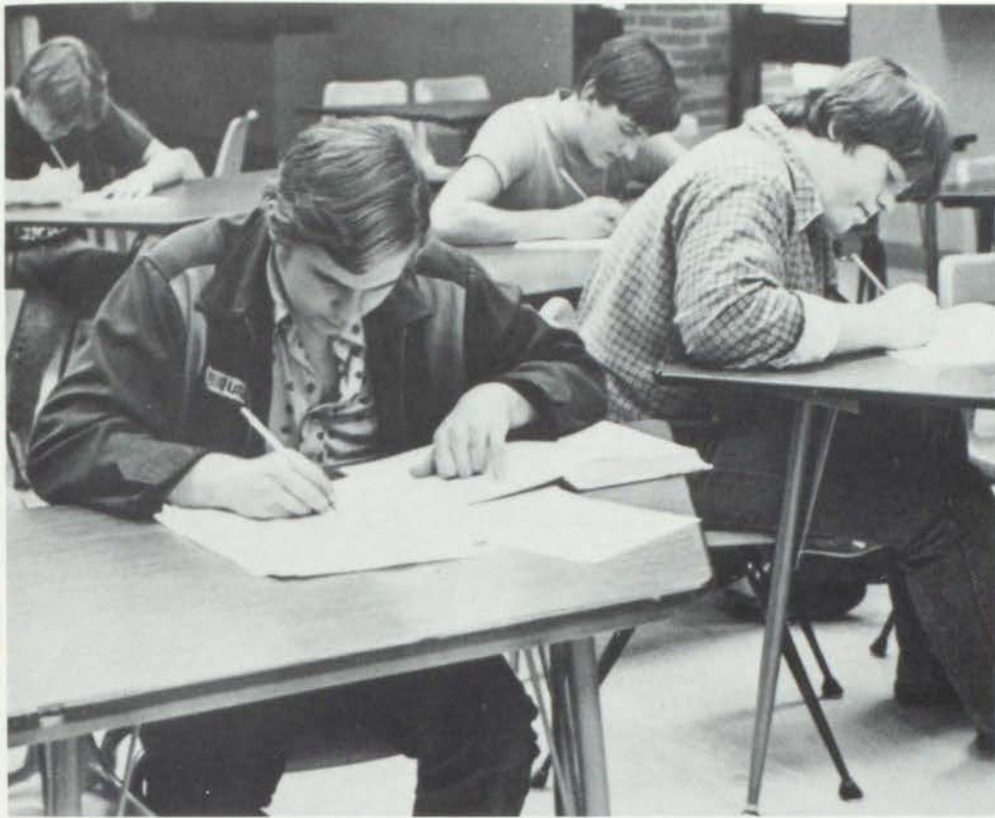

Throughout the years, students are required to read alot of stories, write alot of papers and take home alot of work.

Teachers in the English Department this year are Mrs. Grove, Mr. Haroff, Mr. Ickes, Mrs. Kinney, Ms. Magnus, Ms. Ralston, Mr. Telfer and Ms. Wingerter.

Mr. Telfer instructs his 9th grade class for their next big test.

Ms. Wingerter's class chuckles at their assignment.

Ms. Wingerter amuses her eleventh grade English class with her deer friend.

Mr. Ickes' tenth grade English class awaits the bell.

Learning To Calculate Correctly

Something that comes up in our life everyday is math. In our school, Upperclassmen must take 1 year to fulfill the requirement for graduation. This year's incoming freshman class must take two years of math, however most students are interested in taking more than one year. Ability in Math is necessary in each person's daily life. Students who are college-bound take three or four years of Math for college preparation.

In the math department the teachers are Mr. Duffey, Mr. Machata, Mr. Glynn, Mr. Malinowski, Mr. Elyea, and Mr. Triece.

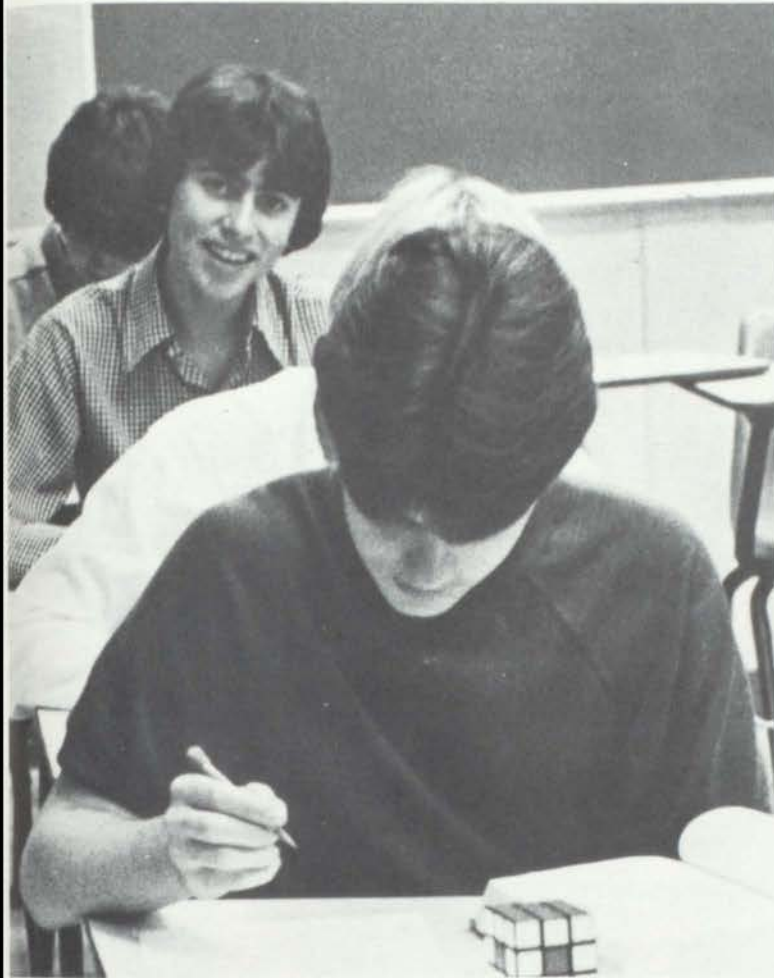

Seven classes can be selected by students at the High School. Those range from Basic Math to M.I.A.

Mr. Glynn's class is busy completing their assignments

Mr. Malinowski always keeps his students in good humor

Lee Romero tries to solve his math problems with a Rubiks Cube

These math students are completing their assignments

Mr. Triece is always available for individual help

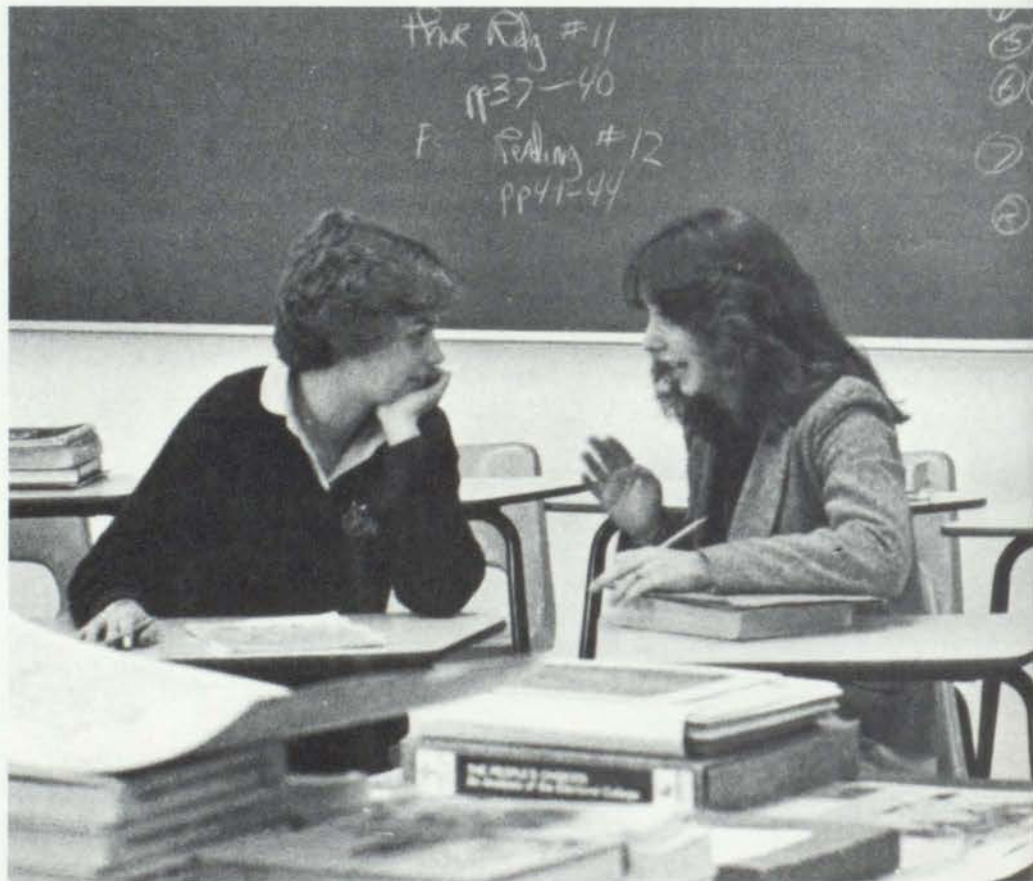

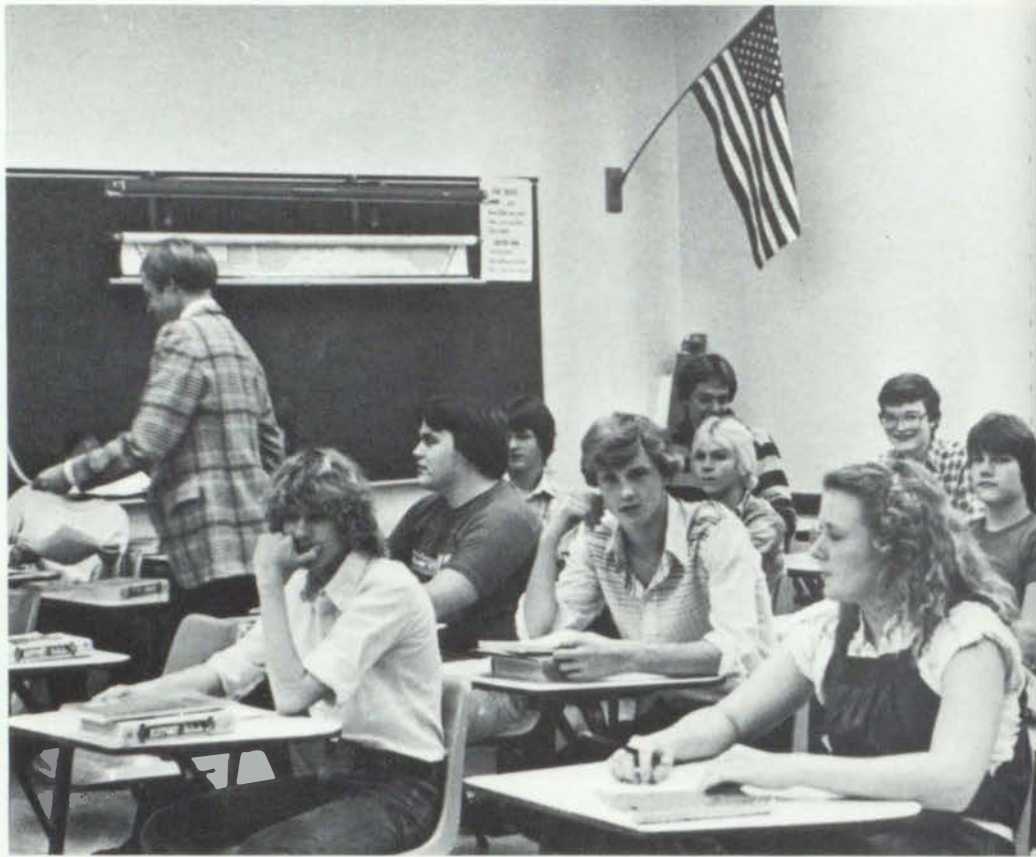

Bobby Holmes and Chad Collins check each others work

History Through The Eyes Of Men

History is a required course for all students in order to graduate. History is something we have all lived, learned and read. These classes are taught by three teachers, Mr. Roy, Mr. Cronk and Mr. Hamilton. There are also three different types of history classes offered; Michigan History, American History, and Ancient History. Seniors are required to take Econ and Government to fulfill their graduation requirements. Mr. Smouse teaches Government and Mr. Wouri teaches both Econ and Government.

Starting this year Freshmen were required to take one full year of Social Studies. This class is taught by Mr. Burns. The class teaches students values, and getting along with other people.

Mr. Hamilton hands out the next day's assignment.

Heather Brazas and Lory Dibiaggio share some historical secrets.

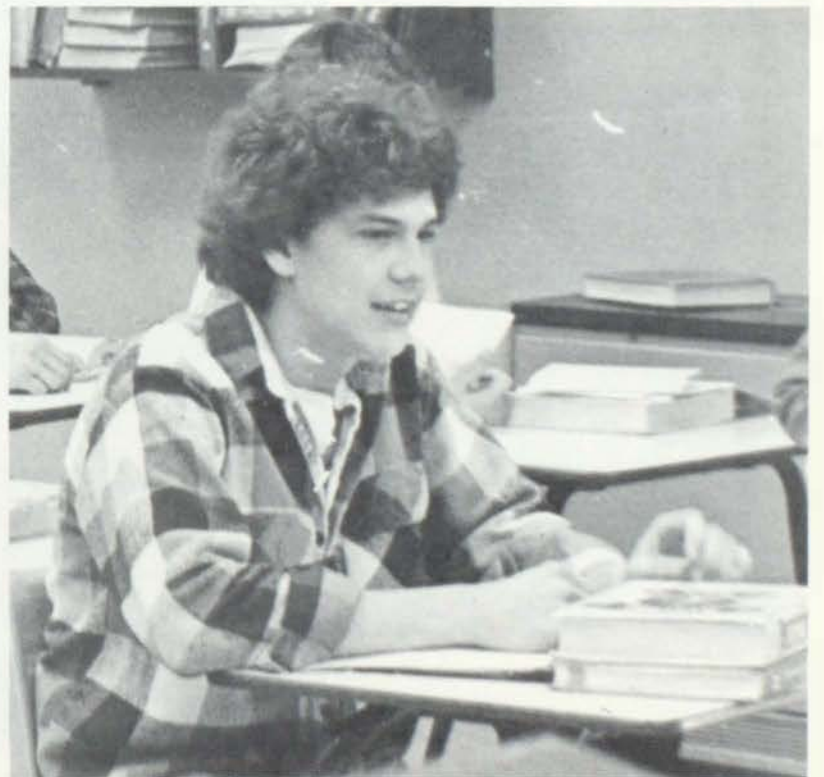

Mr. Roy prepares to give his class another exciting lecture.

Mark Diamond studies carefully for his next test.

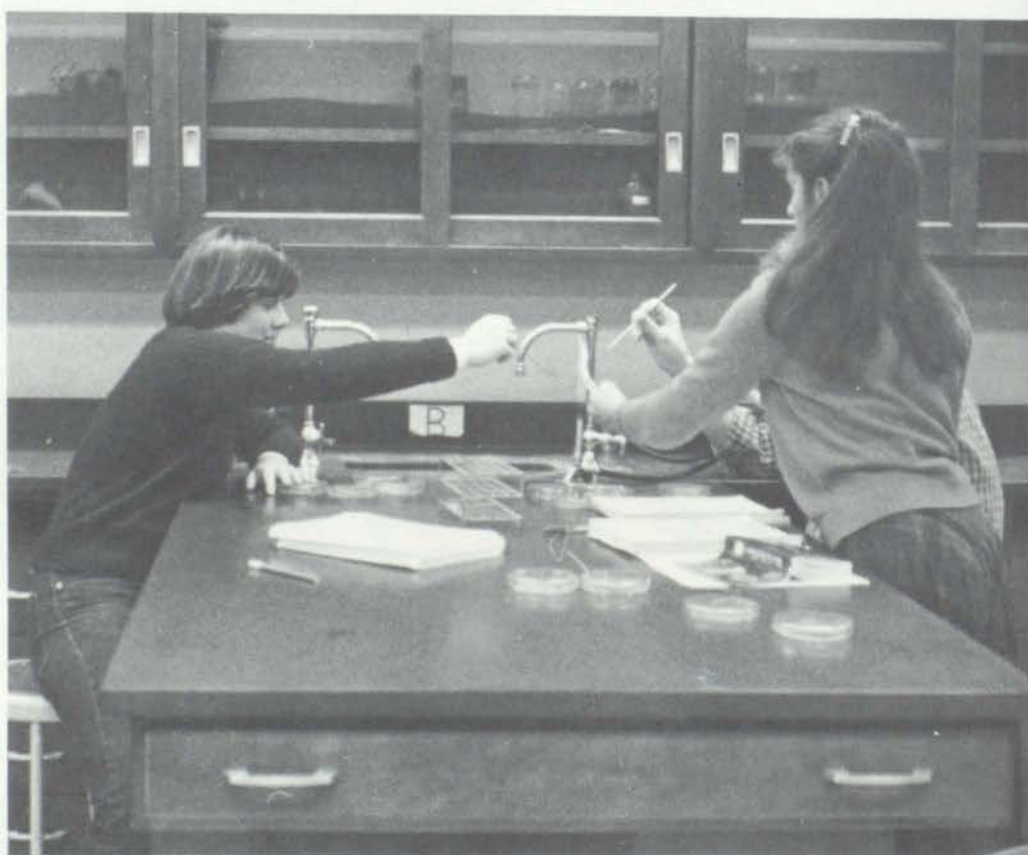

Mr. Cronk and a student check the text for an answer.

Future Scientists of Tomorrow

A popular course in MHS is Science. One reason for such popularity and involvement in this field is the fine lab facilities where students can investigate and explore many scientific experiments. Mr. Cairns, Mr. Davis, Mrs. Edwards, Mr. Kelley, and Mr. Malinowski, are the teachers who instruct these popular courses. Life Science, Earth Science, Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Microbiology, and Genetics are the courses offered. Whether counting yeast or determining the molar volume, science always proves to be challenging and very rewarding.

Everyone has fun with their experiments. Sal DeGraw and Laura Charmamedda are busy at work in Microbiology.

Jenny Clement and Wendy Perrin are making molecular models in Chemistry.

Cheryl Boyd and Richie Server are busy at work.

Todd Hindenach, Steve Karns, and Nate Dickman are ready to begin their Biology experiment.

Students Learn New Languages

The Foreign Language Department consists of three different subjects French, Latin, and Spanish.

French is conducted by Mrs. Berryhill. In French the classes study the history, geography, and, in addition to the actual language, the culture of France. Along with the class, they have a French Club. The French Club had a Christmas dinner consisting of French foods made by the members. They also attended a dinner at LeMetropol in Kalamazoo last March.

Latin is directed by Ms. Magnus. In Latin, besides the language, they study Greek mythology and Roman gods and goddesses. The Latin Club had quite a large group and is involved in many activities. They sell Christmas cards, carnations for Valentine's Day, and conduct a slave sale each spring.

Spanish is taught by Mr. Haroff. They study the language, food, and culture. Then, at the end of the year they prepare a big meal of Spanish food for the students.

Mrs. Berryhill quizzes the class on new French words with the flash-cards.

Dave Heidenreich, Pat McDonagh, Rick Crouch, and Mr. Haroff discuss a Spanish menu

Michelle Zingrebe, Leslie DeVera, Clint Fraley, Carrie Overhiser, and Ms. Magnus look through an old Latin book.

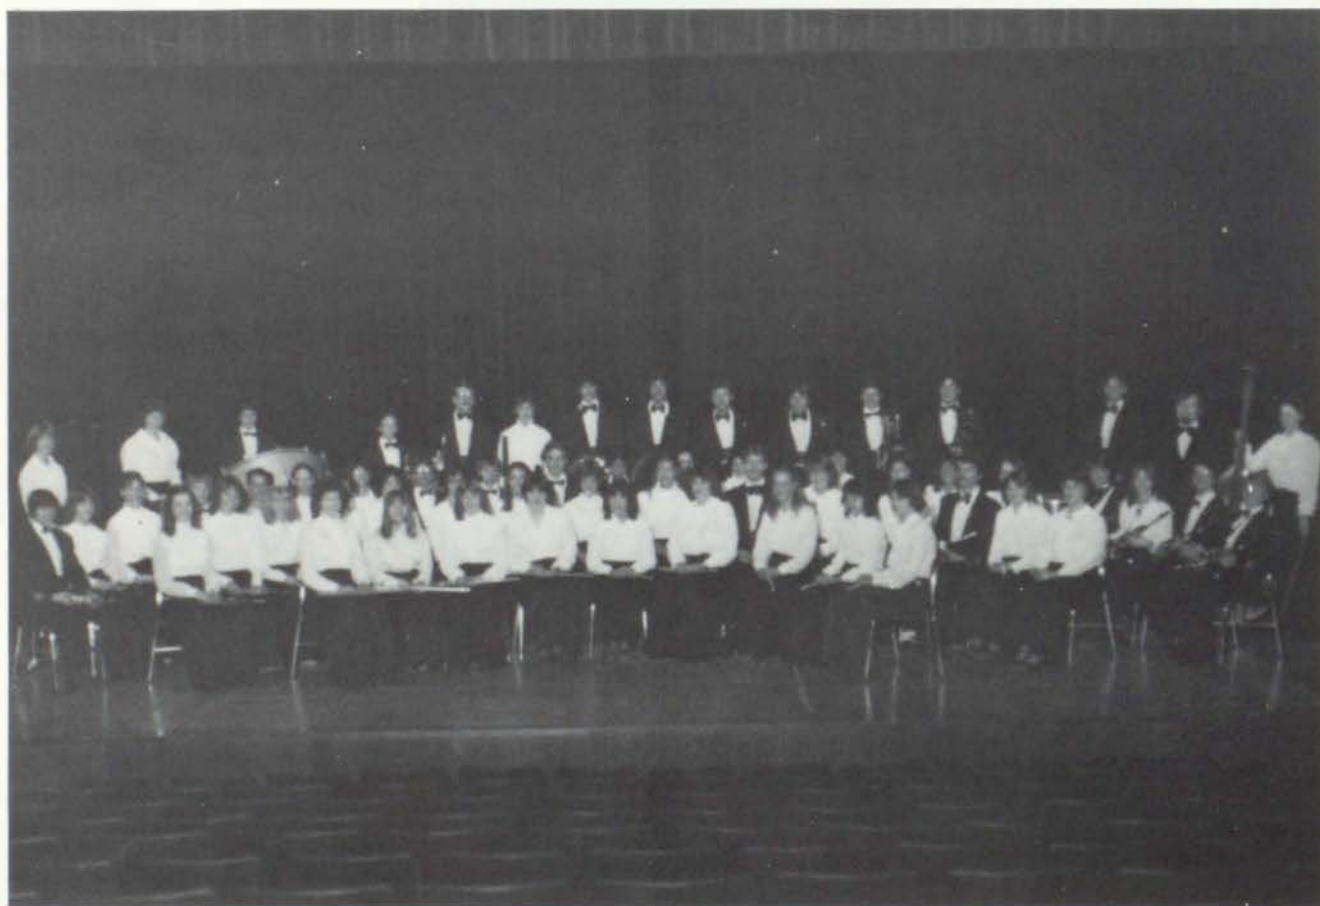

Terry Fuller awaits the next commands from his owners.

Memories are Made by the Music We Play

The memories began this year as Drum Major, Deb Wheeler, commanded, "Band, take the field!" Continuing a winning spirit, the Band and Orchestra participated in District and State Festivals. The musical year ended with "Pomp and Circumstance," but the musical memories live forever.

Fingers fly in the clarinet section as they perform a concert piece.

The following are members of the Symphonic Band: Row 1: Mary Leichliter, Mary Grzeskowiak, Joy Portinga, Julie Rio, Kris Klein, Ann Walters, Ann Meade, CeCe Aaron, Lisa Hartman. Row 2: Sally David, Deb Wheeler, Kim Hindenach, Linda Vahs, Patty Perry, Cheryl Boyd, Cathy Antonino, Wendy Marshall, Michelle Riha, Mike Beery, Judy Ryan, Cindy Auer, Paul Montgomery, Patty Baase, Ann Sebring. Row 3 Jeff Weiss, Sandy Perry, Jenny Clement, Matt Holman, Vicki Crank, Linda Allen, Leslie Zabonick, John Ickes, Todd Hicks, Tim Wheeler, Jeff Ford, Jeff Williams, Leslie DeVera, Lyn Meinert, Al Hamaker, Beth Ickes, Ellen Lust, Steve Karns, Deb Norgan, Tom Woods, Todd Hindenach. 4th Row Shelley Lusch, Lisa Weaver, Brad Lowman, Al Mershon, Alex deFinta, Tina Wirebaugh, John Zabonick, Mitch Peek, Dan Hartman, Dave Anderson, Nate Dickman, Mike Vachow, Tom Kelley, Director, Mr. John W. Beery, Wendy Gage.

A portion of the color guards stand at attention on the sidelines.

Our Marching Band forms the traditional block "M" as they play the National Anthem.

Put a Little Color Into Your Life

Why not take art as a class? You don't need any extra special skills, just a good imagination. Through the many art courses available, you can learn how to use things from water colors to blending sticks or pastels to oil paints. This year's classes were taught by Mr. John Walton.

Nancy Green and Mark Campo discuss the beginnings of an art sculpture.

Colby Lowman studies his work carefully before continuing.

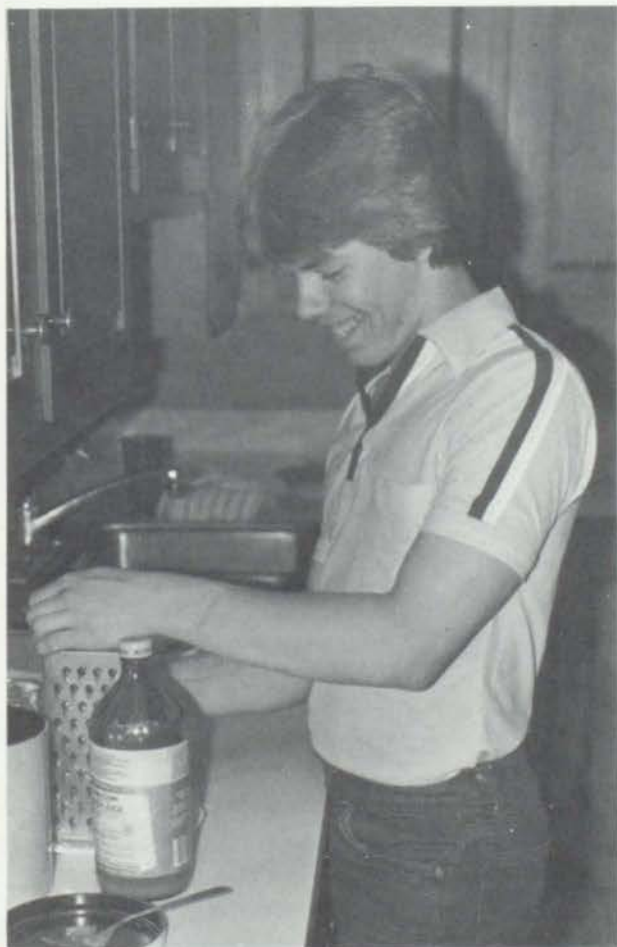

Gary Serbantez fits the matting over his finished art project.

Michelle Eaton cuts carefully along the edge of her blouse

Stitching And Cooking

Everyone loves to eat! If you want to learn how to fix your own snacks or full course meals, Home Economics is the class for you! In the sewing class you have experience in mending a simple tear or making an item of clothing. Mrs. Knaack provides stimulating discussions about all areas of homemaking.

Jeff Thompson thinks about how good his cooking will taste after it is completed.

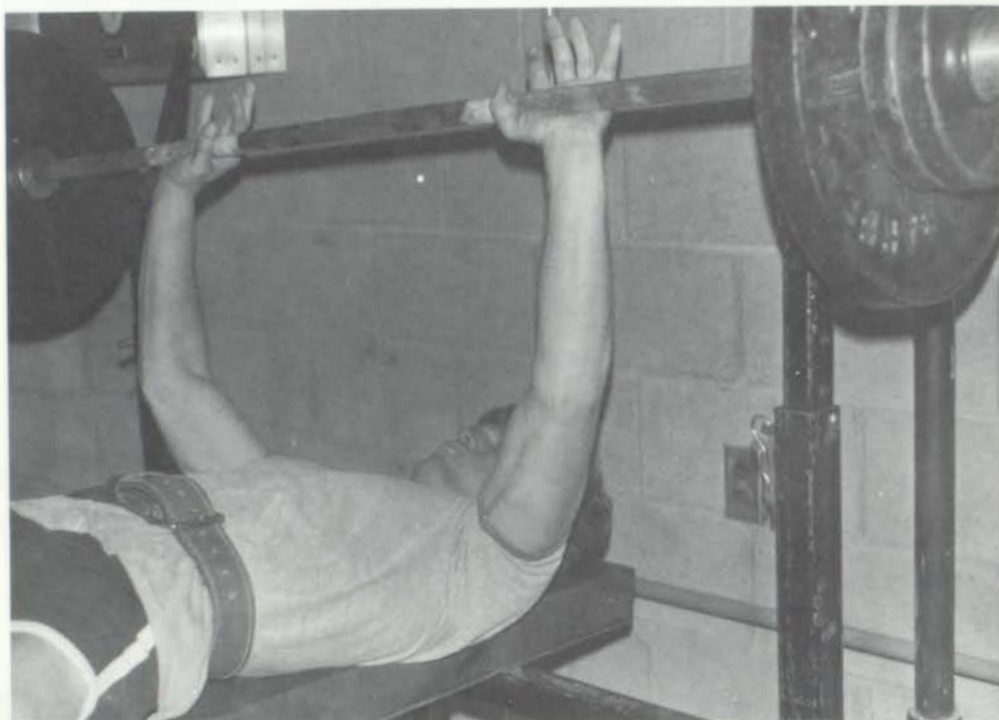

After learning the basics of sewing, Dasha Laing finally gets a chance to show off her ability.

"Let's Get Physical"

Without the Physical Education department at M.H.S., students wouldn't have a good chance to enjoy the spring weather. Students need stretching and exercise during one of their six hours of school.

Students are required to take P.E. as a freshman. They must also take this course an additional year, although many students take P.E. more than their required 2 years.

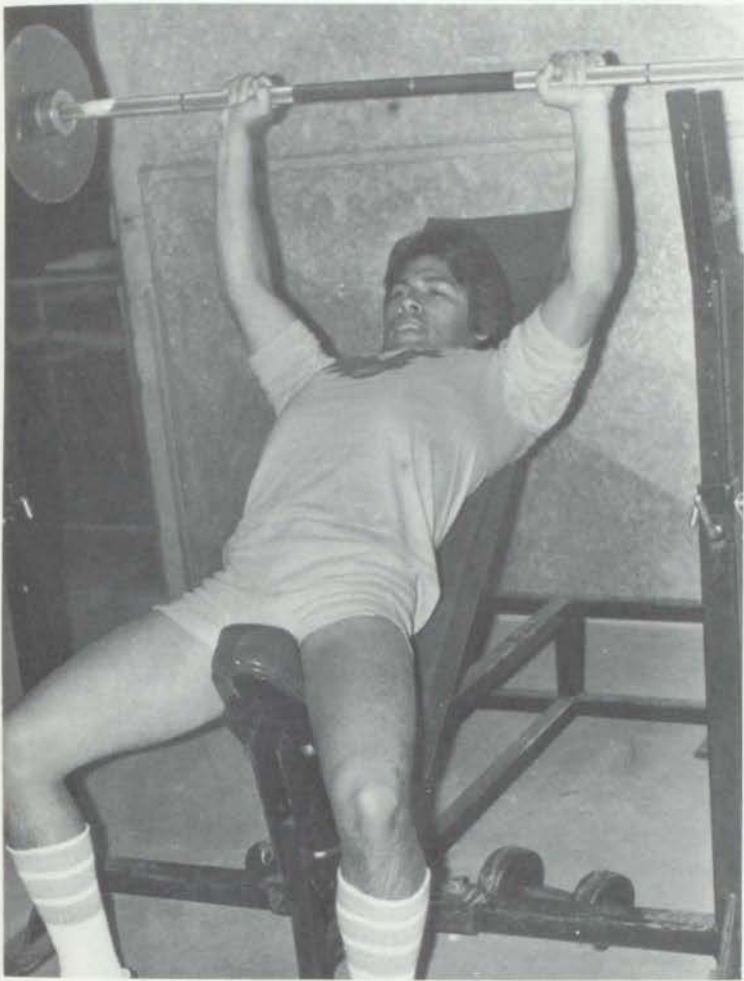

The Physical Education department offers a wide variety of courses, from Redskin Fitness to a basic fitness course. This assures a choice from a wide range of gym activities such as badmitton, flag football, or weight lifting. There are alot of courses dealing with a couple of particular areas in sports. Flag football, volleyball, and tennis can be taken in one class for a semester. The gym instructors concentrate on the fundamentals of sports so as to expose students to many areas in the world of Physical Fitness.

Greg Mahrle pyschs himself up before he begins his workout.

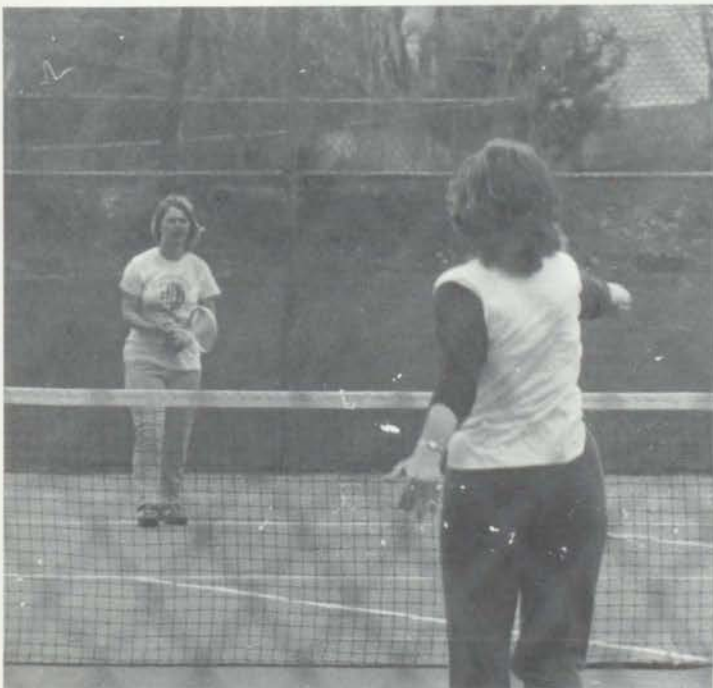

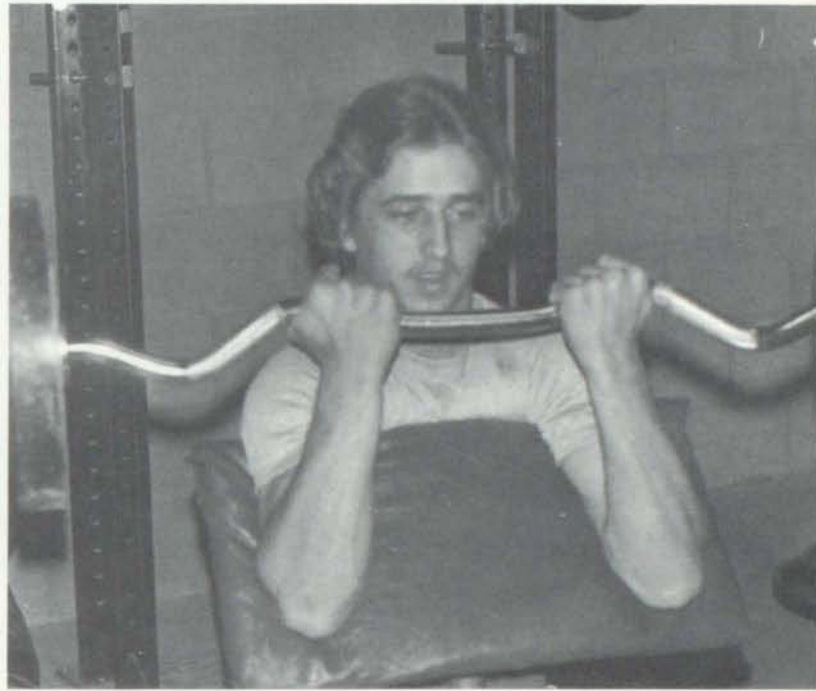

Mr. Smouse's class takes on Ms. Hopkin's class in a game of matball on a rainy day.

Pete Zapata tries out the new weight room equipment

Dave Brown concentrates on his curling form.

These two freshman girls are concentrating on their strokes.

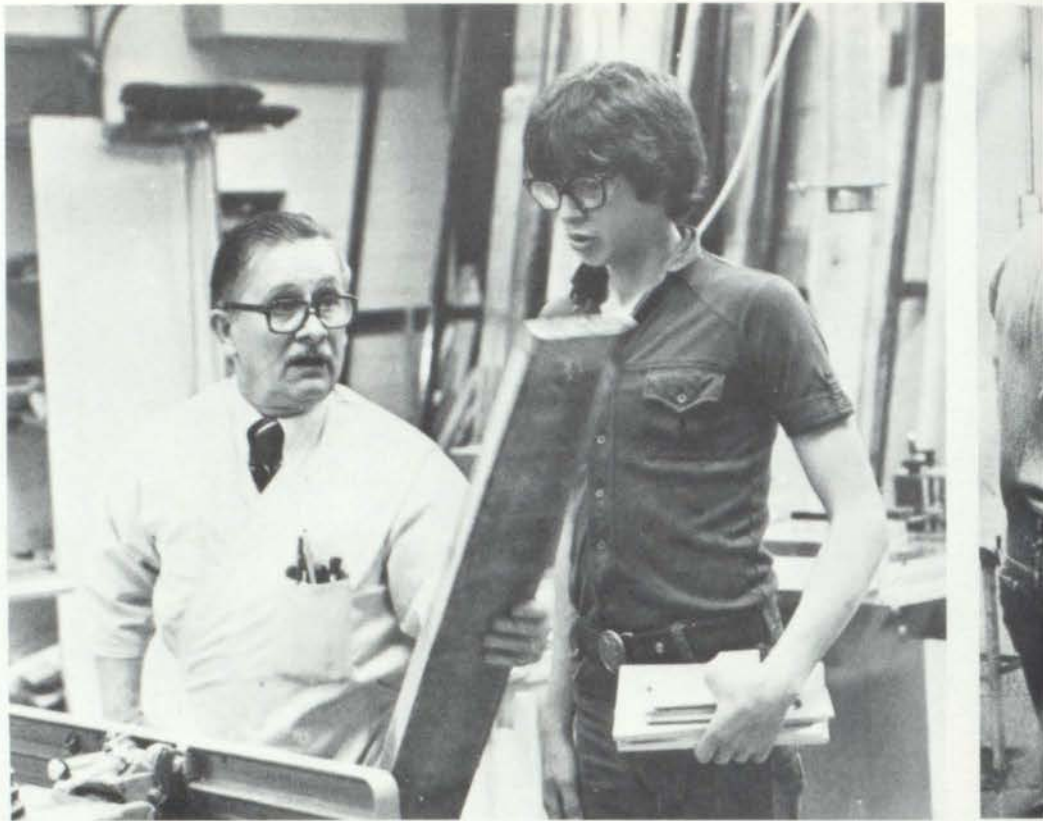

Mr. Reynolds and Tom Wintersteen combine for a game of doubles.

Starting From Scratch

In order for things to be produced in this world, there must be people to learn certain skills. Some of these basic skills are taught here at M.H.S. The teachers who instruct these skills are Mr. Carlyon who teaches Woods, Mr. Strough who teaches Drafting, and Mr. Murphy who teaches Metals.

Each day students learn something new about the fields they are studying. Some students take these classes just for another credit and some students take these classes because they plan on using these skills in their future. Whatever your reason may be, Unified Arts is a learning experience.

Mr. Carlyon shows Don Jordan the right way to do it.

Busy at work in the wood shop is Dan Reagan.

Mr. Murphy's welding class shows off their skills.

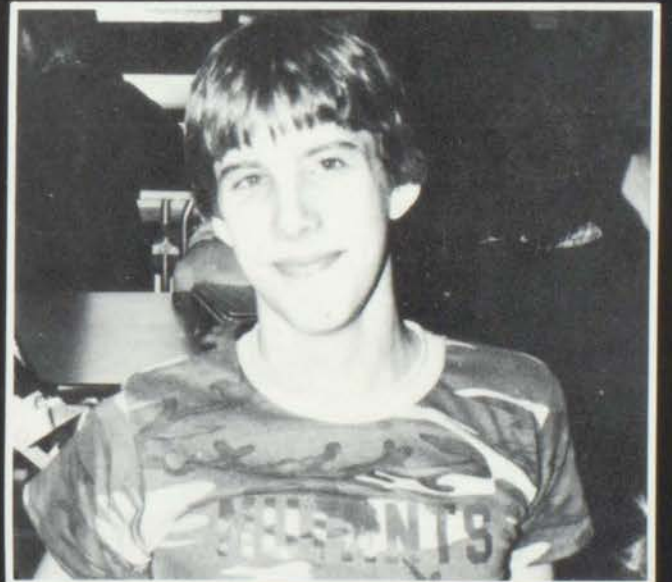

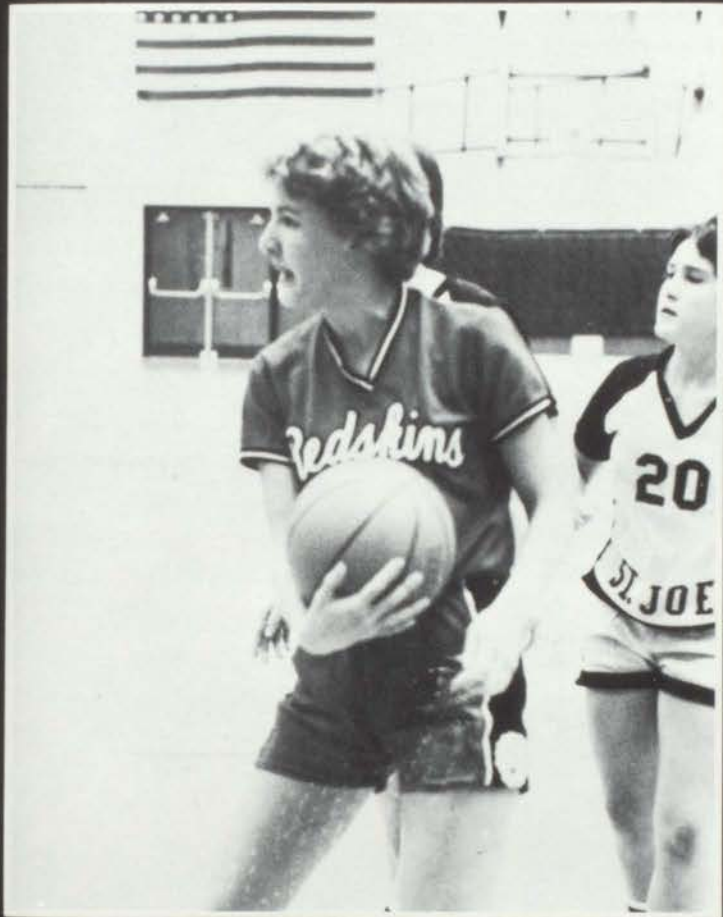

Mr. Strough's drafting class concentrates hard on their work.

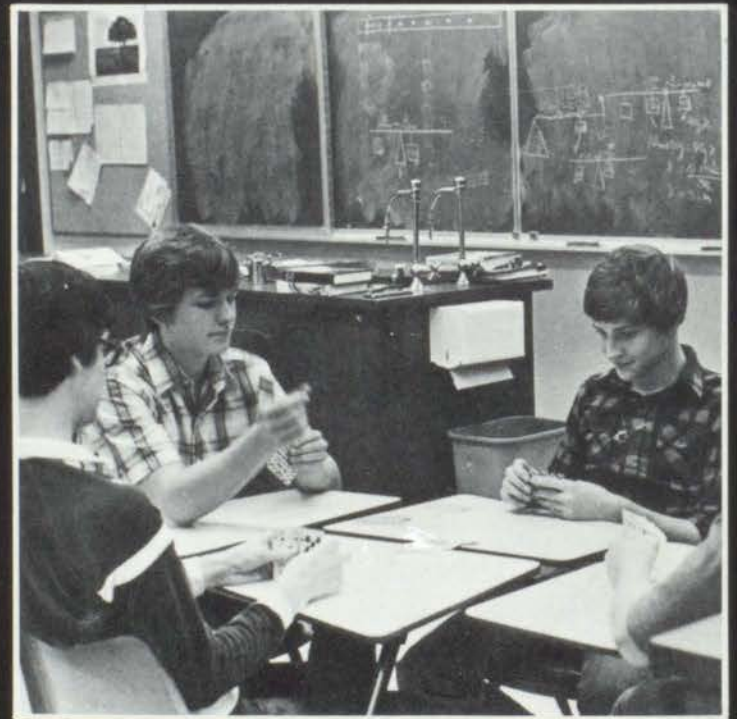

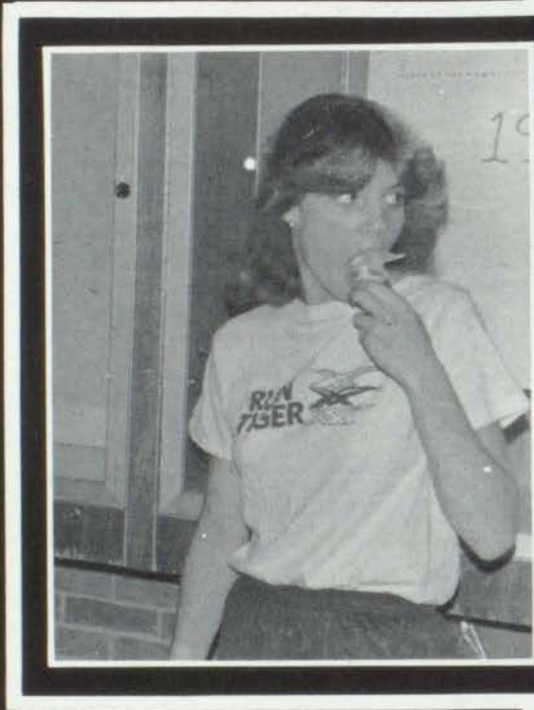

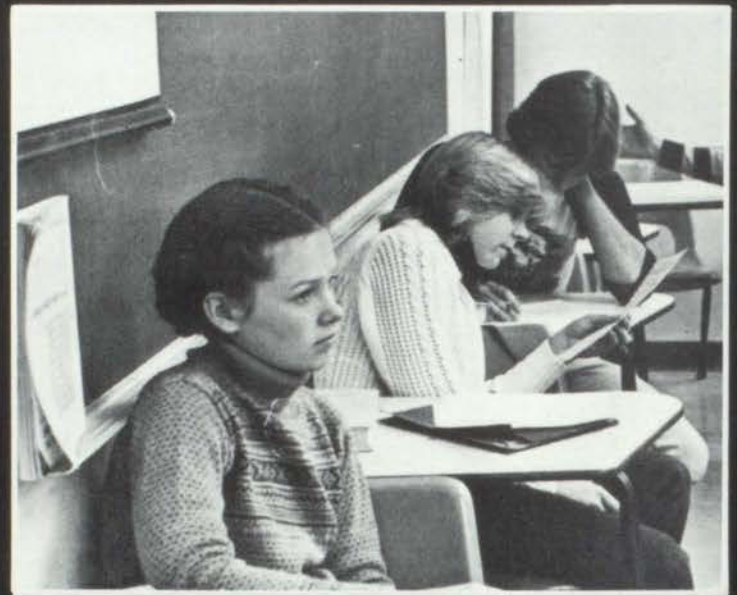

Giving the plants their vital nutrient is Bryan Clutter.

JUNIORS

Juniors Start Year With a Victory

The Juniors had another exciting and victorious Homecoming. This was their second consecutive victory. Their determination to win pulled the whole class together. They worked very hard, especially on their lawn display, in which they took first place overall. The Class of '83 has taken first place in this event each year. The Juniors had a lot of help and support from their sponsor, Ben Armstrong.

They Keep Us Going

The Junior class's Building Council consisted of 7 members this year. Mike Vachow lead the class as President; Jenny Craig, Vice President; and Ann Washburn was their Secretary. The class representatives were Kris Vachow, Kristi LaBonte, Amy Whittaker, and Kristi Sommers. Several meetings throughout the year were necessary to organize a number of different activities. These included Homecoming, Spirit Festival events, money making projects, and other fun and exciting activities. All together it was a good year for the Junior Class.

The Juniors Work Well Together

The class of "83" had a great year! All the hard work they put in was really worth it. The J-Hop was a success. The juniors theme for the J-Hop was New York, New York.

The juniors were also busy taking those long tests, making schedule's for next year, and just planning for the future. The juniors are looking forward to being big bossy seniors.

Administrators Keep Schools Running Smoothly

Mr. Kent E. Esbaugh, Principal, enjoys a piece of birthday cake.

Mrs. Doris Taylor, Mr. Esbaugh's Secretary, clowns around for Halloween.

Mr. Joe Cooper, Athletic Director, takes time out for a smile.

Without the administrators there to keep order of the paper work and the minor details that arise day to day, the school system wouldn't be the organized operation that it is.

Mr. Esbaugh is in charge of scheduling and making sure the high school stays within its budget. Mr. Davis has the pleasure of keeping track of students' attendance records.

Mrs. Doris Taylor and Mrs. Nancy Nantz make sure the Principal's office, and Attendance office operate smoothly.

Mr. Joe Cooper supervises all sports, making sure they run properly throughout the year. Mr. Cooper is also the Adult Education supervisor. The entire Marshall School system is supervised by Superintendent Dr. Nick Timmer.

Dr. Nick Timmer, Superintendent of Marshall's Schools, is a hard person to catch at his desk!

Mr. Ray Davis, Vice-Principal, takes a break to relax.

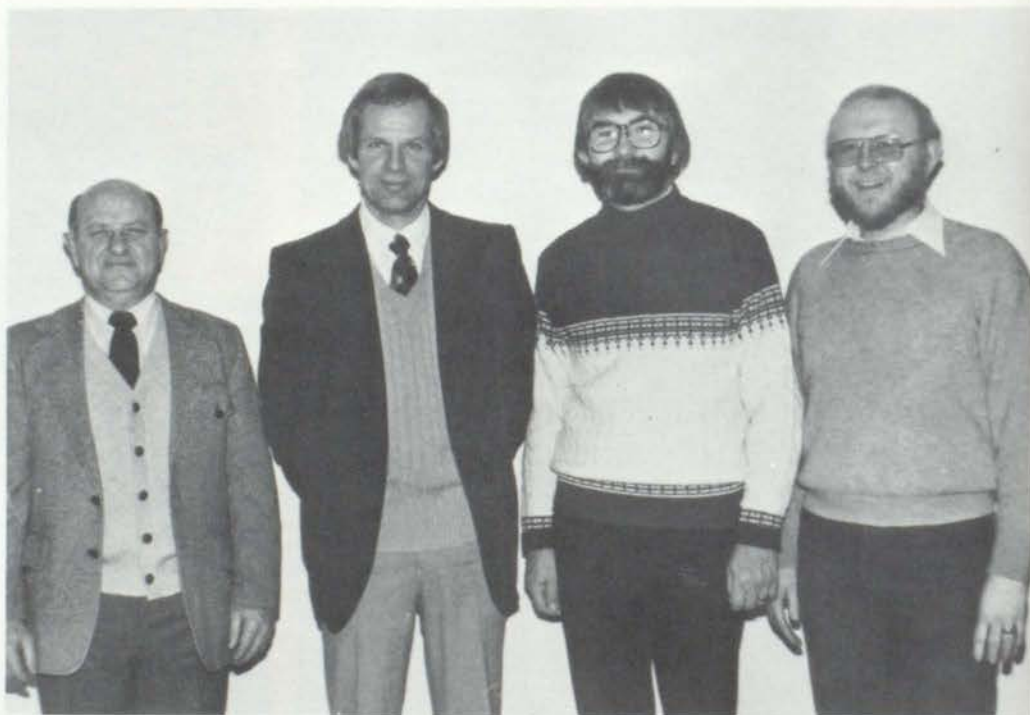

Mrs. Nancy Nantz, Secretary to Mr. Davis, is busy typing the list of excused absences.

Teachers Keep Redskin Country "In the Know"!

Marshall High School teachers help instill the pride we feel for Redskin Country. Whether a new teacher or a "veteran", each teacher is always available for extra help. Besides imparting vast amounts of knowledge, our teachers are also willing to serve as class advisers, dance chaperones, chess opponents, or lend an understanding ear.

Mr. John Ickes of the English Department with his counterparts, Mrs. Catherine Kinney, Mrs. Karen Grove, Ms. Pam Wingerter, Ms. Kendra Magnus, and Ms. C. Lee Ralston, missing from picture are Mr. James Telfer and Mr. William Haroff.

Changes Within the Faculty

Each school year brings changes within the school and within the faculty. Mr. Vachow was an addition to the counseling staff. Mr. Vachow came from the middle school to the high school this year and made the transition very quickly. Mr. Jeff Smouse will be taking over the head football coaching job next year. Mr. Smouse has been teaching here for several years in the Social Studies and Physical Education Departments.

The Business Department prepares for conferences, seated; Ms. Carolyn Rieger, Ms. Christine Papes, standing; Mr. Ben Armstrong, and Mr. Jess Engle.

The Physical Education Staff gathers for a picture; Mr. Ron Labadie, Mr. Tom Reynolds, Ms. Kay Hopkins, and Mr. Jeff Smouse.

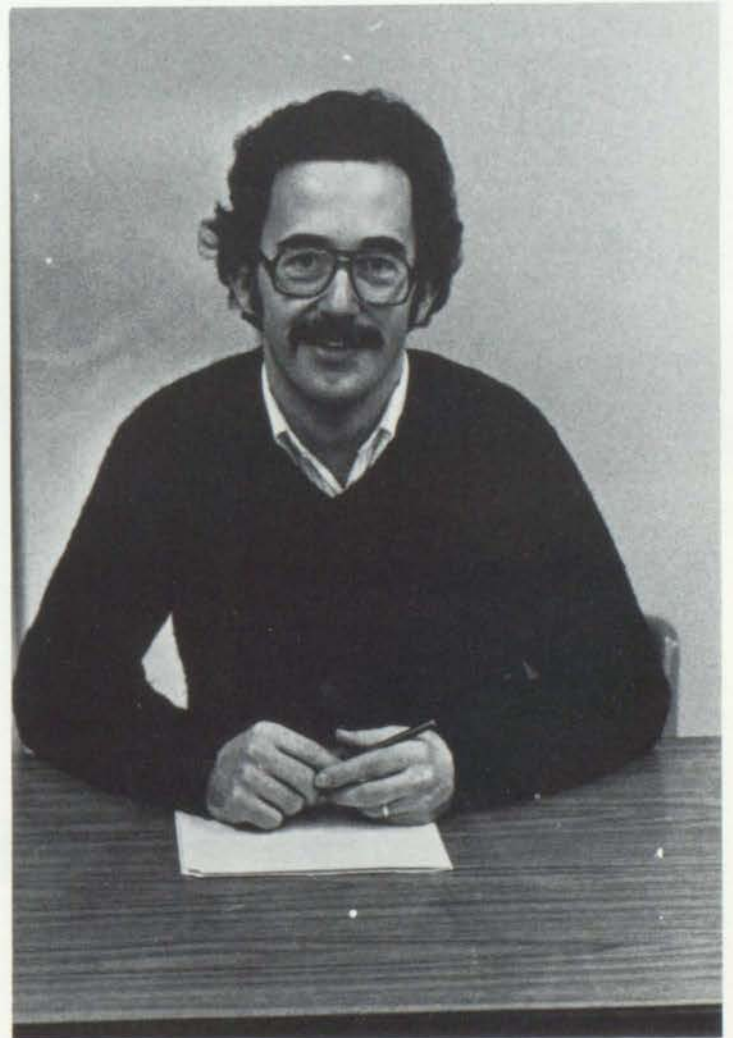

The new required classes for freshmen are social studies and health. The teachers are Mr. Robert Rowbotham and Mr. Brian Burns.

Home-Economics and Art Department teachers; Mrs. Shirley Knaack and Mr. John Walton.

Few New Teachers Join Staff

Two new teachers joined the M.H.S. staff this year. Mrs. Ruth Berryhill, teaching first & second year French, and Mrs. Gloria Wheeler, advisor to the Journalism classes, were the only additions to an already excellent staff. Mr. Stanley Carlyon, Industrial Arts teacher, retired this year after 25 years of teaching at M.H.S. Mr. Ron Labadie has been head football coach here since 1970, but will become the head football coach at his alma mater, Adrian College. Both of these staff members will be missed.

Our Foreign Language Department consists of Mr. William Haroff, Ms. Kendra Magnus, and Mrs. Ruth Berryhill.

Mrs. Gloria Wheeler, Journalism advisor, is a familiar sight with her camera in tow.

Mr. John Strough, Mr. Richard Murphy, and Mr. Stanley Carlyon pause in the Industrial Arts hallway.

Mrs. Helen Smith, secretary of the counseling department, takes time out for a laugh!

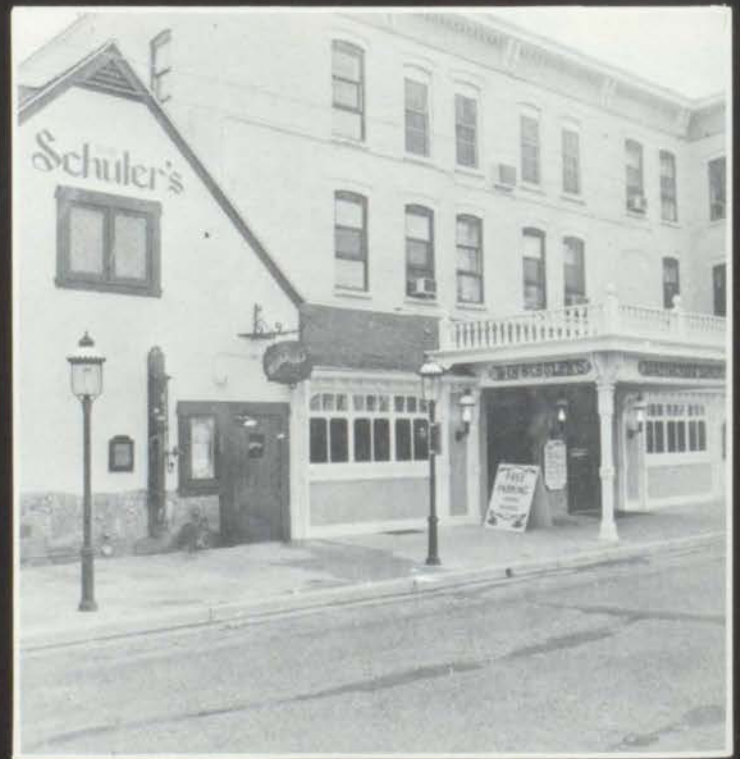

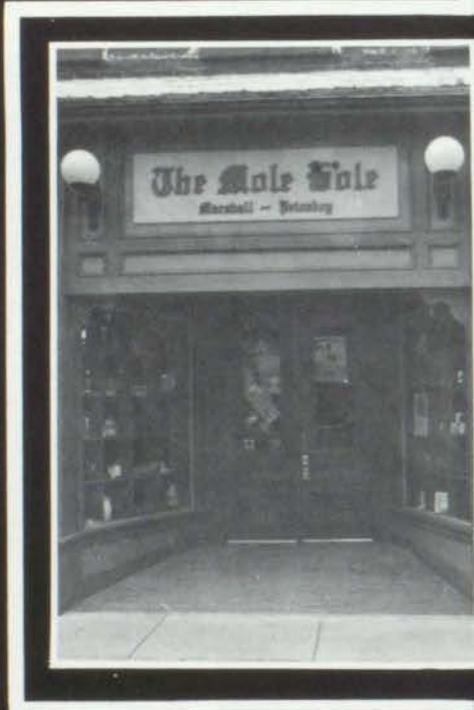

Our counselors, Mr. Tony DeRose, Mr. Jim Vachow, and Ms. Iris Huysentruyt, are ready to help any student.

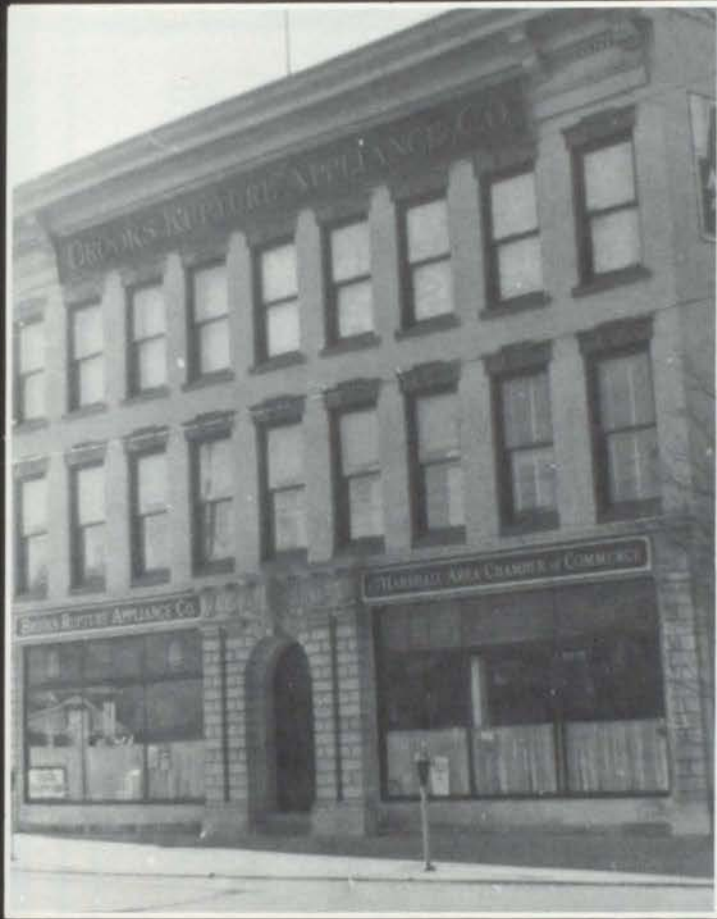

Mr. Phil Clissold and Mr. John Beery keep things humming in the music department.

Mr. Floyd Beneker, Agriculture Mechanics instructor, also is adviser to the F.F.A.

Farewell Redskin Country

*Tomorrow is a dream
that leads me onward . . .
tomorrow is a path I've yet
to choose,
it's a chance I've yet
to take a friend I've yet to make it's all the talent
I have yet to use.*

*Tomorrow is a dream
that leads me onward,
always just a step ahead
of me . . .
it's the joy I've yet to know,
the love I've yet to show,
for it's the person
I have yet to be.*

Karen Ravn

1981 State Cross Country Champs

Number 1 in '81

"But even at the end there is strategy. It is not enough to have the speed. Not enough to give your all. That sprint, that giving, must be done at the right time, at the precise moment that allows no adequate response. It must be checkmate." from Running and Being by Dr. George Sheehan.

That giving is something all runners must learn to do. Whether a summer jogger or a marathon participant, that giving of the mind and body, the pain and agony, all pay off with the personal satisfaction of finishing the race.

It's not enough to have the speed or the endurance to run, but the runner must possess that determination in order to win.

Cross Country is a demanding sport that tests giving; one that puts the athlete's body to the ultimate test.

The Cross Country team of 1981-1982 was no exception to the rule, finishing the regular season with a 7-0 record. The ponies trained hard for the ultimate prize they knew was in their reach. They received the state title having been undefeated in both the conference and invitational meets. Coached by Barney Roy, the Harriers pushed themselves to the ultimate and reached their goals.

The whole town of Marshall is proud of the team and wishes them much success in the future.

Far from the crowd I will pick my way,
 Apart from society,
 For I must pause and rest awhile
 And find a trail for me.

So push and climb on your noisy way;
 I choose a different goal:
 To nestle in my quiet place
 And grow within my soul.

—Viola Berg

State Runner-Ups

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team had an incredible 24 game winning streak, hoping to make it 25 as they advanced into the State finals against Okemos. These extremely talented girls took the District and Regional titles which made the whole town of Marshall cheer. Competing against Okemos at the University of Detroit, a sense of intimidation swept over the girls as they arrived at the stadium. There were spectator buses lined up for over a block. The girls assumed that they were Okemos buses, but to their surprise, Marshall fans emerged from the buses. The intimidation suddenly changed to enthusiasm, as the girls wanted to make Marshall even more proud of their achievements.

Through team work, the Redskins moved out in front of Okemos by a large margin at halftime. But the girls were getting tired and could not keep their opponent in their grasp. Even though they weren't #1 in the State standings, Marshall never considered any of the girls anything less than winners.

Memo: from the desk of Brad Petty

As Editor-in-Chief of the 1982 DIAL, I would like to take this opportunity to personally thank the entire yearbook staff for their cooperation and hard work that helped make this one of the best DIALS to ever come out of Marshall High School.

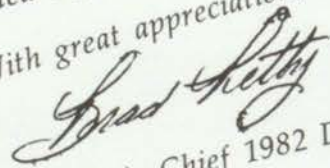

Most importantly, I would like to sincerely thank Mrs. Gloria Wheeler who came into the Journalism Department and saved the course which others abandoned. Through her hard work, organization, dedication and discipline, she quickly maneuvered the class into the right direction. Dealing with an inexperienced staff, well equipped in all areas of yearbook and ended the year with a staff Mrs. Wheeler was involved in every aspect of yearbook over the year, from advertisements to staff photographer. Without her guidance, trust and respect, this fine book would not be possible. Because of this great lady, the Journalism Department of M.H.S. is now a respected course of study. THANK-YOU VERY MUCH!!!

I would also like to thank Mr. E. Kent Esbaugh for all of the help and encouragement he provided throughout the year.

Next, a thank-you goes out to Mr. Kris Kirby, our Inter-Collegiate Press representative, who really helped in getting this book off the ground, and kept his eye on our budget. Thank-You!

Through all these efforts, we have compiled a fine book we hope you will enjoy.

With great appreciation,

Editor-in-Chief 1982 DIAL

P.S. Good Luck next year Stacey!—Remember, "It Just Doesn't Matter!"
P.S.S. Thanks, Myron!
