

The DIAL

The Annual Publication by the Senior Class of
MARSHALL HIGH SCHOOL

Marshall, Michigan

Foreword

If we, the Senior Class of 1929, have been successful in catching some of the happy, fleeting moments spent in Marshall High School; if we have made them live for you again between the covers of this book; then it is truly the spirit of Peter Pan that we have caught—let this, THE DIAL, help to make your youth eternal.

Dedication

To our mothers and fathers, this book of school activities is lovingly dedicated. Each year we have worked to gain a goal and each year they have encouraged us to go on. Now that we are about to realize the fulfillment of this task, we wish to express our gratitude to those who have been responsible for this accomplishment. We leave our High School with hope and determination to continue the fight and bring success to ourselves and honor to those who have made this possible.

"The day is done, and the darkness
Falls from the wings of Night,
As a feather is wafted downward
From an eagle in his flight."

—Longfellow.

“ In every leaf a line,
And with delightful memories,
They will fill your heart in time.”
—Anonymous.

"O Winter, ruler of the inverted year—

.....
I love thee, all unlovely as thou seem'st,
And dreaded as thou art!"

—Cowper

"One last, long, lingering look."
—Wordsworth.

"Build today, then, strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
Shall tomorrow find its place."
—Longfellow.

The Senior Saga

We're the Class of Twenty-nine
And indeed we're very fine;
We can boast of everything as you can see,
So now, as we are dining,
I shall do a little rhyming
I shall tell you of the Class we used to be.

We have everything you wish
(Will you please pass me that dish?)
From a Butcher to a Trainer in a Zoo;
And, if you listen in with care
And stop fooling with your hair,
I'll name them over, every one, for you.

Mr. Wehrle, there, carves meat;
He operates on feet;
Very interesting indeed, I am sure,
Louis Seaman has a passion
For the very latest fashion;
He peddles dotted neckties to your door.

Mr. Connelly's laying bricks,
And Paul Kelsner, armed with picks,
Goes daily to his duties in the mine.
Virginia Boughton and our Bethel
Constance Sayre and little Ethel
Make up the Follies Girls of Twenty-nine.

Do you hear that loud debate?
I am happy to relate
That dear Evelyn is married, don't you know?
Little Homer's quite a charmer;
He is our youthful Farmer
He cultivates a corn upon his toe.

There is one, by means of toil,
Who makes a living from the "soil",
Van Sickle's Laundry's best at washing clothes,
While, in F. Keicher's garage,
Miss Archer does massage
The autos with a smelly rubber hose.

And let me tell of Creighton,
Who is practicing for Satan,
He wields a mighty shovel full of coal,
And, when Wilma started teaching,
Gus Van Voorhees took up preaching
And now he'll save most any kind of sole.

Elizabeth Baker earns a salary
Displaying the Rogues' Gallery
Which Catherine Coleman and Miss Curtis do adorn,
For the wicked life they led
Made their noses turn quite red
And we look on their striped clothing now with scorn.

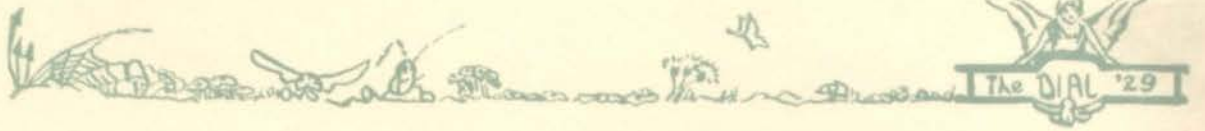

Winnie Walters is a tailor,
Dale McPherson is a sailor,
And is known in every port for his brown eyes,
Nina Sydow became a plumber,
Ruby Miller, a fine drummer,
As a sideline they sell us lemon pies.

It really is surprising
How fast Adair is rising
In an elevator his hours are spent,
And now turn your attention,
Lest I forget to mention,
Miss Anderson sells permanent waves to gents.

Byron Bowen is the mate
On the good ship "Angel Cake",
(A Whaling ship on Lyon lake you know)
And for it is a crew
(All them sailors tried and true)
Of the Seniors twice times twelve or so.

Now I've told you all I know
Of the Seniors' tale of woe
And let me add a word before we part,
That those I've failed to mention
Are living on a pension
Or are taking daily lessons on the harp.

Idylls of the Junior Class

In the "Idylls", Tennyson obtains unity by portraying successive seasons of the year and by using allegory. Words are an inadequate means of portraying even a picture of what the Junior Class really is—personality plus.

Dick Shellenberger played the opening strains of—did I hear you say Beethoven?—no, just real American jazz. Dick is the figure eight in the "Pretzels". Evie did a solo dance minus a "Raccoon", and we all joined in on the chorus. What in the world was Janie doing over in that corner? Oh, the secret is out! She was dislodging seeds, not raspberry but watermelon, from beneath Hermie's manly collar; by the way that's the style of collar our president, Frances Noneman, admires. It is here that we might mention that Marvel staged this party.

To show the versatility of our girls, some note should be made of our booth at the fair ground. Latest Invention in Can Openers? Well I should say not! "Real Old-fashioned Hamburgs, Like Mother Used To Make". As an illustration of the current remarks while we were building the stand, these will suffice: Lu bring that board here; it goes on this end. Hey, Norm, this end is higher than yours. Who cut these anyway? Bea, please hit the nail and not all around it. That fellow will be back this way, get him on the return trip. The stand was erected, guaranteed to withstand adverse weather conditions, and complying with the state fire laws. The results were favorable and the proceeds were put away in the Junior treasury.

"I bid hearts". That must have been Bev over at the Kelser table. This party was for members of any set who were willing to sign up for a bridge table whether they played or not. We bank on good heartedness! A good time was had by all, as the saying goes, and it was a change for the public as well as change for us.

To show our hardihood we waited until the thermometer dropped to the lowest degree, then held a sleigh ride. The moon—oh! surely we had a moon, it was the most romantic of the year. Arriving at Rachel's, the fun began. There was dancing and all round fun. "Monkey" Dunham enjoyed the peanuts. During the course of the evening, we had the unique experience of actually watching Lu Annis getting Stout! The homeward journey, although pleasantly passed, seemed to be uneventful. Speedy members chose to walk rather than freeze. Some of the stragglers were left far behind. As an anti-climax, the traditional chariot of Marshall High, Pete Caines' Ford, nearly became permanently disabled. It has been rumored that Henry Ford is thinking of putting it on the Pension List.

The Juniors are looking forward with great anticipation to "Peg O' My Heart", the class play, and to the Junior-Senior reception in the not-far-distant future.

Why and How the Class of '31

As we entered our second year of misery, we were startled by the strange results of the class elections, for we found at the steering wheel Vecky (a thorn between two roses, Pete and Mart). Coming from the back seat we hear Bill's soft and smooth voice telling Marian, Jennie, and Maebelle of his latest escapade. (Ask Bill about it). Following on the trailer, we distinguished our trustees loaded down with their reforms and superior manners!

The first happening of importance in the Sophs' year was the "Fall Party". What a "fall"! What good things we had to eat! Nevertheless it passed, as the best of parties will, with one or two outstanding incidents.

We were looked upon by our upper classmen as "slow", (if you understand what they mean). We gave them a surprise, when, after the Marshall and Albion basketball game, we managed a large dance. The dance surely put us on the records in the office, thanks all due to "Dunnie", "Marty" Hoyt, and the class.

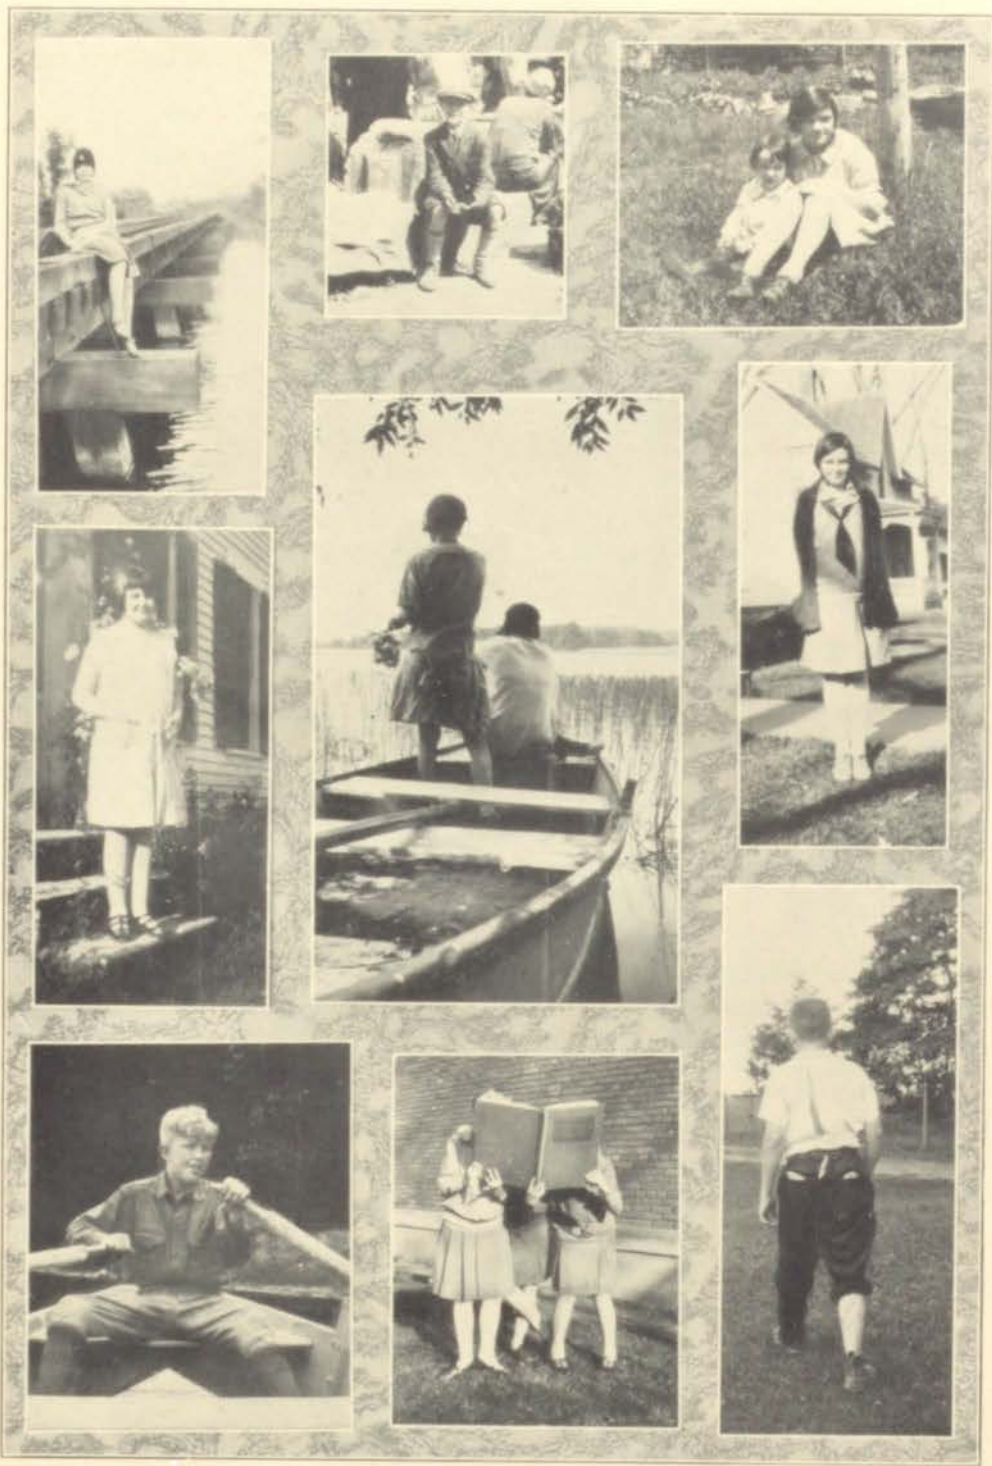

Next in the career of our most aristocratic class was the hot sleigh ride party. Where? Why, of course, out at Pratley's. What fun! Charlie Carr's wife wasn't there. Oh! the fun we had with Charlie and how he can dance. (Inquire from Rosemary.)

We have, during our second year in Marshall High School, earned money in various ways; sandwich sales, a picture at the Garden Theater, and the sale of Christmas Seals. We were aided in these enterprises not only by the student body, but by the efforts of Miss Bennett.

We haven't decided yet, but we know it will be all right. What will be all right? Why the Soph's picnic! We hope it's at some lake. Anyway, we expect the whole class to be there including Miss Bennett and Mr. Dunstone.

The Freshman Class

In the spring of the year, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-Eight, we discarded our garments of childhood and were unceremoniously ousted from the good old Central Building—never to darken its doors again as eighth-graders. Then, quite naturally, the next step was to enter the broad portals of Marshall High School.

Soon came the big election. Officers were chosen in the three English Classes, as follows:

Presidents: Max Hartman, Nancy Lee Watson, and Dorothy Deuel.

Boys' Vice-Presidents: Eber Rivers, Hartley Blakeslee, and Franklin Ryan.

Girls' Vice-Presidents: Marjorie Kempf, Martha Luedders, and Valda Henasy.

Secretaries: Pauline Eyre, Frankie Mae Travis, and Mildred Jones.

Boys' Financial Secretaries: Wayne Hamilton, Paul Van Voorhees and Harold Baum.

Girls' Financial Secretaries: Martha Scott, Virginia Grant, and Almeda Ulrich.

Treasurers: Mary Utter, Herbert Lascelles, and Inez Baum.

Our three loyal declaimers put up a hard battle in the annual Declamation Contest but were overcome by their most able opponents, the Sophomores.

Now some of us are engaged in the difficult task of "extracting" the sum of twenty dollars from our faithful comrades to pay for our picture in "THE DIAL".

We are all looking forward to being Sophomores in the new High School next year.

The "Zed"

Is three years old and still going strong! It is still "The Last Word" in school activities. It is older and wiser and will, therefore, be a worthwhile heritage for next year's staff.

Due to good business management, each student now has every issue of "The Zed". The paper truly belongs to the whole school and is a yearly record of school events.

Advisory Council

With much ceremony and deep secrecy, the august members of the Advisory Council deliberate on outstanding issues concerning the welfare and pleasure of the students of Old Marshall High. Yes—it's an Advisory Council originated by Mr. Zinn. It is an agency for carrying out the government of the students by the students.

In years past there has been no student government of any form. The students have had almost nothing to say in any of the many issues which really concern them. Under this system, however, the matters for consideration are presented to the Council Members by Mr. Zinn. They are thoroughly discussed and then voted upon. This gives the student body a voice in the governmental affairs of the school.

The Council has as its members the honorary officers of the different classes, namely, the Presidents and Vice-Presidents of the classes of Senior and Junior High School. Their good judgment was tested and not found wanting when they rendered a favorable decision relative to a Student Council fee. This weekly fee of five cents gives to the students many advantages heretofore impossible. This system has proved so satisfactory that it will undoubtedly remain in practice next year.

The Usher Club of M. H. S.

The Usher Club was organized in 1925 for the purpose of aiding the school by assisting at the various school activities. It is composed of twelve members, nine of whom are new members. We have succeeded regardless of the change. There are six Seniors, four Juniors, and two Sophomores in the group. Miss Wagner was again chosen as adviser to help us in any difficulties that might arise.

People, who come to the plays and other activities, with bewildered expressions on their faces, look upon the Ushers as guardian angels who point out the straight and narrow path to the right seat.

The Ushers deal with the patrons of school activities in a very adequate manner, and are indispensable to Marshall High School.

J. U. S. Girls

The four o'clock bell rang. I started from the room with the crowd. When I reached the hall, a mob dashed past me and then another mob. I followed them and at the end of the hall they stopped. It was just the weekly candy sale of the J. U. S. Girls.

This peppy group is an organization of Senior Girls. At the first meeting, the following officers were elected: President, Gladys Badger; Vice-President, Ruby Miller; Secretary, Frances McNary; and Treasurer, Nellie May Kipp. The organization was divided into two divisions and Louise Sentz was appointed head of one group and Loraine Holt the other.

At football and basketball games, the girls were busy selling candy and hot-dogs. After school, they sold sandwiches and candy. On Saturdays, at ten o'clock, they could be seen coming from every direction to Sanders' Hardware Store with cakes, cookies, baked-beans, pies, and other good things (Baked-goods sale). Last, but not least, let us mention the great bridge party given at the Mansion Tea room—a decided success in all respects.

Alpha Agrarian

The Alpha Agrarian Club was formed three years ago, under the advisership of Mr. Stark. It is now sponsored by his successor, Mr. Wilcox. The Club at present has 30 members.

The purposes of the Club are to bring the students of the Country closer to those of the City and to promote better Agriculture throughout the County. These aims are being attained by various methods. When members of the seventh and eighth grade classes from rural schools take their examinations, we try to make them feel at home and to become acquainted with our school. Better agriculture in the county is prompted by testing seeds for the farmers and by getting certified seeds through the Agricultural Department.

The Science Club

The Science Club has been organized for five years and its popularity is growing every year. A new Constitution was adopted this year making the laws more rigid and the chances for expulsion greater, thus developing a waiting list, as the membership is limited in number.

A very "shocking" initiation accompanied by a grand banquet was given the new members.

Much credit is due the Science Club for several very interesting "movies" which have been given as assembly programs.

We regret that we must lose our able President and Vice-President who will graduate this spring. With the help of our efficient science instructor and club sponsor, Mr. Hammond, we will probably reorganize next fall with all the present force and activity.

Latin Club

Latin a dead language? Some people may think so but not we. Who? The members of the Plus Ultra, of course. What do we do? Oh! lots of things. For instance, we learn about the Roman people, their customs, languages, laws, and beliefs. We have, also, found that the Roman people were not dull and lazy. They played many interesting games, such as baseball, knuckle hones, and various games of chance. They had many holidays during which schools were always closed. (Sed tempora mutantur).

Included in our membership (if you do not already know) are some very talented people. One in particular, Signor Mysterio, has invented a new radio called the "Spirituola Radiola"—the one known radio which has ever heard station P. A. S. T. The members of the Plus Ultra are the only people who have had the pleasure of hearing this very remarkable radio. (Ask Franklin Ryan about it if you desire to buy one).

This year the Latin Club is composed entirely of Freshmen and Sophomores. Its officers are:

Censor—(Secretary)	Mildred Lindhurst
Quaestor—(Treasurer)	Beryle Long
Aediles—(Program Committee)	Luella Whittaker, Mary Lou Lake

Debate

Debating the question; "Resolved, that a Federal Subsidy for the Development of an American Merchant Marine Would Be a Wise National Policy", Marshall's debating team for 1928-29 had a very commendable season. The first debate was scheduled with Coldwater, the result being 2-1 in favor of our opponents; then Marshall met Homer and won 2-1. For the third debate in the preliminary series, Marshall was credited with a unanimous decision without debating, due to drawing a bye. Encouraged by this luck, Marshall's team worked hard in preparation for the last debate, with Kalamazoo Normal High School. Although our team met with unanimous defeat, this was one of the most interesting debates of the season.

This year, Coach H. C. Dunstone was confronted with the task of building a team around the one veteran of two years, Miss Harwood. Due to Mr. Dunstone's excellent work in organizing and training the debaters and due to the incentive provided by the outstanding success of last year's team, Marshall High School's debate work far surpassed expectations.

The team this year was entirely composed of Seniors, and their tireless efforts make Marshall sorry to lose them. Particular praise is due to Miss Harwood for her forensic activities; she has instilled fear into the minds of competitors from other schools.

There will be no veterans left around which to build next year's squad, providing a particularly good opportunity for those Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors so inclined, if they enjoy work and appreciate due praise. If one looks over the debaters Marshall High has had, the relationship of good marks, all-around students, and genuine High School popularity, can be readily noticed. Come on, those of you who "rate", let's boost the Red and Black.

Library Club

Books! Magazines! and more books! Finally after many weary hours, the library assumes its new location in the rear of the Auditorium. Yes—and with this change has come about the formation of a new club; namely, the Library Club.

This club consists of eighteen members appointed by our capable Head Librarian, Miss Doup. Two girls acting as librarians take charge of the Library each hour of the day.

At the first of the year many perplexing moments were experienced by these "amateur" librarians because they so often searched in vain for a history or an encyclopedia on the fiction shelf. Miss Doup usually arrived in time "to save the day". It was not long, however, before the members of the club were becoming more familiar with the Library and its contents. They proved to be a great help to many students in finding the desired material.

No doubt the Library Club will make its appearance next year, with new members filling the places of those vacated by this year's members who are leaving.

“Dial” Play

One of the delightful dramatic presentations of the year given by Marshall High School students was the Dial play, “Little Women”, directed by Miss Lorah. This was the first play of its kind ever produced by our school and, judging from a pleased audience, it was a success.

The cast was chosen from the High School as a whole and the proceeds from the play were given to “THE DIAL”.

Marshall's respective attics were ransacked in order to assemble enough hoops, bustles, and wigs and, finally, after encountering some difficulty in manipulating these unwonted accouterments, the play was produced on November twenty-fifth.

The cast was as follows:

Mr. Marsh	Creighton Coleman
Mrs. Marsh	Nina Sydow
Jo	Gladys Badger
Meg	Catherine Coleman
Amy	Louise Sentz
Beth	Mildred Pace
Lorry	Richard Shellenberger
Mr. Lawrence	Van Vechten Perrett
Professor Bhear	Louis Seaman
Hannah	Wilma Oldorf

“Pollyanna”

“Orphans ain’t no fun, orphans ain’t!”

It was fun being an orphan in “Pollyanna” though. The annual Senior Play is always looked forward to as one of the largest dramatic offerings of the year. This year “Pollyanna” held no disappointments. Previous presentations show one that the Class of '29 is “bubbling over with talent”.

What could be more enjoyable than an evening spent with “The Ladies Aiders”, listening to the gossip of years ago? Could the humorous Irish Nancy be surpassed? What could be more intriguing than the unhappy Aunt Polly’s love affair? And weren’t Jimmy Bean and the “Glad Girl” sweet?

All of this, with the help of Jack Pendleton and the faithful Doctor Chilton, helps to give the play the usual ending—“and they all lived happily ever after.”

Much credit is due to Miss Lorah, who directed the play, for her untiring efforts as a coach.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Mrs. Carmody	Mildred Mason	Chauffeur	Paul Kelser
Mrs. Gregg	Ethel Elsie	Pollyanna Whittier	Catherine Coleman
Miss Carroll	Frances McNary	Miss Polly	Ruth Deane
Nancy	Wilma Oldorf	Jimmy Bean Sr.	Reginald Deane

Bleeker	Burdette Warner	Jack Pendleton	Creighton Coleman

“Peg O’ My Heart”

The Juniors lent their talent to an untried art when they gave the play, “Peg O’ My Heart”, on April 28. Due to the co-operation of the entire Junior class with the cast, the play went over the top. The ready response of the audience proved that they enjoyed the humor of it.

Peg, a poorly dressed girl living in New York, is made an heiress by the death of her uncle and is called to England to be brought up by an aristocratic aunt. She feels out of place in these surroundings, but she wins her way and also a worthy Englishman, named Jerry. Thus everything ends happily for Peg.

The cast was as follows:

Peg	Beverly Ballard
Mrs. Chichester	Roselyn Barningham
Ethel	Dorothy Russell
Alaric	Laurence Katz
Brent	Armour Walkley
Hawkes	Richard Shellenberger
Maid	Jessie Lee Holmes
Jerry	Laverne Kraushaar
Jarvis	Darrold Wetmore

Left to right: F. Reyer, J. Twist, E. Rivers, F. Ryan, B. Ballard, E. Wehrle, J. Holmes, Mrs. Clark, M. Murray, J. Stulberg, M. Hartman, J. Wigent, P. Kelsner, A. Tingay, C. Van Sickle, C. Coleman.

“Pickles”

Did you see it? What? The operetta! “Fifty-nine varieties” of situations, “peppered pleasingly” with plenty of humor, along with a clever plot combined to make the finest musical production for years.

After many weeks of hard practice and conscientious work, it was brought to a brilliant close on February eighth. Everything was perfect from the introduction to the finale.

A great deal of credit is due Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Russell and Miss Middleswart for their able direction.

The audience was unprecedented in number and their verdict was “Best ever!” The members of the cast and choruses were chosen from the Girls’ and Boys’ Glee Clubs. The cast is as follows:

J. Jennison Jones	Edward Wehrle	Bumski	Max Hartman
Hans	Eber Rivers	Lady Vivian	Janet Wigent
Kinski	Franklin Ryan	Jonas Pennington	Paul Kelsner
Ilona	Jessie Lee Holmes	June Pennington	Alice Tingay

The Orchestra

Mr. Rexford Clark, our director, has done much to account for the growth of our orchestra. We now number twenty-nine, the largest Marshall High has ever had.

In November, we made our first public appearance. This was at the Dial play. Since then we have participated in the High School Musical, which was held December seventh, and have furnished the music for all high school plays.

As the membership has increased, also, the quality of music played has improved.

The personnel of the orchestra is as follows: Director, Rexford Clark; Violins: Julius Stulberg, Arthur Lower, Foy Price, Luella Whittaker, Stanley Hartwell, Edith Harwood, Virginia Sayre, Mary Snyder; Clarinets: Paul Kelser, Frederick Ryan, John Cronin; Cornets: Dorothy Deuel, Paul Leyden, William Clayborne, Frederick Storr; Saxaphones: Benjamin Blakeslee, Ross Snyder; Baritone, Shirland Eddy; Flute, Franklin Ryan; Trombones: Nancy Lee Watson, Harold Upston, Hartley Blakeslee; Bass, Carlton Groesbeck; Bells, Mildred Lindhurst; Piano, Nettie Mae Mulvaney; Mellophone, Billy Carpenter; Drums, Mary Belle McPherson, Frances Keicher.

 Second Row: R. Shellenberger, L. Diehl, F. Tidd, C. Mumaw, E. Groesbeck, L. Boody, M. Murray, W. Gardner, P. Leyden, N. Ward, Mr. Clark.
 Front Row: F. Ryan, A. Lower, J. Cronin, E. Carroll, M. McPherson, J. Smith, W. Clayborne, D. Deuel, D. McPherson.

The Band

Our first practice found all the members back, ready to make a success of the band. At different times, new ones have joined until we now have a thirty-two piece band.

In November, we received our uniforms for which we are very appreciative. We made our first public appearance in uniform at the High School Musical on December seventh.

Besides playing at assembly once and at all the home basketball games, we have accompanied the team to Lakeview and Albion.

A great many new marches and overtures have been learned and much progress has been made. The following officers were elected: President, Paul Kelser; Vice-President, Arthur Lower; Secretary, Graham Harther; Treasurer, Hartley Blakeslee.

The personnel is as follows: Director, Rexford Clark; Student Director, Dale McPherson; Cornets: Dale McPherson, Dorothy Deuel, William Clayborne, Paul Leyden, Frederick Storr, Nugent Ward, Willard Gardner, Graham Harther, Maxton Murray; Clarinets: Frederick Ryan, Paul Kelser, Arthur Lower, John Cronin, Richard Shellenberger, Franklin Tidd, Claudine Mumaw, Lawrence Diehl; Piccolo, Franklin Ryan; Saxophone, Ross Snyder; Mellophones: Elizabeth Groesbeck, Charles McNary, William Clayborne; Trombones: Nancy Lee Watson, Harold Upston, Hartley Blakeslee; Baritone, Benjamin Blakeslee; Basses: Carlton Groesbeck, Shirland Eddy; Drums: Mary Belle McPherson, Edward Carroll, Jack Smith; Drum Major, Richard Shellenberger.

Changyatah Campfire

Campfire in the High School, last year, was in a comparatively dormant stage, but it awakened with renewed vigor last fall when the Changyatah group was organized under the direction of Miss Griffey.

The camp fire, having been lighted, was kept burning by this lively bunch of girls who "improved each shining hour" by feasts, skating parties, and general good times. The guardian, whose famous "feat" is unsurpassed thus far, added much to the gaiety.

During National Birthday Week, the Changyatah Campfire decorated the window of Hopkins and Eymer's with various articles depicting camp life. The purpose of this project was to acquaint the citizens of Marshall with some of the aims and ideals of Campfire.

This winter has proved to be very enjoyable and it is the hope of the members that, in years to come, they may come back to Marshall High School and still see the Changyatah Campfire thriving, growing, and helping.

The officers are as follows:

Guardian	Miss Griffey
President	Rachel Bryant
Vice-President	Harriet Graff
Secretary and Treasurer	Dorothy Thomas

Left to right: Back Row: V. Grant, E. Delaney, A. Allen, D. Weakley, E. Gesner, Miss Bebertz, Mrs. Roberts, Miss Middleswart, B. Long, M. Jennings, M. Whitland, G. Olds, M. Mueller, G. Barningham.

The Wendat Campfire

The Wendat Campfire is composed of thirty-five members of the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades.

These girls assemble each Thursday morning for songs, games, or stunts, and once each month for Council Fire, when honor-beads are given out. These beads are awarded to girls who accomplish certain tasks in each of the following crafts: Home, Health, Hand, Camp, Citizenship, Nature, and Business.

Three ranks are offered to girls attaining certain degrees of honor. These are: Woodgatherer, Firemaker, and Torchbearer. Several of the members have reached the rank of Firemaker and are now working on Torchbearer requirements.

The three ideals: Work, Health, and, Love form the watchword, Wohelo, which all of the girls are striving to follow.

National Birthday Week, which formerly was celebrated in Battle Creek, was commemorated by a Health Pageant and Grand Council Fire. Several ranks and many honor beads were awarded. The girls also decorated windows representing the different crafts. This served to give the people of Marshall some idea of the work we are doing.

Under the able leadership of four guardians: Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Russell, Miss Bebertz, and Miss Middleswart, the girls have many enjoyable times.

The officers were elected as follows: Seventh Grade: President, Maxine Hatch; Eighth Grade: President, Isabel Minne; Ninth Grade: President, Virginia Lautenslager.

Calhoun County Normal

Calhoun County Normal is a teacher-training institution under the control of a County Normal Board consisting of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the School Commissioner, and the City Superintendent of Schools. As it is a State Institution, the program of studies is prescribed by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

In order to be admitted to a County Normal Class, the student must be at least seventeen years of age and be recommended by the principal of the high school of which he or she is a graduate.

A County Normal teacher's Certificate is granted on the satisfactory completion of a year's work. Credits on such certificates are recognized by the State Teachers' Colleges and by the University of Michigan.

The purpose of the County Normal is to provide well trained teachers for the rural schools of the County. This raises the standards of our rural schools, and indirectly of our city schools and high schools, as well, because of the interchange of students between country and city.

The Calhoun County Normal Class of 1929 was enrolled September 2, 1928, with a membership of twenty-six students.

The first social event of the year was a "mixer" given by Miss Van Gorder and Miss Stenson. "Progressive Peanuts" and other stunts were enjoyed, after which, students, faculty, and County Normal Board felt better acquainted. Soon the Class organized and elected its officers. Class pins were selected and ordered, this being the first Class in the Normal history to have pins.

At Hallowe'en, a masquerade was given to the Class of 1928 and faculty by the Class of 1929.

At this time, arrangements were made for monthly professional meetings with the Class of 1928. These meetings were held at rural schools or the County Normal room. The Class of 1929 edited a little bulletin with suggestions and devices for teaching. These were given the teachers at the meetings. Each issue of the Bulletin contained a pictorial page dedicated to "The Adventures of Cal Houn at Home and at School."

In December, the critic room, with the assistance of the Class, planned and presented a pageant, "The First Christmas." A tree was enjoyed and gifts were distributed by Santa Claus.

Speakers on professional and current topics were secured throughout the year.

The trip to Kalamazoo to attend County Normal and Rural Progress Day at Western State Teachers' College was one of the notable events of the year, as was also the trip to Michigan State College to participate in the County Normal "get-together" in the spring. The important closing event of the year was the Alumni banquet in connection with Graduation activities.

Activities Calendar

SEPTEMBER

- 4 School opened. "Once again here are school mates assembled."
 22-23 "Charlie" Can' issues a call to arms, legs, and feet. The football team journeys to Lansing and Coldwater.

OCTOBER

- 5-13-20 Oh what heroes! Ain't they noble! The Carrmen battled for Marshall High.
 30 Presidential campaign staged in the auditorium. We are glad to inform you that the roof has resumed its former position after being raised several inches.
 31 It was a wonder! People are still wondering what it was all about. "The Druid Oak," we mean.

NOVEMBER

- 6 M. H. S. students helped Hoover get his seat in the White House.
 8 Our parents get some education at night school.
 19 The Juniors are learning to play bridge. Hurrah for their bridge party!
 23 Dial Play. The "diminutive ladies" entertain us. Mildred dies with a smile on her face.

DECEMBER

- 7 Musical concert. "Music hath charms." So has the Girls' Glee Club.
 18 Marshall practices on Albion in a basketball game. We were victorious.
 20 Student-Alumni Banquet. Moral: Don't make a big noise when you're full of bologna.
 22 Christmas vacation — Freshmen hang up their stockings. Seniors put a bushel basket under the chimney. Live and learn!

JANUARY

- 10 The Carrmen walked all over Hillsdale during the game as we later walked all over the floor during our first basketball dance of the season.

- 20 Second Semester opens. It is the beginning of the end. The Seniors are on the last part of their four years' journey.
 25 Oh woe to us! We lost! We lost! But all's well that ends well. Three cheers for the dance!

FEBRUARY

- 8 Hold it! Thank you. Another snapshot of old Vienna is taken in "Pickles."
 11 It was a wow! What? The J. U. S. Girls' card party, of course.

MARCH

- 1 What music do we hear in the distance? 'Tis none other than "Dick" Shellenberger's orchestra contributing to the benefit of the Zed dance.
 11 The citizens of Marshall are still wondering how many cords of wood "Dunnie" sawed while he was dreaming of his "Mummy Bride."
 14 Hark ye! Hark ye! Our brave gladiators are fighting valiantly at Kalamazoo for their Alma Mater.
 22 Senior play. The Seniors, assisted by some stray domestic animals of the community of Marshall and by Max Hartman, present "Pollyanna."

APRIL

- 8-15 Spring is calling from within these high walls to come and be happy with her for a week.
 19 Physical Education Exhibit. Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching. Where? Oh just around the room to exhibit themselves before the public eye. Likewise the girls.
 26 Junior Play. Again we are noticing an improvement in our dear little successors. They are becoming real actors.

Football

Including the forfeited Albion game, the 1928 Marshall high school football team won four games and lost three under the direction of Coach Clytus Carr. One of the games lost was to Lansing Central, a Class A school, leaving the team's record as far as Little 10 games were concerned, four victories and two losses or a percentage of .667. The record is as follows:

Marshall _____	0	Lansing _____	7
Marshall _____	6	Coldwater _____	31
Marshall _____	20	Grand Ledge _____	0
Marshall _____	31	Hastings _____	0
Marshall _____	24	Hillsdale _____	0
Marshall _____	6	Charlotte _____	19
Total _____		Total _____
	87		57

In the opening game, Lansing scored on the locals in the first five minutes of play, but were held scoreless for the remainder of the game. The following week over-confidence played a large part in the defeat suffered at the hands of Coldwater, 31 to 6. Then followed the three home games, during which not a single point was scored against the Carrmen. The final game played was at Charlotte, where a wet field handicapped Marshall in the use of her passing attack and was largely responsible for the 19 to 6 defeat suffered there. The Albion game was forfeited to Marshall when the rival school was suspended from play for having used an ineligible man in the early part of the season. Marshall gained no little satisfaction through defeating Hillsdale after that school had won from Albion.

Much credit is due Coach Carr for developing a team which made so good a record, as there was a great scarcity of material with which to work.

The Players

CAPTAIN CHESTER CONNELLY, Fullback.

The team was led by "Chet" Connelly, who was one of the best fullbacks in the Little 10. His line-plunging was the feature of the Charlotte game, while his accurate forward passing was responsible for Marshall completing from eight to twelve passes in each of the three home games. He graduates in June.

MANLEY VAN VOORHEES, Halfback.

Despite his lack of size "Gus" Van Voorhees was the most consistent ground-gainer in the Marshall backfield. His running back of punts was the best seen on the local gridiron in a number of years. He is, also, a senior.

EDWARD WEHRLE, Quarterback.

Wehrle is the third member of the backfield to be lost by graduation. His good headwork was largely responsible for the great showing made in the home games and in the Lansing contest.

HOMER GAUSS, Tackle.

Gauss has also played his last season for Marshall high school. In the Hillsdale game, he blocked a Hillsdale punt, picked up the ball, and ran for a touchdown. He was one of the most consistent players in the local line.

REGINALD DEANE, End.

Although his regular position was that of an end, "Bill" Deane also appeared in the lineup as a tackle and guard during the season. His best game was against Hillsdale. Another man lost by graduation.

FRANCIS CAINES, Guard.

"Pete" Caines completed his second and last year as a regular guard. His great size helped fill the center of the line and makes him a hard man to replace.

BURDETTE WARNER, Center.

Warner was one of the outstanding and most consistent linemen of the season. He was continually breaking through the opposing line and tackling the ball carrier for losses. His recovery of a fumble against Hastings paved the way for the second touchdown of that game. It was his last year of play.

CLAYTON VAN SICKLE, Guard.

Van Sickle, although a senior, was playing his first year of football. He did not come out until after the first game had been played, but won a place in the regular lineup with only three days practice before the Coldwater game.

HERMAN CRAMPTON, End.

Crampton consistently out-punted every opponent and was also on the receiving end of most of the forward passes. Although his position was at an end, he also appeared in the backfield in one or two games. He has one more year to play.

PAUL KELSER, End.

Kelser's return to school gave Coach Carr another capable end. He had a habit of nailing the opposing receivers of punts in their tracks, and looked especially good against Lansing. He is classed as a Senior.

CLIFFORD CUSHMAN, Tackle.

"Cush" had little difficulty in holding his own against any opponent. He has the ideal build for a tackle and made good use of it. He will be back to help out next year's team.

ALBERT SCHULER, Halfback.

Schuler was one of the fastest men on the team. He scored a touchdown on the first play after the kick-off against Hastings and made a number of sensational runs throughout the season. Although a Junior, it was his first year of football and he should be an outstanding performer next fall.

FRED WAIDELICH and CARLTON GROESBECK, Substitutes.

These two men, a sophomore and a freshman respectively, bore the brunt of the reserve duty. Waidelich played during most of the Lansing game and appeared at a guard position in several other contests. The work of Groesbeck against Charlotte will long be remembered by those who saw the game. Both should be regulars next year.

Basketball

The 1929 Marshall high school basketball team, coached by that peer of all coaches, "Charlie" Carr, was one of the most successful in the history of the school. Including a pre-season game with Albion and the three games in the district and regional tournaments, fifteen games were played by the Red and Black varsity, ten of them resulted in victories. Of the five defeats, three were by margins of a single basket, while one of the others was to St. Joseph in the regional tournament. The winners were the team which went to the semi-finals in the state tournament before being beaten. The reserves won every game played, eight in all.

The regular five consisted of Captain Herman Crampton at center; Reginald Alexander and Manley Van Voorhees as forwards; Paul Kelsner and Creighton Coleman as guards. Two other men, Albert Schuler and Fred Waidelich, won letters as substitutes. The team was weakened for the two games at the regional tournament by the loss of Crampton. The reserves consisted of Fred Waidelich, Arthur Mau, Henry Mumaw, Douglas Rendall, Gordon Holt, Gerald Kimmel, Montgomery Dunham, Ralph Green, Wayne Miller, and Clarence Thunder.

Van Voorhees, Coleman, and Kelsner are lost to the team by graduation, but the remainder of both the varsity and reserve squads will be back for the 1930 team, of which Reginald Alexander has been selected as captain.

On December 18, Coach Carr's team engaged in a pre-season game with Albion. The contest was played in the Marshall gymnasium and resulted in a 20 to 8 victory for Marshall. Crampton scored 15 of the winners' 20 points.

The official Little 10 season was opened at Coldwater on January 8, when Marshall came out on the long end of a 21 to 15 score. Captain Crampton scored all of Marshall's field goals, nine in all. Coldwater tied the score early in the final quarter, but the Carrmen came through with three baskets in the closing minutes. The reserves won from the Coldwater second team by a count of 21 to 17.

On the following Friday, the first home game of the official season was played, and Marshall won from Hillsdale by a score of 20 to 15. The losers made only three field goals, the remainder of their points being scored from the foul line. By this time the regular line-up was decided. It consisted of: Manley Van Voorhees and Reginald Alexander as the forwards, Herman Crampton at center, and Paul Kelsner and Creighton Coleman as the guards. Albert Schuler was the first string utility man and often appeared in the lineup as a guard.

On Tuesday, January 15, Lakeview came over from Battle Creek and went home on the short end of a 30 to 10 score. The Marshall reserves shut out the Lakeview second team to the tune of a 9 to 0 count. The game was a non-association encounter and did not count in the Little 10 standings.

On Friday, January 18, Marshall won its fifth consecutive game, taking Charlotte into camp on the Marshall floor, 16 to 13. There was never more than a difference of three points in the two teams, making the game one of the best of the season to watch.

A week later, however, the Carrmen's string of victories was brought to an end. A re-vamped Albion team came over and defeated Marshall, 20 to 18. Alexander was put out on fouls in the last quarter while the score was tied, and without the services of the fast little forward Marshall was unable to regain the lead.

At Eaton Rapids on the following Tuesday, Coach Carr's team took its first bad beating by a score of 28 to 20. Marshall got a fine start and piled up a lead of 16 to 3 in the second quarter. Eaton Rapids then started to find the basket and could not be stopped. They passed Marshall early in the third quarter and added to the lead until the end.

February 1 found the Red and Black five playing at Charlotte in the small, low-ceilinged gym of that school. Marshall played one of its best games of the year, overcame an early lead secured by the home team, and then lost, 15 to 14, when Fisher, Charlotte forward, caged a basket by throwing the ball over his head in the closing minutes. The Marshall reserves won from the Charlotte second team, and remained undefeated as they had won from the Eaton Rapids the preceding Tuesday.

Revenge for the defeat at Eaton Rapids was gained a week later when the team came to Marshall and was beaten, 17 to 14. Crampton scored his 100th point of the season in this game. The Marshall guards, Coleman, Kelsner, and Schuler, did not allow Eaton Rapids a single field goal during the last half. The Marshall reserves won the preliminary game by a score of 28 to 5, with Fred Waidelich accounting for 17 points.

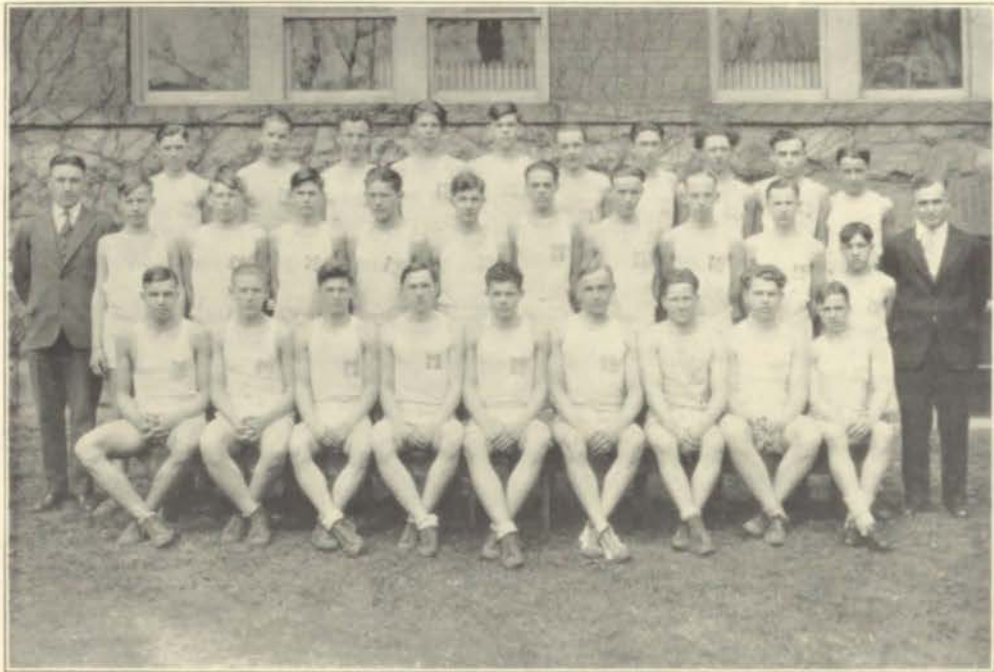

Another one-point defeat was the lot of Coach Carr's charges in their own gym at the hands of Coldwater on February 12, the score being 12 to 11. Crampton scored a field goal as the final whistle sounded and put his team to within a point of a tie score. He was closely guarded throughout the game, but was helped out in the scoring by Alexander. Neither team showed much of an offense while both were good on defense. The reserves continued their string of victories by winning from Coldwater, 15 to 14.

Friday, February 15, saw the local engers at Lakeview, where both varsity and reserves won their games. The first team was victorious by a count of 28 to 17, while the reserves had a harder time in winning by a score of 12 to 11. Crampton accounted for 18 points in the varsity encounter. Fred Waidelich played center on the second team, then entered the first team game as guard in the second quarter, and at the start of the final period was shifted from guard to forward.

Albion was invaded the following Thursday, and the invasion was successful, Marshall returning on the long end of an 18 to 17 score. Van Voorhees was high scorer for the evening, accounting for 10 points. Marshall's passing attack functioned the best that it had in any game played until that time. A 6 to 0 lead was obtained by Van Voorhees and his teammates in the first quarter. Albion was never ahead and on only one occasion were they on even terms with the Marshallites. It was the final scheduled game of the season. Preparations were started at once for the tournaments.

On the evening of Friday, March 8, the greatest Marshall victory of the year was recorded. Albion was defeated by a score of 25 to 12 in the college gymnasium at Albion in the district tournament. The Albionites failed to score a field goal in the first half, but kept within reach of the Carrmen through the medium of free throws. In the last quarter, the Red and Black came through with 13 points, snowing their opponents under an avalanche of baskets. The passing attack had been further developed and Kelsner and Coleman left little to be desired from the viewpoint of defensive play. The game meant that Marshall had won the district title for the second successive year. On the evening of Thursday, March 14, Marshall won the first game of the tournament from Three Rivers by a score of 20 to 15. Van Voorhees led the scorers with 10 points, while Waidelich came through in splendid fashion and accounted for seven tallies. The season ended the following afternoon when St. Joseph won from Marshall in the semi-finals of the regional tournament. The score was 22 to 12.

Track

The spring of 1929 saw Marshall high school produce its first track team in a number of years. Three meets were scheduled by Coach Carr. The first was a dual meet with Lakeview at Marshall, April 29. For Saturday, May 3, a quadrangular meet was arranged to take place at Coldwater with Marshall, Sturgis, Coldwater, and Howell participating. The first annual Little 10 meet was scheduled to take place at Coldwater on Saturday, May 11.

Over 30 candidates answered Coach Carr's first call for track practice. Out of that number several good individual performers were found. In the sprints Albert Schuler very shortly demonstrated that he was a man to be reckoned with, and Winston Walters was not far behind him. Dunham and Marquardt were the best of the 440-yard dash men, while Crampton showed great form in running the half mile. During the first week of practice he went the distance in two minutes and 30 seconds. Milo Collins was the best of Marshall's mile runners from the start of the season.

Schuler, in addition to being a sprinter, also developed into a consistent winner in the broad jump, doing 19 feet without any difficulty and often exceeding that mark. Crampton and Schuler were both able to do better than five feet in the high jump during the first week of practice. In the weight events, lack of experience proved a big handicap. However, Connelly, Coleman, and Van Sickle early proved to be the best of the "strong men". Coleman excelled at the shot-put while Connelly led the local men as a thrower of the discus, while Van Sickle's specialty was the javelin. Van Voorhees also showed ability with the spear early in the season.

The half-mile relay team was picked from Schuler, Walters, Van Voorhees, Alexander, and Coleman. Only in the pole vault and hurdles did the Carrmen fail to show candidates of sufficient calibre to prove important factors in deciding the Little 10 championship. With the experience gained the first year and the interest shown by the students, track and field athletics bids fair to become one of the leading sports of the schools.
