“THE DIAL” of 1931 is reverently dedicated to the Board of Education of the years 1929-1930 (whose names appear below) and to two fine superintendents, Mr. Ben H. Vanden Belt and Mr. Harley W. Holmes, who as a body worked so energetically to bring a dream of yesterday to an ultimate reality today, in the erection of this magnificent cathedral of education and—

DEDICATION » »

TO the memory of two great Michigan educators, John D. Pierce and Isaac E. Crary, pioneers in the field of education in the United States, joint founders of the Michigan system of education, a system which has served as a model for many states in educational organization, progressive idealists divinely inspired, dynamic and personable teachers of the ultimate ideal—Service.

FOREWORD » »

MAY the stones laid in Marshall High School be useful ones in the "Mansion of your lives" and may this book recall the memories of the days when that mansion was in the first stages of construction.

When this day is in the almost-forgotten past, may these pages serve to stimulate reminiscences and rekindle the dying flame of memory in your hearts.

Board of Education

The Class of '31 wishes to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Board of Education for their faithful services during the past year.

Their standard is one which reaches high, penetrating the darkness beyond—towards the goal of success. Their responsibility to youth is foremost in their minds. It is for us that the Board has labored to bring within our grasp the unusually efficient means of an education.

Through its untiring efforts the Board has provided for us a monument, typifying the golden end of success, our new school building. Memories of this symbol will remain with us forever.

Time

Time is as feather footed as the snow;
So light he treads we never hear him go.
Save when we list the clock's untiring beat
Marking the swift iambs of his feet.

—Clinton Scollard.

Class History

Four short years ago we, the Seniors, entered our names on the payroll of this great knowledge factory, Marshall High School.

We were, of course, of the same emerald hue as the class before us, but we soon snapped out of it and tossed several parties and had the annual picnic at Pine lake near Olivet.

During our second year we had lost nearly all of our backwardness and felt quite a part of the institution and assumed the responsibility of a class of our position. To show the progressiveness of our class, we staged a "Hard Times" party in '28 a year or two ahead of the actual disaster. It was during this year that track was introduced to Marshall athletics.

This was by no means the only entertainment we provided. There were wonderful dancing parties and the picnic at Pine Lake near Plainwell at the palatial summer home of Coach Carr.

At the opening of school in '29 we vied for honors with the seniors in scholarship, athletics and forensic activities.

The dance after the Albion game, the Class play "A Lucky Break", and the eternal bun sales proved that we were, as a class, as busy as the proverbial bee.

And can we throw a feed? Ask the class of '30. The Junior-Senior reception was an affair not to be forgotten.

In this, our "boom year", we have placed nine T. N. T. men on the football team, four on the basketball squad, eighteen on the track team, one Senior is on the golf squad and one V. V. V. made the debate team and represented us in the oratorical contest.

September 27 saw the seniors as hosts to the undergraduates in the opening party of the year, sort of a get-together, you know, for the Frosh to rub elbows (and tangle heels) with the long-timers of the institution.

After the exciting Albion game January 16 we staged another dance and although "high-tops" were much in evidence, a good time was shared by everyone, up to, and including, the faculty members.

"It Won't Be Long Now" was presented by the Class of '31 Wednesday, March 18, to a full house who laughed long and loud at and with our hero "Vecky" and heroine "Marty".

Saturday, May 2, as a fitting climax to the day's activities we journeyed to Albion to indulge in the ancient sport of "Whoopee".

Dinner was served in the Main Dining Room of Parker Inn where the so inclined members of the Class, danced to the music of Palais-Royal Orchestra of Battle Creek.

Immediately after dinner the party adjourned to the Bohm Theatre where "Many a Slip", featuring Joan Bennett and Lou Ayres, was enjoyed by everyone (from the laughter), including Rosemary, Gwen and Em, who "just love to sing."

“Hall of Fame”

We nominate to the “Hall of Fame” of the Class of 1931 of Marshall High School Emily Reincke, Elsie Graff, Julius Stulberg, Arthur Lower and Charles Perrett.

The “Hall of Fame” is a new feature of THE DIAL which it is hoped will be continued in the future.

The especial requirements for nomination to the “Hall of Fame” by a faculty committee are these—that the candidate be a well-balanced student in every way; that he be above the average in scholarship; that he rank highly as an exceptional school citizen; that he be prominent in several fields of activities such as athletics, debate, declamation, dramatics, literature, music and art; and that he has attained creditable achievement in one or more of the above fields.

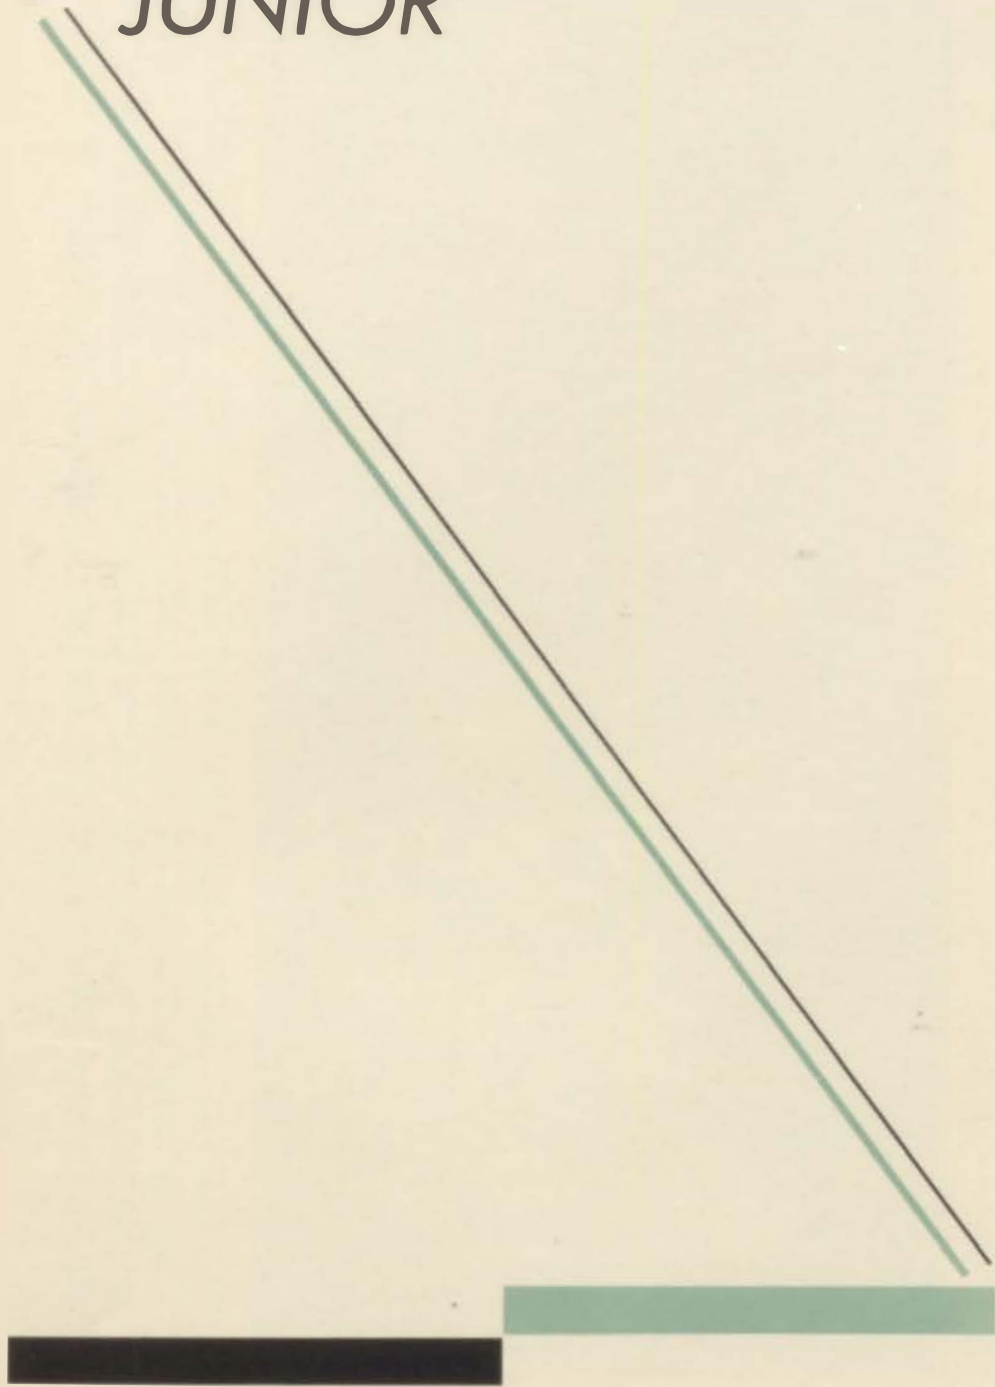

May the “Hall of Fame” come to be one of Marshall High School’s most cherished traditions.

And may we, like worthy Redskins, “shoot our arrows high for the mark.”

DIAL Staff

Another successful year for THE DIAL has passed, with Mr. Horton supervising the efforts of the staff to live up to their motto to have "a bigger and better DIAL."

The bi-monthly paper was edited by the same staff and was high in its literary standing. THE DIAL received compliments from outstanding men of the profession, and was praised for the fine work put out by the students of the Journalism Class.

The staff was changed on the average of every three issues to enable each one to try his ability at the various positions.

The technical part of the publishing of the annual was efficiently supervised by Mr. Harrison, who has done this for past years. His work was appreciated by THE DIAL staff and all those concerned.

The art work on the yearbook was done by the famous artist, John Held Jr., which distinguishes it from any other DIAL previously published. This new type of annual was introduced for the first time, this year.

The staff of the annual is as follows:

Editor-in-Chief	Emily Reincke
Managing Editor	Elizabeth Groesbeck
Business Manager	Martha Hoyt
Athletic Editor	Fred Cuzzins
Humor and Features	Walter Marquardt
Literary Editors: Mary Lou Lake, William Hartman, Gwendolyn Eymer, Jennie Rowland, Mabelle Johnson, Evelyn Barrett, Richard Curtis.

The Usher Club

The sole purpose of the Usher Club is service and since its beginning the members of the club have served the needs of the High School cheerfully and courteously.

Under the direction of Horace A. Adams, a former principal, the Usher Club was organized six years ago with a membership of thirteen. The first appearance of the girls, in their crisp white dresses with red trimmings and cocky little caps, made a very distinct impression and from that time on many a High School girl has aspired to membership.

Later it was decided that it would be fitting that the costumes be in keeping with the High School colors and so the present uniforms of red and black were adopted. It was also decided that a certain per centage of the club members should be Seniors and another per centage Juniors while the remainder should be Sophs. This made it possible to have a trained group to begin duties each year.

With the opening of the new auditorium and the added duties therein, it became necessary to increase the membership of the group to its present number, twenty.

Under the efficient leadership of Emily Reincke, as Head Usher and her assistant Martha Luedders, another successful year of ushering has passed into history.

Science Club

Under the direction of Mr. Hammond, the Science Club started out as usual this year, its seventh, with only five old members, but with enough applicants on the waiting list to bring the membership up to the standard limit of twenty-five members. Thirteen of the twenty new members were Seniors this year, leaving only seven old members for next year. This was caused by the new law put into our Constitution stating that the only people eligible to become members are Senior High Students taking work in or having High School credit in the Science Department. This includes only the subjects: Chemistry and Physics, hence most of the members will have to be Juniors or Seniors.

Our annual banquet and initiation of new members started the year off with "a bang." Much thanks is due to "Marge" Kempf who was in charge of the feed. The Secretary of the Club, Martha Luedders, made a very charming Toast-mistress. The new members were almost shocked to death after hearing some speeches about—well, you join the Science Club next year and find out.

Debate

The debating season, just closed, has proved a very successful one for the Marshall High Debating Team, speaking on the question: "Resolved, that national chain grocery stores operating in the state of Michigan are detrimental to the people of the state." All but one of this year's team were veterans from last year and profited by this previous experience.

The debating team is justly proud of receiving the University of Michigan Wall Plaque Trophy, showing that our team was among the eighty-seven best teams out of the original two hundred and thirty-five in the Debating League. This was accomplished by winning all four of the preliminary debates.

The 1931 team has had the privilege of being the first to debate in the new auditorium. It seemed to bring luck and we hope it will continue to do so.

The Negative Team, coached by Miss Lorah, was composed of Edith Harwood, Dorothy Duvel and Elspeth Graff, and did the out-of-town debating.

The Affirmative Team, coached by Mr. Horton, was composed of Eleanor Gesner, Harold Rose and Elspeth Graff, and won the two home debates.

Only one member of this year's team graduates, and as one member has moved away, there will be three debaters left with two years of previous experience, insuring another successful season next year.

Much credit is due both coaches for their instruction and untiring efforts in working with the teams.

Following is the record made by Marshall this year:

PRELIMINARY SERIES

Marshall 3	Albion 1 Marshall 4

Library Club

With the beginning of school last September, the third anniversary of the formation of that most efficient organization, the Library Club, was marked under the supervision of Mrs. Parry.

Many new books were added to the already large number and besides these there were frequent donations which were greatly appreciated. Now there are approximately three thousand books. These books benefitted teachers as well as students, who used them.

As a means for keeping track of the books of the library, a new, efficient checking system was introduced. There was a group of two student librarians for each of the seven hours of the day, fourteen in all. Each group was assigned a special section, to be checked once a week, and held responsible for its respective division.

When we entered the new high school we found the study hall divided into two rooms with the librarian's desk separating them. The east room comprises the Senior High library while the west room is to be developed into the Junior High library next year.

The combination of study-hall and library as our high school has it, is new in educational circles and has attracted much attention. Instead of sitting at old-fashioned school desks, as we used to do, we sit at tables with reference books near at hand as we would at home.

Calhoun County Normal

Class Colors—Green and Silver

Class Flower—Lily of the Valley

The Calhoun County Normal is composed of twenty-eight members. Each of these members is a graduate of some high school in this county.

In October the class of '31 and the class of '30 had a "get acquainted party" in the normal rooms. In February the County Normal Bulletin was published. In March the class attended the County Normal and Rural Progress Program at Western State Teachers' College. The important closing event of the year was the class-alumni luncheon that was held in connection with the graduation activities.

The officers of the year were:

President	Marian Brown
Vice-President	Mrs. Cubbons
Secretary	Margaret Mills
Treasurer	Carl Macky
Reporter	Dorothy Hale

In Center: Eleanor Gesner, Merrilyn Cortright, Marietta Mueller.

Wendat Campfire

The Wendat Campfire Girls this year have divided into five distinct groups. The guardians of the three groups, made up of older girls, are: Mrs. Roberts, Miss Humphrey, and Mrs. Mueller. The fifth and sixth grade girls are led by Miss Fletcher and Miss McAllister.

Three groups of younger girls are called Blue Birds. In the Central Building, Miss Hall is executive, assisted by Marietta Mueller and Phyllis Marquardt. Miss Glau is aided by Merrilyn Cortright at the Pierce School, while Margaret Murray and Shirley Smith have charge of the Sherman School Blue Birds.

The girls in the Wendat groups have been working with the Battle Creek campfire, under the supervision of Miss Olsen. The special feature during this year, which the group attended, was the Grand Birthday Council Fire held at Battle Creek.

During this year forty-five new members have been taken into the Campfire making a total of about eighty. Forty girls have taken first rank, fifteen second, and one girl has taken third rank. There have been 3,000 honor beads earned altogether.

Selling doughnuts is the means by which the girls have earned thirty-five dollars. This money will help fulfill the hopes of these girls to attend camp during the coming summer.

This year has shown that the Wendat Campfire is really "doing things." Next year may it be even a "bigger and better" one.

Girls' Glee Club

Although a group of boys which calls itself the Boys' Glee Club, has attempted to carry off the honors formerly collected by the Girls' Glee Club, no advancement has been made to lower the quality of the girls' singing. In fact it is believed that the boys have spurred the girls on to higher levels.

With just a few members from last year's club, it was necessary to collect new material. The Glee Club at one time this year numbered twenty but it has been diminished till only sixteen assemble every Tuesday, Thursday, and sometimes Friday, in the Auditorium for instruction.

Under the direction of Mrs. Rose, the girls have sung before many audiences, including the Monday Club, Teacher's Club, Better Homes Organization and at a Red Arrow Auction Program.

We sincerely hope that more new material will be available for next year's club. Because of the fact that an operetta was not forthcoming this year, the chances for a bigger and better one next year are much larger.

The girls wish to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Rose, who so capably filled the position left vacant by the death of Mrs. Eleanor Rupright Eldred, for inspiring the girls to continue the high standard of work which has been evidenced in past years.

Third Row: Franklin Ryan, Julius Stulberg, Arthur Lower, Wayne Little.

Boys' Glee Club

With the passing of 1931, there passed a successful year for the Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Rose. It vied with the Girls' Glee Club for popularity among the students of Marshall High School, and outsiders who heard it.

Mrs. Rose capably filled the position as director of the Glee Clubs left vacant by the death of Mrs. Eleanor Rupright Eldred.

This is the third consecutive year for this organization. Programs have been presented at Red Arrow Auctions, the Monday Club, and in assemblies, and wherever this group performed, they were appreciated by the audience.

The progress of this group was so marked that both Glee Clubs sang together and surprised the people who heard them by the harmonious result.

The names of the singers and their respective parts follow:

Bass—Ross Snyder, Arthur Lower, Franklin Ryan, Shirland Eddy, Franklin Tidd.

Second Tenor—George Smith, William Hartman, John Cronin, Graham Harther.

G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association was organized as a new athletic club for girls in Marshall High School and has as its sponsor Miss Schertl, the girls' athletic director. The aims are to promote the spirit of sportsmanship among the girls and a keener interest in girls' athletics. The officers of the club are: President, Rosemary Osborne; Vice-president, Dorothy Thomas; Secretary, Ruth Cox; Treasurer, Edith Harwood; Hiking Master, Eleanor Gesner; Business Manager, Dorothea Weakly; and Assistant Business Manager, Gwendolyn Eyer.

An active campaign has been carried out during the school year, with the main activities a Hallowe'en Masquerade Dance in the Girls' Gym, on October 29 with dancing and games the diversion, and a breakfast hike on November 22. This early morning feature was well attended, considering the weather and the early hour. The girls hiked to Cold Spring Park.

On March 14 the new members participated in a breakfast hike. As a part of their initiation, the pledges were blindfolded, taken to Cold Spring Park and made to walk back. They presented a short program for the charter members and in the evening the initiations were completed with the new members presenting a pantomime. After this, all members, new and old, spent the remainder of the evening dancing.

As a crowning activity of this club, a Spring Formal was held on Friday, April 24, in the gym, for members and their invited guests. Committees on refreshments, amusements and decorating were selected, who successfully arranged the program.

“M” Club

Another new club was formed this year, for the benefit of athletic letter winners. Its purpose is to promote athletics and to encourage sportsmanship in both student body and participants.

Several Senior members of the club will be lost to Marshall High because of graduation, leaving the underclassmen to carry on the tradition of a “Fighting Redskin Team.” “Hefty” Eddy and “Jim” Cronin have letters in track and football. On the eleven, Eddy played guard and “Jim” halfback. Cooperation was their slogan. Eddy “pooshes” the shot while “Jim” runs the hurdles or the dashes.

“Bill” Desy, “Lefty” Green, and “Dink” Leyden won their M’s in football. “Bill” was a hard-hitting tackler and a good interferer. “Lefty”, you remember, scored against the Cardinals on a pass. “Dink” was the wary captain and quarterback whose quick thinking pulled us out of many a hole.

“Split” Davidson has earned letters in football and baseball. He was noted for his ability to break the line and nail the ball-carrier in his tracks.

“Pinky” Cuzzins’ three years of javelin throwing has been outstanding enough to merit the notice of Lee Bartlett of the U. S. Olympic team.

“Doug” Rendall of basketball and football fame also throws the javelin and discus. Doug captained this year’s basketball team.

“Gordie” Holt and “Walt” Marquardt, the only three-letter men in school, played end and halfback respectively, both were forwards in basketball, while their specialities in track were the 880 and 440.

The Band

The Band is one of Marshall High's outstanding musical organizations. It appeared at the pep meetings at the beginning of the year. It paraded down Michigan Avenue before a number of home games and then played at the games. For the first time in the history of Marshall High, the Band carried the Red and Black forth upon the football field between the halves at Albion. The Band played at all the home basketball games and went with the team to Lakeview and Albion. In the absence of Mr. Currier, our director, our Student Director had the full cooperation of each member at the basketball games.

On February 26, the Band played the opening part of our Musicale. At this performance, six Seniors who had all started with the Band when it was organized four years ago, made their last appearance in a Marshall High Musicale. The Band furnished music at a number of assemblies, the declamatory contest, and on two Red Arrow Programs and other appearances. This was Mr. Jay Currier's first year with the Band and we learned many new Overtures and Marches.

Orchestra

The high school orchestra has progressed very well in spite of the absence of some necessary instrumentation. Its success is mostly due to the efforts of Mr. Jay Currier, the conductor.

The orchestra has given very fine music for all the plays that have been presented.

It is keenly regretted that some of its older members will be lost this year through graduation.

V. V. V.

Slow! I should say not! "Gweny" and her gang of Violent Vivacious Vamps vamped the T. N. T.'s and galloped off the field leaving the Terrified Non-plussed Travelers (?) trailing in the dust.

Early this winter the T. N. T. club challenged the V. V. V.'s to a contest to see who could earn the most money within a certain period of time. The club losing the contest was to provide a "feed" for the other.

Both clubs went to work with vim and the competition was very keen. It is hardly necessary to say here that the girls were successful. In their efforts to earn money they sold candy after school and at ball games and had baked goods sales. They also did their share in selling tickets for the Senior Play.

No wonder they came off the field victorious for they could always see ahead of them in the dim future a table spread with snowy, white linen, gleaming with silver and crystal, and groaning, as it were, under its load of good things—chicken, frog's legs, squabs, crisp tempting salads, pudding and pies, dainty cakes and ices.

The officers who have led this club to victory were:

President	Gwendolyn Eymmer
Vice-president	Cecil Hess
Secretary and Treasurer	Doretta Rocco

T. N. T.

Long, long ago the Senior boys met in the well-known notorious cellar of Charles Perrett to organize the T. N. T. Club.

The boys decided to oppose that great, long-established institution, the V. V. V's., in the struggle for supremacy of the Senior Class. "Men's Suffrage" is their slogan. The girls have ruled, unquestioned, as an organized body until now.

Midst the orgy of gin-gerale high-balls, "Veck" himself was elected president of this great enterprise. "Doug" Rendall was chosen as his right-hand-man, while in Galen Potter was combined ye scribe and keeper of the shekels.

The boys enjoyed the—ah, meeting so much that "Gay" Potter celebrated his election two weeks later at his home by inviting the T. N. T.'s to partake of cider and accessories. A business meeting was held immediately after the festivities.

The play "The First Dress Suit" was presented by the T. N. T. to the student body.

Prince Ali Bendo, Count Alittleoff and Count Awayoff, prominent Senior men, are mind readers, perfect to the Nth degree, not to mention their ability to disappear from sight without notice. (A feat they will not regret having learned when "Bill" collector calls.)

Although the T. N. T. furnished the most money for the treasury, the closing of the money-getting contest gave victory to the V. V. V.

Oh! Well, girls, we hope you enjoyed the feed.

“It Won’t Be Long Now”

“It Won’t Be Long Now” was chosen as the Senior Play for 1931 and was presented March 18 under the efficient direction of Mr. Horton.

It was an exciting story of a young man who couldn’t mix business and sentiment and was always following his father’s policy to be hard, cold, and tight.

Through a plot arranged by his closest friend and sweetheart, he was made to believe that he had only twenty-four hours to live. In this time he tries to make up for the wrongs of a lifetime.

He distributed the shares of his company to his employees, married a girl whom he despised, forced a friend to marry his sweetheart, dismissed his servants, and exposed a political grafter who had the welfare of the city almost in his hands. Then he discovered it was all framed, and he wasn’t to die at all, but he wished to die when he realized he was married to one he did not love and that his sweetheart had married someone else.

He soon was, however, informed that the minister was also a fake, and that the marriages which had been in the form of a double wedding, were illegal.

No person, it can be said, was lacking in dramatic artistry. Mention must be made of the outstanding performances of “Veck” Perrett, Martha Hoyt and Arthur Lower. But everyone put up a “good show.”

“The New Poor”

To prove that all the actors are not in the Senior Class, the Juniors, with the help of their capable coach, Miss Lorah, “put on” one of the most successful plays of the season. Because all were interested in seeing just what the Juniors could do, the streets were filled with people en route to the auditorium on the big night.

“The New Poor,” a comedy by Cosmo Hamilton, proved to be a group of so-called Russians—who were in reality only a group of students who thought they could earn their bread and butter by acting. The plot centers around this fact, and the ever-present “villian” is discovered bringing the farce to a successful close.

The cast of the talented Juniors was as follows:

Grand Duke (Johnson)	Charles McNary
Count Ivan (Simpkins)	Hartley Blakeslee
Prince Vladimir (Rogers)	Wayne Miller
Amos Wellby	Herbert Lascelles
Miller C. Gutteridge	Charles Flynn
Kirk O'Farrell	Franklin Ryan

F. F. A.

Among the other clubs formed this year was the one called the Future Farmers of America, taking over the membership of the Alpha Agrarian Club of former years.

The purpose for which the club, as formed, is as follows: To promote vocational education in agriculture; to create more interest and love of country life; to encourage recreational and educational activities for students; to promote thrift; to encourage cooperative effort and strengthen confidence among students; to promote scholarship; to promote a better school and community spirit for improvement of projects.

Although the activities of the club were few they held several social functions during the year. The Marshall Chapter was entertained by the Lakeview organization at the Lakeview High School, February 18. After a short business meeting the evening was spent in several contests and basketball. On March 18 the Marshall organization returned hospitality to the Lakeview Chapter, at a dinner and basketball game.

During the fifty-fifth annual observance of Farmers' Week, the sixteen members of the club journeyed to Michigan State College at East Lansing, February 4.

With a membership of sixteen the following acted as officers: President, P. Van Voorhees; Secretary, R. Preston; Treasurer, H. Upston; Reporter, C. Cowles; Advisor, C. D. Wilcox.

ATHLETICS

Coach Carr

The Moving Spirit Behind Marshall High School Athletics

Mr. Clytus Carr, better known to the students as "Charlie", has been the athletic coach and director of physical education in Marshall High School for the past five years. During this half decade he has produced fifteen athletic teams as well as directing approximately one hundred students in physical education each year. "Charlie" takes pride in his teams and no one is more desirous of seeing Marshall represented by a clean sportsmanlike, winning team than Mr. Carr himself.

The greatest dread of the senior boys in graduation is that it will sever the everyday contact with their coach in high school functions, but this will be slightly overshadowed by the fact that they know they will always find a ready friend in Coach Carr, in their everyday lives.

Football

Coach "Charlie" Carr showed his real ability as a coach last fall when he took a comparatively "green" team at the start of the season, a team that looked almost hopeless in the early games, and built it into an aggregation that was above the average of the Little Thirteen teams at the close of the year. The majority of last season's eleven will again be available for the 1932 squad and Coach Carr has already a list of nearly seventy candidates who have signified their intentions of reporting for practice next fall.

The 1931 team was captained by Paul Leyden, quarterback. In its first game against Hillsdale the team displayed a good defense but had little power on the offensive. Hillsdale scored a safety on a bad pass from center that went over Clayborn's head. That was the only score chalked up during the entire four quarters, the "Dales" winning 2—0. Marshall made five first downs while holding the opposition to two.

The following Friday Marshall invaded Lakeview and walked away with honors in their favor, 13—0. Clayborn and Cronin did most of the ground gaining for the Redskins. The game was played during a fair sized wind storm which made it extremely difficult for either team to punt.

Sturgis was the next opponent for the Marshall eleven. They presented a heavy, well-balanced team with a line which was almost impregnable. The Sturgis team amassed three touchdowns to win 20—0.

Hastings came here for the next encounter. In this game the Carrmen played their poorest game of the season. The Redskins made a greater number of first downs but lost the gridiron encounter 25—0.

From this game on, Captain Leyden's team showed marked improvement, particularly on the defensive.

Eaton Rapids and Marshall engaged in a game on the following Saturday which was played here in a down pour of rain, sleet and snow. The Eaton Rapids eleven succeeded in crossing the Redskins' line only once but this was sufficient to win the game 7—0.

Marshall played one of its best games against Coldwater. The boys played almost perfect defensive and displayed a passing game which the "Bauermen" could not break up. The Coldwater eleven forged ahead in the final quarter to win 19—7. Ralph Green had the honor of being the only one to cross the Red and Whites' goal line this season.

Marshall's second victory was scored at Charlotte on the following Saturday, with Bill Clayborn making the touchdown. The Red and Black played air-tight football and outplayed their opponents to a greater degree than the score indicates.

The climax of the season came on Armistice day in the battle at Albion. Coach Dorland's team had not as yet been defeated. The game was the greatest Marshall-Albion battle in the history of the school's athletic competition, that is from a spectator's standpoint. However, Albion won the game in the final moments when an Albion player ran back a punt for a touchdown that gave them a 31—26 win. Eleven Marshall players played the entire game. They were Gordon Holt and Ralph Green, ends; Wayne and Wendell Miller, tackles; Shirland Eddy and Carlton Groesbeck, guards; Tom Davidson, center; Captain Leyden, Quarterback; Walt Marquardt and Doug Rendall, halfbacks; and Bill Clayborn, fullback. These men were awarded their letters as were also Roger Johnson, Bill Desy, Charles Flynn, Ross Snyder, John Cronin, and Merv Summerfield. Nine of these men will be back next year to play under the leadership of Coach Carr and Captain-elect Groesbeck.

 Third Row: Walter Marquardt, William Clayborn, Hartley Blakeslee, Douglas Rendall, captain, Wendell Miller, Gerald Kimmel, Gordon Holt, Frederick Waidelich.

Basketball

Marshall's 1931 basketball team experienced the handicap of having to follow the greatest team that has represented the school in years. Only one veteran of that aggregation remained, that being Captain Douglas Rendall, a guard. However, the team won eight games and lost only seven. Nine men were awarded letters at the close of the season. They were Gordon Holt, Hartley Blakeslee, Gerald Kimmel, and Walter Marquardt, forwards; Fred Waidelich and Wayne Miller, centers; and Captain Rendall, Wendell Miller, and Bill Clayborn, guards. Rendall, Holt, and Marquardt are the only ones to graduate, leaving six letter-men for next season's team.

The Marshall reserves, most of whom will be back for one or two more years of competition, won all but two games played. Clayborn, Marquardt, Leyden, Rose, and Johnson were the regular reserves, while Thick, Flynn, and Robbins played in several of the games.

Fred Waidelich led the varsity team in scoring while Gordon Holt was second. Coach Carr's team lost the district championship to Albion for the first time in four years, the score being 19 to 18. The summary of the season's games is given below.

Marshall 5	Hastings 25	Marshall 17	Albion 22
Marshall 25	Hillsdale 12	Marshall 18	Sturgis 11

Track 1931

Marshall High School entered its third successive track team into the spring sport field, supplementing it for baseball, a sport dropped by the majority of schools in 1928.

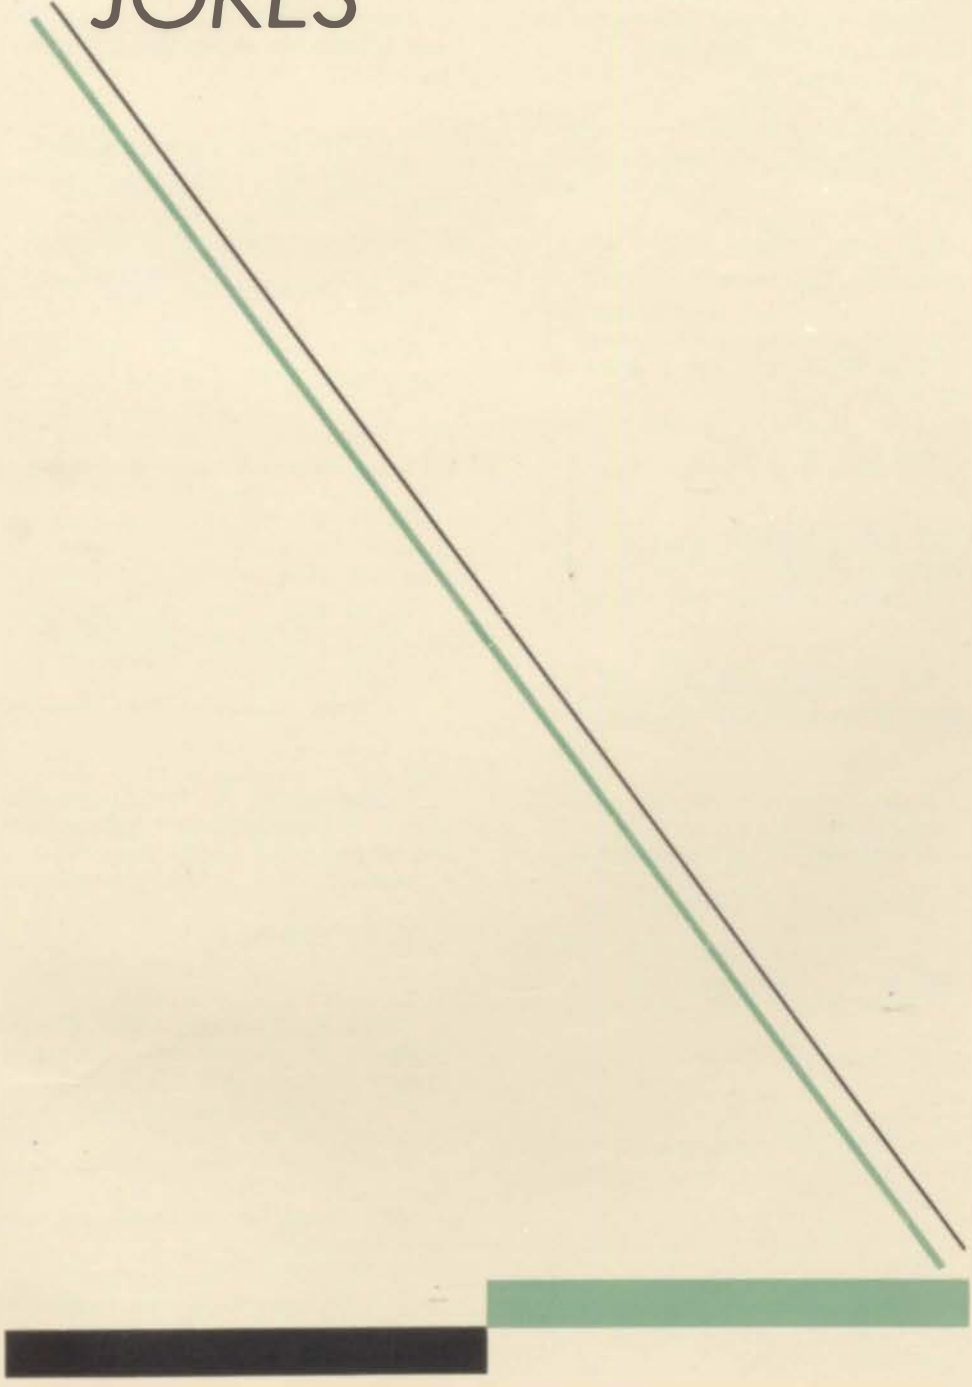

The first encounter was a triangular meet which was held here at the fairgrounds, on May 2. Marshall emerged victorious with 63 points while Albion finished a close second with 60½ points. Lakeview scored only 16½ points for third place.

The following Saturday, Marshall, Coldwater, Hillsdale, Albion, Lakeview, and Sturgis engaged in the first Twin Valley meet at Albion. Coldwater won the meet and Marshall finished second. The Marshall thin clads won four first places, three seconds, and three third for a total of 35 points. Marquardt won the 440 in 54:2; Preston won the mile in 4:51; Cronin emerged victor in the broad jump with a distance of 20 ft. 5¼ in. In the pole vault Holt won second place and Freede third. Cronin took second in the century and third in the low hurdles and Cuzzins won a third in the javelin throw. The relay team composed of Cronin, Marquardt, Clayborn, and Leyden won the 880 relay in the exceptional time of 1:40:2. Those who placed in the Twin Valley meet will go to the Regional meet at Kalamazoo and those placing there will go to the annual state meet at East Lansing.

Those who will receive their "M's" are Marquardt, Eddy, Holt, Preston, Cronin, Cuzzins, Leyden, and Clayborn.

In addition to track, golf and tennis were instituted into the spring athletic program under the direction of Mr. Clark.

Chronicle of Events

Everyone likes to look back into the past so we are herein printing some of the outstanding events of the past school year.

We entered into a new $300,000 school building and have the distinction of being the first students to go to school in it. Naturally it took us a few days to get accustomed to the new building and to learn where we belonged.

Besides having a new building we, also, had three new teachers in our midst—Miss Dorothy Schertl, Mr. Donald Horton and Mr. Jay Currier.

In order that everyone could get acquainted the Seniors gave a Get-Together party on September 27. Of course, the feature of the party was the boxing match.

Then came the Junior assembly by which we discovered that the juniors had a great deal of talent and that their officers have the gift of speech making.

Of course we mustn't forget the football men who were spending their evenings on the field in preparation of the first game which was held here on October 11 with Hastings.

About this time clubs began to organize. Some old ones reorganizing and some new ones—G. A. A., "M" Club, V. V. V., and T. N. T.

Then came the teachers' carnival in which we learned much and saw much that we never hope to see again. O'Reilley's Minstrels from Harlem gave two performances and there was something new going on every minute.

We had our first vacation October 30-31 during the M. E. A. meeting at Battle Creek.

Then came the preparations for the debates. The first being with Eaton Rapids and proved to be a forerunner of our successful season.

On November 11 school was dismissed for the history making Albion-Marshall football game which proved to be the most exciting football game for years between the two teams. November 21 the football fellows got their letters for their hard work during the fall.

The results of the mock election proved that the school was a Republican voter.

One nice day in November Coach Clytus Carr went out to the curb to get his car—Ford—and presto! It was gone! Some time later it was found down by Toledo. Now wasn't that Ford a long way from home?

November 25 the first honor roll was published which contained eighty-five names.

During this month Mr. Rexford Clark, English teacher, became the proud father of a daughter—Martha Elaine Clark.

Miss Lorah left for her home at Cleveland where she remained because of illness until January. During her absence Miss Anna Howe substituted and Mr. Horton coached the debaters.

During the month of December everyone was busy planning for Christmas and nothing happened unless we mention the vacation which began on December 23. On that day we had as our assembly the Hillsdale basketball game which ended in our favor.

January 5 brought us back to school again and we had our semester examinations to look forward to. On January 16 the Seniors, as has been the custom of this class, had a dance following the Albion-Marshall basketball game.

The first night classes to be held in Marshall High School were organized at the beginning of the second semester and lasted for eight weeks. Classes were held in Public Speaking and Typing.

For ten weeks the Home Economics classes, under the direction of Miss Bobertz, served hot lunches to children of the grades and also to those of the high school who wished to partake of them.

In February the Juniors began to earn money and gave a dance after the Coldwater basketball game and on the fifth of March they prepared a public supper.

The local oratorical and declamation contests were held March 6 and were won by Eleanor Gesner and Harold Rose.

The Sophomores proved themselves to be the champion intramural basketball players of Marshall High School during March.

On March 9 a group of Marshall students went to Albion to give an assembly which Albion returned in April by presenting a play for us.

Spring vacation began March 27 and lasted until April 5.

April 24 the G. A. A. girls gave a Spring Formal which everyone desired to attend but only members and escorts were let by the door.

The Seniors' farewell party was held May 2 at the Parker Inn at Albion.

The Twin Valley League track meeting was held at Albion May 9.

Then came the last social events of the year, the Junior-Senior Banquet of May 29, the Graduation exercises and the class picnics.

We hope that these few glimpses back into the past year have brought pleasant memories to all.
