The DIAL STAFF

presents for public approval

the production personnel and cast of this comedy-drama of M. H. S. life,

We of the 1948 DIAL STAFF dedicate this book to

MRS. VIRA L. HECHT,

the pleasant, energetic secretary to our superintendent.

Mrs. Hecht is known throughout the school as everybody's friend. No matter how busy she is, she always responds with a smile to any student's request, however trivial it may be.

The entire student body fully agrees that Mrs. Hecht is heaven-sent.

Our producers and backers (in the persons of the ADMINISTRATORS and the BOARD OF EDUCATION) spared neither money nor energy in bringing to Marshall this thrill-packed drama.

Soc. 1, and did makeup for the Jr. Play; props for the Sr. Bernard sure enjoys chop suey and It Might As Well Be Spring. Math and Miss Erskine top Bernard's subjects. Bernie enjoys singing, horse-back riding, and staying on the farm. Most prized possession is his class ring. Plans college in the future.

DWIGHT JOSHICK
The Romantic Age
 3 yrs. in the F.F.A. (pres. his Sr. yr.) dominated handsome Dwight's activities. Dwight goes gadding with Milt Jenks, or indulges in his pastime, eating. A car wreck furnished his most unlucky moment. Hist. and Cunningham are favorites, and class ring most prized possession. Modest Dwight's employed on the farm, but has no plans for the future.

ROBERT E. KING, Jr.—
Grown Up
 Husky Bob was pres. of the Latin Club and Jr. Hist. Soc. and played handsome Filippo in the Sr. Play. He participated in basketball, and broke a Marshall track record. He enjoys singing, especially The Whiffenpoof Song, and Nelson's Eddy's warblings. Bob likes eating french fries and steaks, especially with Ruth. In his spare time he cruises with Don Bissett. Bob plans college.

JOAN M. KINNEY—
A Good Girl in The Kitchen
 Suzie warbled in choir 4 yrs., slaved in Library Club 2 yrs., and was a member of F.H.A. Joan chums around with Laura Coats and June Pritchett; her favorite pastime is journeying to Battle Creek. Joan liked being a senior but didn't like her gov't marks. Joan slaves at Petroff's grocery, but would much rather eat cherry pie and listen to You Do. Graduation will find Suzy saying "Operator".

PHYLLISS ELAINE KLOACK
The Dreamy Kid
 Energetic Phib kept busy in G.A.A. 4 yrs.; Latin Club 2; Usher Club 2; was sec-treas. of Library Club 1 yr. Phyllis played a poised Bird Green in the Jr. Play. The J-Hop succeeded under her supervision. Blonde, blue-eyed Phib was vice-pres. of the Senior class, and reporter on the DIAL. She cherishes her class ring, and plans include college at Ypsilanti.

ANITA B. LAING—
Let Us Be Gay
 Anita warbled in the choir 3 yrs., belonged to Library Club 2, and served on the ticket com. for the Jr. Play. She can't resist Near You or southern fried chicken, but she hates the new long skirts. She likes to cook, or go motorcycle riding during her leisure time. Nita plans to become a housewife in the near future. She liked history and Mr. Cunningham best.

ROBERT E. LAKE—
Chuckle
 Eddie went out for football 3 yrs. and was on the J-Hop decorations. His unlucky break was getting caught Halloween night. His favorite subject is English; favorite teacher, Mrs. Murray. Bob prizes his dog, idealizes John Garfield, and hates to see young girls wearing silk stockings. He enjoys hearing Ballerina. He is now working at Oliver, but plans to work at Kellogg's.

FRANKLIN KESSEL LINE—
See My Lawyer
 Tall Frank was out for football 3 yrs. and track 1. He served on a Jr. Play com. and J - Hop decorations. Frank roves around with the boys; Cubbon Ditto, Fisher, Sherman, and Derhammer at any interval. Claims his most unlucky break was being born, maybe so. Frank! Still's most prized possessions are his ambulance and his Big Red crew. College plans.

MARIAN A. MYERS—
Kiss and Tell
 Slim Marian was pres. of G.A.A. her Sr. yr., (joined 3 yrs.), in Usher Club 2 yrs., (Ass't Head Usher 1), an extra in the Jr. Play, decorated for the G.A.A. formal and for the J-Hop. She moved here in '44 from W. K. Kellough in B. C. Speedykin's greatest weakness is '47 black Fords; her big break-coming to M.H.S. Plans, beauty operator.

Central; Norene chums around with Anita Laing and Pat Hoffman; she says her most unlucky moment was Wed., Sept. 15. Norene is offended by words used incorrectly; her plans are to become a housewife for Clayton Hasken, but quick.

JOHN PATTON—
Noah
John was a candidate for football 1 yr., helped at staging the Sr. Play, and devoted the rest of his time to mechanical drawing and hunting; his biggest thrill was getting lost in the north woods, deer-hunting. John works at Chet's behind the counter. His pet peeve is chemistry; his class ring is tops. Al Jolson is his ideal personality.

VICTOR C. PHARES—
The Eobe
Vic was on the track team 3 yrs., in Latin Club 2 yrs. Serious Vic's favorite pastime is reading the Bible. He plans to attend Central Bible Institute, then go into missionary work. Abe Lincoln is his ideal personality, but history and Cunningham were his favorites in school. Most prized possession is his class ring, and hobbies are skiing and skating.

ROGER PIERCE—
Three Times a Day
Roger was track man 1 yr. He works at home on the farm, and expects to settle down there after college. He enjoys hunting and fishing, listening to the radio, and playing ala mode. Altho he admits he doesn't study enough, his biggest thrill was his first day in school. He enjoyed mechanical drawing and Mr. Harrison. His unluckiest moment was every gov't test.

MARLAND E. PRESTON—
Hazzal Dazzel
Marland spent 2 yrs. in F.F.A., 1 in Jr. Hist. Soc., 1 in Biology, performed in the Jr. Play, and worked on stage crew for the Sr. Play. His favorite pastime is skiing; favorite food, hamburger, pet peeve, too much makeup on girls; ideal personality, George Sherman. Marland prizes his wrist watch above all. The future? work on a farm.

JUNE PRITCHETT—
One in a Million
Pettie June cherishes the memory of her mother's ideal personality. Dancing is her favorite pastime and she hopes to attend a dancing and modeling school. Hemmingsen's Drug keeps June out of mischief. Meeting the movie star, Charlie Smith in person, was her biggest thrill. June used her vocal chords in choir 2 yrs., and helped find books 1. in Library Club.

MARIANNE L. QUICK—
Nothing But The Truth

JOYCE REED—
Young, Willing and Able
Jay-Jay Joyce warbled in choir 1 yr., Jr. Hist. Soc. 1 yr.; helped check wraps for the J-Hop, and acted in the Jr. Play Gift Com.; Jay's biggest break was winning a spelling contest at the Fair, her biggest thrill was that first date. Maxine Ray and Joan Kinney, her bike riding companions, also helped her collect movie star pictures.

GERTRUDE ROSE REUSS—
The Real McCoy
Conscientious Gertrude participated in 3 yrs. of G.A.A. acted the domineering Mrs. Thompson in the Jr. Play, and served on the ticket com. Do You is at the top of this girl's Hit Parade; her greatest weakness is staying up late. Gert ably reported on the DIAL and worked on the G.A.A. decorations. Mr. Rose couldn't have run his office without Gert.

KNORBERT RITCHIE—
Why I am A Bachelor
Husky Knorbert went out for football 1 yr., F.F.A. 1, Latin Club 1, Spanish Club 1, Jr. Hist. Soc., and was in the Jr. Play. Skip says that his besetting weakness is talking too much; his favorite pastime is listening to the radio. With his two best friends, Don Brewer and John Logan, he frequently eats his favorite food, hot dogs. Knorbert plans college, or work.

FRED RUSSELL—
On Borrowed Time
Big Al, Marshall's great athlete, devoted 3 yrs. to football, (All-T.V. - 1946) 4 yrs. to baseball, and 3 to basketball. Fred was a member of the Latin Club 2 yrs., Student Council 2 yrs., did J-Hop murals, was yearbook art editor, a professor in the Jr. Play, and helped direct the Sr. opus. His pastime is sleeping; but at night he comes to life and goes whipping in the old Ford. He's headed for Hillsdale college.

J. D. SCHNEIDER—
Little David
College minded J. D. kept busy; baseball 3 yrs., track capt. '48; T. V. champ of 100 and 200 yd. dashes; a Glen Davis 4 yrs. (All-T.V. 1947; basketball 4 (capt. '48); Latin Club, Jr. Hist. Soc., Journalism, Student Council 3 yrs. (vice-pres. '46); president of freshman and Sr. classes; did a coach in the Jr., and a husband in the Sr. Play; great weakness—going ready.

NEWS BRIEF:

Noreen Paris (Bobby to her pals), who came to Marshall last fall from Battle Creek, has returned to that city to graduate; and she left before we could get that so necessary candid shot. Sorry.

RETTA JOYCE SCHNEIDER—
Buay As A Beaver
 Dark-haired, good-natured Retta went through G.A.A. 3 yrs., served on ticket com. for Jr. Play, and decorations for the G.A.A. formal. The DIAL couldn't have survived without her as a reporter. As a freshman, Retta Mae came from Sturgis, her biggest break, she says. Herold is her greatest weakness; her watch greatest treasure; visiting Great Lakes Naval Training Station, greatest thrill.

RUTH ANN ERSKINE
 Sponsor

CHARLES L. SEEDORF—
Ohmigosh!
 Little Charlie spent his activity in F.F.A. Chuck's most prized possession is a calf; while his hobby is machinery Charlie enjoyed Cunningham's jokes as his biggest thrill in high school. Chuck's best friend is Kenneth Soyer; favorite food, macaroni; favorite song, Old Folks at Home. Johnny had his most unlucky moment when he fell through the ice.

MARGARET L. SELLEN—
Nothing Up Her Sleeve
 Margaret devoted her musical talents to the band for a yr. and a half, was a member of Latin Club 2 yrs., Library Club 1, and on publicity for the Jr. Play. Margaret's favorite food is anything that is chocolate. Miss West and her art classes elicit the admiration of Mugs, & Miss Merritt rates tops with her too. Plans job, or try to go to art school.

GEORGE SHERMAN—
His First Shave
 Garrulous George was out for football and track 1 yr., played guard on the Big Reds 2 yrs., devoted 4 yrs. to debate, was a perfect Piccolo in the Sr. Play; Latin Club 2 yrs., editor of the bi-weekly DIAL Jr. Hist. Soc. 2; George was class pres. 2 yrs., in Student Council 3 yrs. Scabby's biggest thrill was winning the amateur show by imitating Al Jolson. Greatest treasure, his piano; plans - - college.

CHARLES C. SHUMWAY—
Dear Octopus
 Charlie was in the Jr. Hist. Soc. 1 yr., and served on the J-Hop Decorations com. Tall Charlie, who can't stand chemistry or world history, pals around with Fritz Williams. Listening to Swanee over the radio and eating chop suey are Shorty's favorites. He is employed on the farm, but plans navy life. Mechanical drawing and his class ring are tops with blond Chuck.

FREDA SPINDLOW—
Career Angel
 Musical-minded Freda was in orchestra 4 yrs., G.A.A. 2 yrs., Latin Club 2, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2; was on the stage crew for the Jr. Play, portrayed Giovanna in the Sr. Play, and served on a comm. for the very successful G.A.A. Tea. Her ideal personality is her voice teacher; her food - chop suey, her hobby-music, and her pet peeve braggera Freda plans college.

DONALD D. TECH—
The Straw
 Mechanical-minded Don, who came here from Olivet in '43, was in F.F.A. 1 yr. and lab. asst' 2 yrs. Sleeping passes away his idle hours, but tinkering with toys and motors gets the nod for his waking moments. Paul Whiteman is his ideal personality, and Miss Erskine his favorite teacher. Naturally, physics is his favorite subject; plans to be an electrical engineer.

RUTH ANN THOMAS—
Dear Ruth
 Tom joined G.A.A. 1 yr., choir 2 yrs., and was in the Jr. Play cast. Ruth's most prized possession is her mother's ring. Her biggest break was getting her job at Knotty Pine, which she still holds. Her favorites are: song, Stardust; food, chop suey; subject, choir; teacher, Mr. Cunningham; and hobby horseback riding. Ruth plans to go on working in the future.

MARJORIE J. TROEDSON—
Marigold
 Midge was active in G.A.A. 3 yrs., in orchestra 4, Latin Club and Jr. Hist. Soc. 3 yrs., and the Jr. Play. She loves to read, and go bicycle riding in her spare time. She can eat anything chocolate, loves typing and Miss Kolch, and reading. She prizes her mother's ring above all else; right now she calls "Operator" at Mich. Bell, but her plans are business college.

HENRY W. CUNNINGHAM
Sponsor

JOYCE L. VAN ARMAN
The Woman Who Understood Men

Joyce warbled in choir 3 yrs., was a school teacher in the Jr. Play; joined G.A.A. one year. She enjoyed 3 yrs. of office practice. Jo's biggest thrill was her trip to Chicago; her biggest break was being a senior. Carol Mather and Ruth Thomas are her pals. Joyce enjoys apple pie and music. She plans to continue working. Hugh Boehmer is her one and only.

JERRY VAN ZANDT—

A Lady of Quality
Our D.A.R. girl, (which gave Jerry her biggest thrill) who pals with Mary DeForest, Margaret Sellen, and Lorraine Davis, likes riding horses and collecting horse statues. Efficient Jerry was in G.A.A. 4 yrs., Latin Club (Scriba 1st yr.) 2, Spanish (her favorite subject) Club 2, was an asset to the Jr. Play cast, a member of the Jr. Hist. Soc. and made J-Hop programs. Jerry plans college.

RAYMOND WEAVER—
Mumbo Jumbo

Bolsterous Buckshot spent 4 yrs. in football, basketball 4, baseball 3, and F.F.A. 3. He was on the stage crew for the Jr. Play. Roly-poly Buck's biggest break was starting in Battle Creek game. Mr. Cunningham is his favorite personality; and his dog, Mick, is his favorite possession. Independent Raymond works at home on the farm, and plans to do so in the future.

JANICE DEEN WHITSEL—
For Keeps

Jan was active in G.A.A. 1 yr., Choir 1 yr; slapped on make-up in Jr. Play; decorated for the J Hop; and was busy Mamma Lucia in the Sr. Play. Janice slaves at Hemmingsen's; her ideal person is her mother; she enjoys choir; and liked Mr. Cuber. She sings Near You to her future spouse, Jack Lake. Janice came here in '44 from Benton Harbor.

FRED WILLIAMS—
Born Yesterday

Wise-cracking Frits was active in football 2 yrs., track manager 2, and joined Latin Club and Jr. Hist. Soc. Fred's biggest thrill was shooting his first squirrel; his favorite pastime, sleep; favorite teacher, Cunningham. Fred pals around with Jim Hess and Chuch Shumway. Frits's cat Blits, and his rose garden top the influential interests in his life. Frisky Fred plans college at M.S.C.

ROBERT WILSON—
Stop For A Love Scene

Bob, who took part in no activities preferred swimming, sleeping, and eating. Most unlucky moment; going over the bank at Ackly Lake. Bob had an enjoyable time in school but his favorites were: chemistry, Jr. English by Merritt, and history by Hank. Frank Cuber is his ideal personality. Bud works at the Rosenburger Wall Paper Co. but plans Navy or diving school.

ELIZABETH A. WOODS—
Good Queen Bess

Loyal Liz was a member of G.A.A. 4 yrs., Latin Club and Spanish Club 3, Biology, Jr. Hist. Soc., and Usher Clubs, and in charge of stage properties for the Sr. Play. She worked on the DIAL staff, and made J-Hop programs. She was on the make-up crew for the Jr. Play. Auburn-haired Liz's favorites are Stardust and ice cream. Her hobby is ice-skating.

MEREDITH E. WRIGHT—
Trousers to Match

Dark-haired Meredith was no joiner. He was in F.F.A. for 1 yr. Mert prizes his class ring and his picture of Doris most of all. His mother is his ideal personality. He can listen to Stardust any time, and loves scalloped potatoes. His pet peeve 's home work, when he can't avoid doing it. Farming is his hobby and his goal for the future.

NEWS BRIEF:

Charles Seedorff took off for the short course in AG at M.S.C. at the end of the first semester. Since he did not return - no candid shot for this DIAL. Too bad.

THE 1947 REDSKINS HAVE A SUCCESSFUL RUN

The Redskins, led by Capt. Bob Hendricks, plunged into their rugged eight-game schedule on Friday night, Sept. 19, meeting the tough Battle Creek Bearcats at B. C. J. D. Schneider was the individual star on the field, as our Redskins went down to a 14-0 defeat. Bill Behnke and Doug Derhammer shone as defensive linemen.

The following week we journeyed to Adrian where Clare Ditto starred, as we brought back the bacon, 13-6.

Powerful East Lansing was next on the list in what was supposedly the "game of the year". Fred Russell, big Frank Line, and Milt Jenks, all played magnificently, but we succumbed to the tune 12-0.

On Wed. eve, Oct. 8, we were host to the Cardinals from Coldwater; and, sparked by Schneider's 88-yd. touchdown run, we "brought it", 13-12. Capt. Hendricks, along with Bob Obenour, played his usual bang-up defensive game. Sturgis was our guest on Oct. 17, and we nosed them out after a hard-fought battle, 8-6. Our two superb line backers, Hendricks and Heatherly, kept the Sturgis backs in check thru-out the contest.

On the following week, one of the biggest up-sets in gridiron history was to strike the Redskins when the Lakeview Spartans invaded Marshall and departed victorious, 19-7. It was a completely revised and spirited ball club that Coach Rolla Anderson brought over from Lakeview; and, tho they hadn't won a game all year, Rolla had them gunning for this game.

On Halloween night, "the Chiefs" cruised to Hillsdale where Lee Whittaker amazed the Hillsdale fans and players alike with his brilliant runs. Russ Chapman turned in a beautiful job of taking the injured Schneider's place in the backfield, as the Redskins rolled to an 8-0 victory. Buck Weaver and Bob Biggs proved outstanding in the line.

On Nov. 7 our traditional rivals from Albion were our guests; and, in frigid weather, Lee Whittaker again starred as he romped to two touch-downs and led us to a 13-7 victory.

Jim Hess, Bob Flynn, Don Church, and Craig Bushong all played superbly in the games, but were overshadowed by the individual stars.

The Redskins, with five victories and two losses in league competition, finished in undisputed possession of 2nd place. It was a very successful season, considering that Coach Gray had only nine lettermen around whom to build a team.

When the T.V. coaches assembled here after the season, there were two Redskins on the All-Twin-Valley first team: Center Bob Hendricks and halfback J. D. Schneider. Fred Russell and Lee Whittaker were honored on the 2nd team.

The 20 lettermen are as follows: Ends- Russell, Behnke, Hess, and Flynn; Tackles-Line, Biggs, Obenour, and Jenks; Guards: Weaver, D. Church, Derhammer, and Bushong; Center: Hendricks; Backs- Schneider, Chapman, Ditto, Heatherly, and Whittaker.

EH, WHATCHA THINK?

The F.H.A. is making plans for a spinster spin to take place in March. It is to be an all school party. The girls are to ask the boys, and admission will be according to how tall the boy is, so much per foot. The F. H. A. had a meeting at noon.

Spaghetti and Italian dialect begged honors last Thurs. night when the Morcello and Saccolini families put on a starring performance of "Moon over Mulberry Street." Highlights of the evening were the constant arguments between pompous old Angele...

GIVE THEM A BREAK
PLEASE!

We know a lot has been said about sportsmanship at the games, but we know a lot more should be said about it. Everyone hates to have his school thrown around in the name of anything just because they are cat call, or shout profane words at players. Our visitors then have a bad impression of a good school. Our visitors know a good deal about it - we know. But if we say it - we know. But if we conduct, maybe other people will say it like it is.
