At MFS spontaneous celebration erupted when the varsity debate team defended its state Class B championship for the eighth consecutive year.

Again the student body went wild with celebration as coach Dick Hamilton's basketball team wrapped up the Twin Valley championship for the first time in 25 years. Now that was cause for celebration! The eagles really gave the MFSers something to cheer about when they captured the District Championship. The Class '76 celebrated their graduation robed in red, white and blue. It was a year for good times and the halls at MFS were never without a smiling face. Involvement and participation in school activities reached an all-time high in '76. Student government was actively involved this year as they began the sale of plots of turf to help complete the athletic field and furnish the stadium with bleachers and lights. Latin and French club sponsored successful dances during the year. The growth of many MFS clubs also reflected the involvement of the students during 1976. FFA grew to be the largest club with 156 members. Homecoming was the first activity of the year in which the classes could work as a unit. The classes' homecoming floats and projects reflected the nostalgic "50's" which was the 1976 Homecoming theme. The Senior class displayed their spirit as they won the class competition in the United Fund drive. The juniors became involved enough to take the class spirit title for the homecoming activities week. As the year went on the sophomores united and managed to win the spirit award at many pep assemblies. The freshmen worked together to create their first homecoming float, which won first place. The MFS Band marched in the home tour parade and the Ushers Club helped to recall the spirit of yesterday as they served as guides and hostesses for the annual Marshall Home Tour. Yes, 1976 was a year for celebration . . . but it was more than that . . . it was our year and it will always remain our year. The memories will linger but we can't look back now. Now we must turn forward to tomorrow.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Have you ever eaten Chinese egg rolls or Chicken Curry from India or Mossalsa from Greece?

If not perhaps you should enroll in the Foreign Foods class offered by MHS's Home Economics Department. Foreign Foods is only one of several exciting class offerings within the Home Ec. department. Other courses available to students include interior design, outdoor cooking, desserts, and sewing.

A) Mrs. Knnack looks over a pamphlet on child psychology. B) Markus Conner works diligently to finish sewing a shirt. C) Mike Boehmer isn't so sure he wants the camera to see what he's cooking.

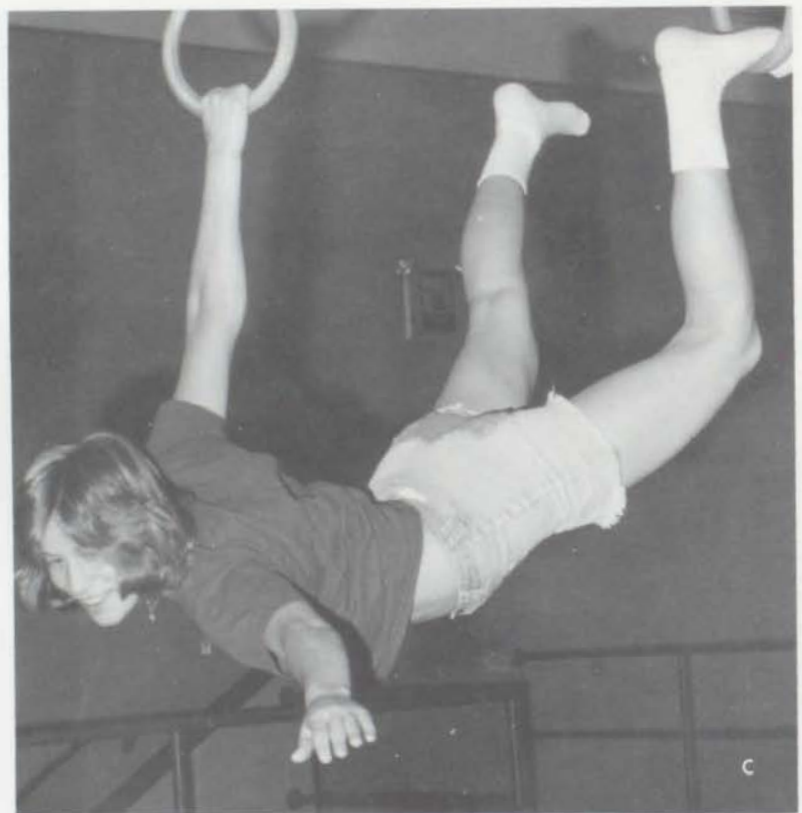

1975-76 started out with a new required program for all freshmen, with an optional elective program for all other students. The only other requirement besides the freshman year is one more year of physical education, which may be taken anytime during the sophomore through senior years. The Program stresses carry-over activities which the students will be able to use in their after-school years. The year was highly successful, as enrollment numbers were high, and many new courses offered the student a chance to individually work on a specific set of skills.

Archery, golf, bowling and many other sports were offered to create later life interests and areas of specialization.

A) Craig Petty is timed for a phys. coordination test. B) Steve Gish shows his muscular ability to lift weights. C) Dangling by her fingers and toes is sophomore Margaret Petroff.

A) Mr. Machata takes time to help Sandy Irvin in Math. B) Melody Boehmer demonstrates a math problem on the board. C) A group of math students get together to figure out a math problem.

Department adds two teachers

The math department hasn't changed much in the past year. Much of the same classes are still offered, such as, Geometry, Tech Math, Algebra I and II, MIA, and General Math. The math department added two new teachers this year, Mr. Bourbeau and Mr. Triece, who took the place of Mr. Cutler at semester break.

Quarter classes to stay?

This year the social studies curriculum was set up on a quarter system. This system was used to give the students a greater selection of classes in which to choose and also provided for a more specialized unit of study for some students. American history was broken down to cover specific periods in history like the Revolutionary period, Civil War period and our modern atomic age. A student could also choose to study, American expansion, the Depression era, and how America became an industrial giant. The government section was broken down also. Federalism, Congress and the Presidency, State and Local was joined by the contemporary Political Parties and Electoral College class which follow quite closely with the present political campaign.

Political science was also touched when classes were offered dealing the U.S.'s involvement with other nations and their problems. World was broken down into specialized topic areas never before studied individually such as Africa, The Middle East, and Ancient history.

New classes that proved very popular with students were History of Sport, Crimes, Great World Leaders, and Michigan History.

The Social Studies department hit a high note when in May, Mr. Roy, the beloved geography teacher, showed his first movie ever with the assistance of Mr. Smouse. The topic of the movie, "Kansas" of course.

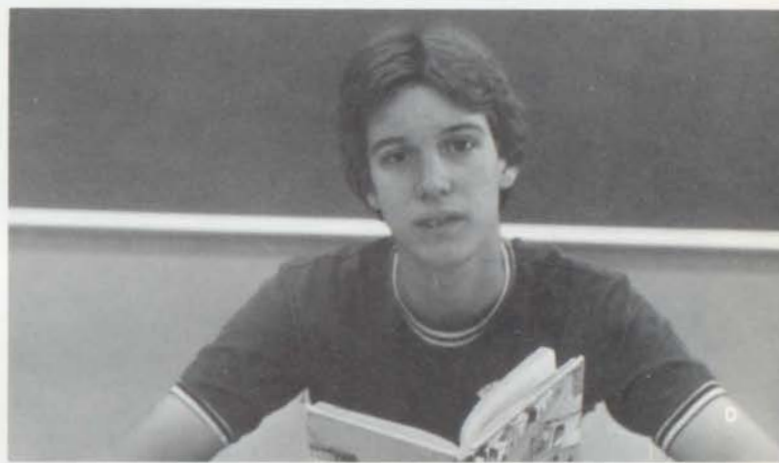

A) Last day of school Lori Billman, Karen Alexander, and Maria Zapata get together for a party in Mr. Roy's fifth hour history class. B) Mr. Cronk takes time outside of class to help Sheila Burlingame with a problem.

English is a noun

Horror stories, science fiction tales, creative writing, and Nobel prize winning authors are just a few of the course offerings through the MHS English department.

Freshmen are required to enroll in an English 9 survey course, but after that initial year, MHS students may sign up for any of the many English electives.

First year teachers Ms. Pam Babcock and Mr. Steven Poole team-taught "Romeo and Juliet" to the freshman classes.

Expository writing was offered to the more advanced students who were interested in preparation for college English classes. Writing teacher Mrs. Kim Brown required written assignments, at least, every three days. Also a fifteen page term paper, complete with footnotes was required during the last quarter of the class.

SCIENCE CLASS PRESENTS:

The Flying Egg

A) Sophomore Lori Llewellyn, checks for details on her specimen, while Annette Swalwell watches. B) Patti Powers and Betsy Drumm inspect their photography work. C) Tim McDonald opens his packaged egg, and surprisingly, finds it unbroken.

The first annual egg drop took place this year in Mr. Malinowski's physics class. The task was to package an egg, in such a way that the impact from a fall of 1000 feet would not break the egg. In addition to this new event in the science department, it looks as though there may be an annual rabbit run through mazes. According to Mrs. Edwards, the purpose of the project is to teach the rabbit, through trial and error.

The "How To..." Department

The industrial arts department is a "How to . . ." department. How to fix a television; how to landscape a yard; and how to build a house, are just a few of the things that industrial arts students can learn. Some of the other classes offered are Drafting I and II, Engineering Drawing III and IV, electronics, TV repair, woodworking, building and trades, landscaping and many more. An example of a project completed within the year by the industrial art students was the construction of a house. Similar projects have been going on for eight years and have been successful, and well accepted by the public. The students learn a great deal about the constructing of a house, through practical experience. Along with building and trades, many of the other departments are involved in the project. The interior design students aid in the decoration of the new home, and the landscaping classes provide the final touch.

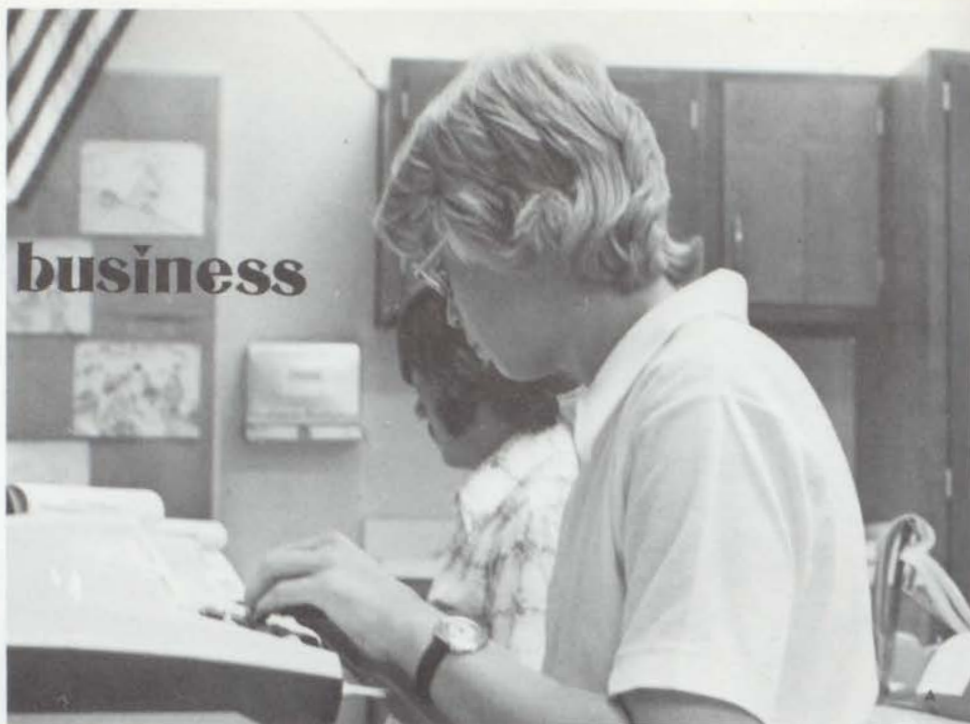

A) Tom Wright concentrates on his project in woodshop. B) Dan Holdridge and Mark Sachjen seek advice from Mr. Duff. C) Kevin Woods, Robert Johnson, and George Creller work busily in electronics.

Taking care of business

The business department this year was run about the same way as many years in the past. The various classes offered are Shorthand, Office Machines, Typing, Accounting, and General Business.

Most of these classes are two-year courses. The first year is to present the basic material, while the second year presents much different and advanced material, which furthers their knowledge on the topic.

A) Tony Lembke works busily in typing class. B) Lori Jelinek breaks for a smile, while working in the office machines room. C) Julie Willrich learns the skill of business letters.

New body for drivers ed

Driver's Education at MHS this year was sent into the body shop and came out with a shiny new exterior. Under the direction of Mr. Bruce Cline, the driver's education class was extended to a semester, a driving range was developed and students got their first chance to drive a standard transmission vehicle.

"The larger class time gives the kids a much better opportunity to learn" said Mr. Cline.

Each week driver's ed. students were allowed three days of classroom work and two days of driving on the new driving range.

A usual class day would include written assignments, one half hour of lecture and discussion, relation of the text book to downtown Marshall driving, and after school driving.

The grading was based on individual performances. "What they get is what they earned," stated Mr. Cline. Students have to have a "C" minimum grade to pass the class.

A) A driver's education student holds up a familiar road sign. B) A poster in the driver's education room expresses an important idea to the students.

"If your cup
runneth over....
Let someone else
runneth the car!"

A PART OF SOMETHING GREAT

This year proved to be one of the more outstanding years for our MHS music department. The Orchestra, Band, Marshall Singers and Women's Ensemble all received the highest ratings possible at music festivals. The music department averages a performance every other day, keeping music students on a fast pace schedule.

The quality and variety of musical experiences open to MHS students makes music education a reality for those who wish to learn and become a part of something great.

MANY RECEIVE AWARDS

This year the art department made very few changes in their curriculum. A few of the classes offered were Water color and Acrylics, Drawing, Ceramics, Textiles and Studio I and II, which are basically the same courses as offered last year. Displaying student artwork, is the art gallery which has been successful for the two years it has been open.

Several students entered art work in the Battle Creek Youth Talent and Science Fair. Marshall students took almost all first places in the art field of the contest. Other activities throughout the year were painting bicentennial fire hydrants and bike racks for the Lyons Club. A new addition to the school was a decorated cafeteria. Art students were given an area of which they could design and paint anything of their choice.

A) Duane Markham glances upward for a moment, as he cleans paint out of a cup. B) Freshman Kelly Kendall makes an attempt to steal ideas from classmate Ann Hoeltzel. C) Carol Herman takes a minute from her work to look at the camera.

Marshall's debate team completed a highly successful season culminating with the Class B state championship for the eighth consecutive year.

The high point for the entire team occurred at a Saturday invitational tournament at Battle Creek Central, when Marshall's combined novice, junior varsity and varsity teams won the school sweepstakes trophy as the school with the best overall record.

Finally, Rick Uselton ended his highly successful high school debate career by placing third in the John S. Knight competition and winning a $750 scholarship.

The forensic season was also a successful one.

In addition to the multiple reading group and Laurie Van Wieren and Roxanne Seiler in humorous interpretation, Bob Withee in radio braodcasting and Mary Schneider in girl's extemporaneous speaking reached the semi-finals at the state tournament.

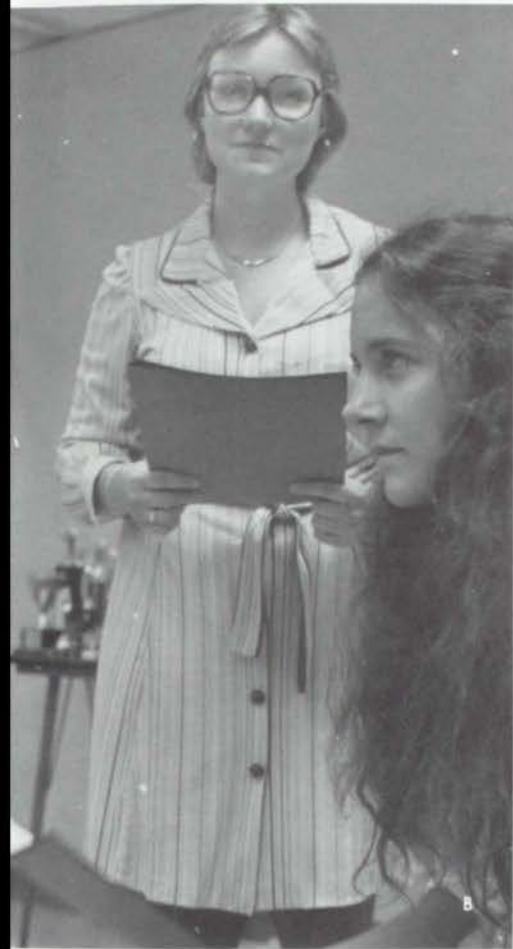

A) The Varsity Debaters who went to State Competition in 1976 were (from left) Sue Marvin, Rob Boynton, Rick Uselton, Laura Hall. B) Roxanne Seiler and Nanette Clatterbuck practice a duo reading. C) Lily Prigioniero, state qualifier in story-telling in 1975, practices her selection, while Laurie VanWieren, the state qualifier in story-telling for 1976, practices her selection. D) Marshall's multiple reading group qualified for the state tournament with a selection including cuttings from, David and Lisa, Flowers for Algernon and The Three Faces of Eve.

A way with words

CROPPING, OVERBURNING, BLEEDING

Shop Talk

A language of our own . . . Shop Talk . . . Bleeding a picture . . . Cropping a photo . . . Overburning a headline. All of it is a part of the training students receive in Journalism I and II. First semester the J-I class studied newspapering.

Journalism II students, Cindy Sinclair and Cathy Albrecht served as editors of this year's INTERCHANGE.

They received a co-award as "Outstanding Newspaper Staff" members at the Awards Day ceremonies. Rob Crandall was the photographer for the paper.

Shhh...

The High School Instructional Materials Center provides current and back-issue magazines, books for recreational and educational reading, recordings, filmstrips and other media for use by students and teachers. The center offers an attractive, comfortable place for browsing, research, or study as well as an opportunity to view a film or filmstrip, listen to a record, use the opaque projector, or work with other students on a group project in one of the conference rooms.

Each year about sixteen student aids work in the center - earning credit, learning more about library skills and helping other students and staff members find and use needed materials.

Be GO-OPerative

Since 1962 when John Strough introduced the Marshall School system and the community to the cooperative occupational training program, there has been much growth and many successes. The CO-OP concept involves students selecting a possible career, studying that career in school in a related class, and then practicing it on the job during released time from the school day. This program is presently being implemented in Marshall and has grown from accommodating a dozen students in its beginning years to nearly a 100 each year. The involved students have received training in nearly any imaginable occupation and in most cases with much success. This program gives the students a chance to learn, to earn, to make decisions and to become prepared to enter the job market upon graduation from high school.

A) Bill Josephson, co-op coordinator at Marshall high school stops for a friendly snapshot. B) Kathy Bastian arranges flowers throughout the store while working at Cobb Florist. C) Rhonda Smith smiles as she takes an order at Burger Chef.

Pageantry

For the second year in a row the Jr. Miss Pageant was held on two nights, Friday and Saturday, November 28 and 29.

Robbie Boynton proved to be the ideal American high school girl when she captured the crown for Jr. Miss, 1976. Robbie was also chosen by the other contestants as Miss Congeniality. First runner-up was Stacy Burris, second runner-up was Maureen Wayward, while Carol Perry won the Jean Livingston Award for Creative and Performing Arts. Marcia Lust won the Scholastic Achievement Award.

(A) Robbie Boynton displays the poise and confidence which helped her in winning the title of Jr. Miss 1976 as she performs her Magicians act. (B) Jenny Glanis performs ballet as her contribution in the talent competition. (C) Sandy Williams concentrates on the lines of her act "Back Seat Driver."

Class's Night '76

On June 4 thanks to many, the Seniors made Class Night '76 a huge success. The show began by highlighting our four years of high school, after which we sang "We'll Play for You" by Seals & Croft, gave our show, ending it with "Friends" by Elton John. The curtains re-opened for the last chorus and we received a standing ovation. Our Emcee's Dick Smith and Lily Prigioniero did a great job, and special thanks go to Brian Burns who was our "Leader" for five fun weeks that we will never forget. Without him we wouldn't have had the best Class Night Marshall will ever have.

A) Whistler's Sisters dance to the music. B) Rochelle Collins and John Trapp go back a few years. C) Cathy Maresh alias "Foxy Roxy" introduces herself in "Fine Girls in a Line." D. Dick Smith and Lily Prigioniero as Tarzan and Jane. E. Liz Hamaker leads her group in a rousing chorus of "Monster Mash." F) The Class of '76.

T.G.I.O.!

Once again Graduation day proved to be one of the hottest days of the year. Guest Speaker for Commencement was Dr. Ellwood A. Voller, President of Spring Arbor College. His topic concerned the "Possibilities Unlimited" after graduation.

Phil Filbrandt represented the class of '76 speaking on the "Mixed Emotions" of both graduates and parents. Phil did a great job of mixing humor and nostalgia keeping the audience interested and laughing.

To end the Ceremony, Class President Brett Grable proudly presented to the audience the graduating class of 1976 as they switched their tassels from the right to the left signifying their Graduation.

* Thank God It's Over!

SENIORS COME TOGETHER

After Baccalaureate the Seniors boarded three buses that took us to Nottke's for an evening of bowling, pool, pinball, eating and dancing to the sounds of "Hot Lucy." The buses took us home again at 3:30 and most of us left for a hot, but fun day at Lake Michigan.

Also this year, as in the past, parents of the seniors put on a party for the graduates at the Country Club after Commencement. Everyone "got down to the sounds" of Windjammer in between eating and talking with friends. A great time was enjoyed by all and we were all sad to see the evening end.

Organizations

STUDENT GOV'T STU DENT GOV 'TSTUDEN

The past year saw the introduction of Student government as a full-fledged class at MHS. Student government representatives met one hour a day for credit through the social studies curriculum.

Several projects were developed by the student representatives. Mark Makin headed the blood drive, and Kathy Patterson was in charge of the Muscular Dystrophy campaign.

Student government representatives Jane Brink, Lily Prigioniero and Kevin Knauer surpassed their United Fund goal by 33%. The UF goal was $600, but the students managed to collect $800 for the local United Fund Agencies.

Other Student Gov't activities included planning of the Homecoming events, such as the parade, dance and contests, and introduction of Exchange day.

On the Exchange Day, student gov't people of nearby high schools visited Marshall High, while Marshall's student leaders traveled to their schools. A couple of the schools visited by MHS reps. included Pennfield, and Harper Creek.

USHERS CLUB

This year the Usher Club once again assisted at the high school plays and concerts, as well as at community functions such as the Civic plays and the Marshall Historical Home Tour. The club continues to serve the school and community with a display of charm and grace.

(A) President Kathy Iobe and member Sheila Burlingame find time for some fun while working on group activities. (B) The 1975-76 Usher Club. (C) Laura Hall, Laura Bills, Kim Craig, Amy Heckman, Sandy Day, Cheryl Hamilton, and Tammy Hicks take a break from ushering during the Historical Home Tour.

'M' CLUB MEMBERS IN '76'

Always ready

The 'M' Club is an organization that anyone who has earned a varsity letter in any sport may join. The 'M' Club does many things throughout the year. In the fall, the 'M' Club helps out at the frosh, JV and varsity football games. They do such things as park cars, sell programs and run the chains. During the winter, they are responsible for the concession stand and selling programs at the basketball games. In the spring, 'M' Club sponsors their biggest project of the year the annual Sports Festival. They also help out where needed at the track meets and baseball games. To wind up the year, the 'M' Club takes a trip to Cedar Point for fun and excitement.

A) M-club members Jim Sobel, Rick Seekmon take a break from checking cars into the parking lot during the Sports Festival. B) M-club members Mike Schmidt was gatekeeper at the track and field entrance.

C) Chris Zull withstands the windy day as she gives her support at a Redskin track meet. D) Terri Hammond manages a smile after a hectic day tending the refreshment stand. E) Jim Sobel stamps Julie Taylor as she enters the gate to the Festival. F) Ben Armstrong puts up with M-club members at a general meeting.

LE CERCLE FRANÇAIS

This year the French Club was involved in several activities. The club sponsored one dance and co-sponsored another with the Latin Club. A candy sale was held and daisies were sold in honor of May Day. Many French Club students participated in these activities which were under the direction of Mrs. Brown.

A) Laura Hall says to an underclassman, "What do you expect for a nickel?" And Gloria Potter watches. B) Mrs. Brown sneers at a poor Italian joke.

A touch of Latin

Latin Club is an organization with varied objectives. One of the objectives is to provide a special, familiar place for all the club's varied membership and to extend the friendships which begin in Latin classes. In addition, Latin Club strives to complete a service project for the community or for the world each year. Finally, the club notes and simulates some aspects of the Roman culture. Among the club's activities are the planning of dances, the Pumpkin Bake Sale, candy cane sales, Christmas card delivery, and the Valentine flower sale. Big events of the year are: the Great Give-away, an event in which students deliver free spring plants, and the Slave Sale. Perhaps these contributions create a sense of belonging in the club.

GAA ALL THE WAY

This year the Girls Athletic Association has completed many money making projects and fun activities. Because of such projects as the car wash and bake sales, and such activities as the intramural basketball, football, and volleyball teams the club has expanded. Other activities include the GAA Formal, the overnight stay-in-the-gym, and the hat and scarf sale. The added interest generated by the girls produced a successful year for GAA with over 50 active members.

A) Julie Watson, Gail Budrow, Sandy Davis, and Sandy Day take time out from their tight schedule at the GAA overnight stay-in-the-gym for a refreshing drink. G) Kathy Maddux 'takes five' at GAA overnight stay-in-the-gym.

AMONG TOP TWO IN STATE

2F's & an A

The Marshall FFA consists of 115 members making it one of the largest organizations at MHS.

Several members have distinguished themselves by receiving awards at State and National FFA Conventions.

Warren Owens received the American Farmer Degree at Kansas City. Doug Leach and Phil Damon received the State FFA Degree at MSU. Members also participated in leadership and judging contests at district, regional, and state levels.

The club made money for its many activities by selling citrus fruit and pecans. A half a semi-load of fruit was sold and 840 pounds of pecans.

Chapter members have developed a program called "Food for America" which tells the story of American Agriculture.

This program was developed for and presented to third and fourth grades. A slide series, coloring book and demonstration are a part of the presentations.

Marshall's FFA Chapter is ranked as one of the top two in the State of Michigan. We received one of the top two awards at Kansas City for Michigan.

ON THE AIR

MHS Amateur Radio Club is operating their station under the call letters WB8, QQU.

The club membership while small in numbers is high in quality. John Strough is the trustee and Earl Goodrich, a senior, is the president. Dave Querbach, also a senior holds the highest student license. He has an advanced license.

This spring they acquired a new communication antenna which is located in the cafeteria area.

The club meets on Thursday evenings and is always interested in new members.

Not really negative, but a very positive influence at MHS is the Photo Club under the direction of Mr. John Malinoiski were active throughout the year and sold calculators and took pictures at the formal dances. With profits from those projects the club was able to purchase a Canon F-1 with motor drive.

Outstanding individual achievements in the club included Randy Reed's first place award at the Youth talent fair and Kim Tranter's third place in the same competition.

The Photo Club's basic goal is to promote photography and to provide equipment for those interested in the field of photography.

MHS ACHIEVERS

The National Honor Society is based on four principles: Scholarship, Character, Leadership and Contribution to the School. Juniors must have a 3.5 academic average to be selected, and Seniors a 3.0 average. Ten percent of the seniors may be selected in their junior and senior years. Five percent of the juniors may be selected.

The following members of the class

clubbers take to the green

The Redskin golfers started the 1975 campaign rated second or third in the Twin Valley. However the big 'Skins had different ideas, and went on to capture the conference championship for the second year in a row.

The 'Skins were 15-5 overall which included a lofty 12-0 mark in the Twin Valley. They also tied for 4th place in their own rugged Redskin Invitational which boasted the eventual class A champion.

The 'Skins finished sixth out of 21 teams at their regional and thereby failed to qualify for the state finals. However, the season was a tremendous success and the golfers are very proud of their accomplishments.

The golf team is losing two very fine seniors, John Morse and Dan Libbrecht, but the winning traditions they leave behind will be carried on by the returning members of the team.

Senior, Dan Libbrecht gazes up after driving his second shot onto the green.

Harrier's run to regional

Dave Jenks, Bill LaValley and Greg Pehrson stride out against Hastings as they cross the finish line.

Our 1975 cross country team had a great season. We compiled a 9-2 record, placing third at the rugged Olivet Invitational, second at the Sturgis Invitational, and we also finished second in our Twin Valley. The high point of our year was placing first at our regionals which qualified us for the state meet. At state, we finished among the top 10 schools with Dick Smith placing eleventh. It was the first time in the history of cross country at MHS, that a team competed at the state level.

Marshall harrier, Dick Smith trims 17 seconds off his former record in the three mile run with a time of 15:08.

NETTERS TAKE REGIONAL, ZULL AND WALSH GO TO STATE

The girls tennis team had nearly a perfect season, we finished third in the Twin Valley and took first in the Regionals. Although the team had its serious side, there was also a funny side to the close knit group. At Hastings a couple of girls had a problem finding the locker room and were almost inducted into the Hasting football team. The only loss came when we played Sturgis. Each of the girls put forth a great effort, but we lost 5-2. The team won the Regional with Chris Zull and Karen Walsh taking first. This sent them on to the state meet where they lost to the eventual state champions. The team will be losing four top players but hopefully they will find girls to take their places.

MARSHALL REDSKINS

The Redskins finished with a 2-7 record this year beating Mason and Hastings - the first and last games of the schedule. In between Marshall was beaten soundly by Hillsdale and Sturgis, but the other five games were decided by only 18 points. Marshall lost to Pennfield by 2 points, Harper Creek by 6, Coldwater by 6 in an overtime, Jackson County Western by 3 points and Albion by a single point.

Individual members of the Redskin team had a particularly outstanding season. Seniors, Craig LaFountain and Mark Woods were named to the All Conference football team, while junior Alton Laupp was selected as the premier punter of the conference.

"So with a little extra work, we feel Marshall will be back on the football map in the very near future."

Coach Smouse shouts a few words of encouragement from the sideline.

Jv's learn "pride of winning"

The JV football team had a strong desire to win and a never quit attitude which helped them in their effort to defeat their opponents. Although small and lacking depth, the team had a 7-1 record. "We overpowered our opponents averaging over 300 yds. total offense per game. In points we scored 202 points and gave up just 88.

The J.V. have grasped the idea of 'Pride of Winning.' They came from behind to win several games. They did lose against Coldwater, but they never lost their pride," said Coach Cronk. Coach Cronk felt that this was a very important characteristic displayed by the team and is sure it will carry on in the Marshall football program in years to come.

froskruff 'n' tuff

We started practice early in the hot summer month of August. For nearly three weeks before the beginning of the school year, we spent two practices a day running and lifting weights.

Coach Armstrong told us this training would build us into a good "hard-hitting" football team. He was right.

The first weeks of practice were the hardest, but we all hung in there and tried our best to learn the new plays. Our first game with Hillsdale ended in a 0-0 tie, but we went on to beat Pennifield and Harper Creek, before suffering our only loss at the hands of Sturgis.

The turning point of the season between making it a winning season and a losing season was the Coldwater game which we won 19-14. Our offense finally began to jell which it had not been able to do previously.

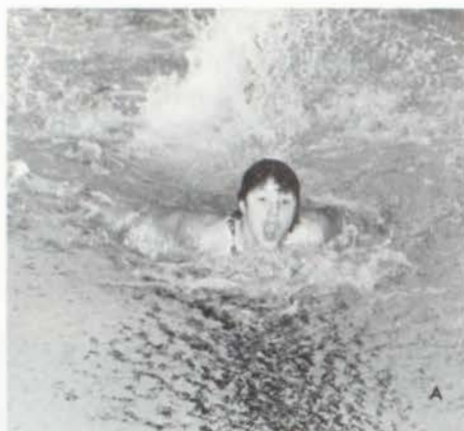

The victory over Coldwater made our record 3-1-1 and we went on to win the final two games.

(A) Jim Kouts kicks off to the opposing team. (B) As time runs out, Steve Rivard signals for a time out.

swim OR sink?

The 1975 girls swimming team lead by tri-captains Jill Russell, Stacy Burris, and Kim Esbaugh, had a terrific year. The girls ended this season with 8 victories and 1 loss coming at the hands of class "A" swimming power, Battle Creek Lakeview. During the year, the girls broke all records except in diving. The 1975 year was also a milestone in marshall swimming; for the first time a swimmer lettered four years in swimming. This swimmer was Jill Russell. Our four other seniors include Stacy Burris, Jenny Glanis, Carol Perry, and Robbie Boynton. At the state meet in Ann Arbor all of Michigan's women swimmers raced for state honors in 11 events. Marshall sent a medley relay for the first time in its swimming history. Along with several individual qualifiers, Jill Russell took third in breast stroke at the state meet with the time of 1:12.3.

swimmers stroke to state

The 1975-76 swimming team has had the best year in Marshall's swimming history. The team had a 10-4 win-loss record that included a 90-81 victory over class "B" state power Grand Rapids Northview. The team also recorded two first place finishes at the Albion and Middleville Relays, but the topper was an eleventh place finish at the class "B" state meet.

The team was led by a strong group of eight seniors which included our tri-captains Scott Tribby, Jerry Augustine and Stu Etherton. Also swimming for their last year with the Redskins were Doug Bedford, Monte Klein, John Trapp, Tony Lembke and Phil Glotfelty. Marshall totaled their points at the state meet by recording a fifth place in the 200 medley relay, an eleventh place diving finish, a seventh place finish in the 100 backstroke and a ninth in the 100 breaststroke.

The wrestling team compiled a 11-5 dual meet record, which included the biggest win in the school's 9 year program. This big win was the 27-26 victory over Sturgis. In the Sturgis meet, things looked dim after the first 4 matches with Marshall down 19-0. Slowly, we closed the gap. Marshall was down 26-15 going into the last 2 matches which meant that we needed 2 pins in order to pull off the biggest upset of the season. Mike Schmidt pinned his opponent in :37 seconds to set up the last match. The crowd was going wild as Mark Woods put the Sturgis Heavyweight on his back, and when the referee slapped the mat, the team stormed on the mat to congratulate Mark who had put the finishing touches on a stunning upset of the Sturgis Trojans. This is the only loss Sturgis has had in the past 3 years. Marshall had a 5-1 league mark and ended up in second place in the Twin Valley, which was the highest finish in the school's history. Three wrestlers qualified out of the district to go to the regionals where Mark Woods became a regional champion. Mark was also a Twin Valley Champion as was Steve Schroder. The JV record was 5-4-1. They had quite a few handicaps to overcome. One of which was a late start in the season and another was the lack of experience. Coach Elyea said that "Determination and enthusiasm was evident throughout the year - by all members."

New System For

This year Marshall High School tried something different with cheerleading. They held two tryouts, one for fall and one for winter sports. This was done to prevent conflicts with girls sports, also to give more girls a chance to make cheerleading. This year's sponsors were Blanche Fraser and Diane Gorsuch. Another change was initiated when freshmen and sophomores were allowed on the varsity squad.

Awards...Awards

MHS Sports awards were given at three different banquets during the past year. Awards were given in most valuable and most improved player categories. Fall sports awards went to Karen Walsh, most valuable tennis player; Teri Barlund, most valuable girls basketball player and Mark Woods, most valuable football player. At the winter awards banquet Cathy Maresh received most valuable volleyball player award while Craig Lafountain received the MVP award for basketball and Doug Bedford captured the outstanding swimming award. An outdoor steak fry highlighted the spring banquet which saw MVP awards go to Chris Zull, girls golf, and Greg Lasky, baseball. The most coveted sports award of all was not given at the banquets but was announced at Class Night held on June 4. Craig Lafountain received the Bill Holt award which is given to the most outstanding athlete during the senior year.

Running to the Ribbon

Marshall's girls track team completed a fine season with a 6-2 mark overall. In the Twin Valley Conference, the girl tracksters were 5-1. Their TV mark was good enough to tie them for third place in the league. During the Twin Valley meet, Junior Kim Esbaugh ran to a first place in the low hurdles and leaped to a fifth place finish in the long jump. Christy Klein sprinted to a silver medal with her second place finish in the 100 yd. dash. She also took third in the 220 yard dash. Also at the TV meet the 440 yard relay team placed second, and Melody Boehmer tossed the shot far enough to take fifth place honors. At the end of the season three girls were eligible for the state meet. Kim Esbaugh, low hurdles, Christy Klein, 100 yard dash, and Cheryl Zblewski in the mile run.

Coach Dick Hamilton's Varsity Basketball Team had one of the most successful seasons in the school's history. The team finished with a 19-5 overall record and a 11-1 record in the Twin Valley. The Redskins won the Twin Valley and District championships before losing in the regional championship game to Tecumseh. During the course of the season the following records were tied or broken. (1) Most win in a season - 19. (2) Field goal percentage - 49%. (3) Free throw percentage - 65.5%.

One of the strengths of the team was their overall balance, as five players scored over 200 points; Craig LaFountain 421 pts., Greg Lasky 313 pts., Dave Meinert 286 pts., Don Dickerson 273 pts., and Larry Bates 227 pts. Individual records were set by Craig LaFountain (career points 1022; career rebounds, 609; and season points, 421) and Don Dickerson (season field goal percentage 55.7%).

LaFountain and Lasky were also selected to the first team All-Conference, while Dickerson was named on the second team. Junior Dave Meinert was chosen for the honorable mention team.

JV give their best effort

After missing the first regularly scheduled games of the season, the JV program got underway. They compiled 10 wins and 6 losses which included a 7-4 record in the Twin Valley.

The most important accomplishment of the season was the development of a competitive and winning attitude, which is a necessity for varsity play in the coming year. According to Coach Gorsuch their winning record was a direct result of their hard work at practices and a team philosophy of "giving your best" at all times.

frosk improve, take tourney

The freshman season was one of improvement. Improvement as a team and as individuals. For many members of our team it was a season of gaining experience and confidence, because they had not played before on an interscholastic team.

After the start of our season was delayed, we lost our first six games. With a lot of hard work and improvement our frosh team won four of our last five ball games.

The climax of the freshman season came when we defeated Pennfield to win the Harper Creek freshman tournament. The team effort shown in the tournament typified the effort our team put forth all season.

Bump! Set! Spike!

Bump! Set! Spike! and that was the name of the game as the 1975 MHS volleyball team compiled a season record of 10-9. The team finished fifth in the Twin Valley Conference and played in the quarter finals of the regionals. According to Coach Sally Belson, the girls who played on the team were an exceptional group. They laughed, worked, sang, and cried together. "We will be looking forward to next year striving for more communication between ourselves, and an improved season record, and growth as a team and as individuals," said Coach Belson.

M-CLUB SPONSORS SPORT FESTIVAL

Take a Trophy

Many trophies were awarded to participants at Marshall High School's 16th annual Sports Festival which was held Saturday, May 1, with 18 teams from across the state competing in tennis, baseball and track. Eight schools participated in the tennis tournament, each entering one singles player and one doubles team. Marshall sophomore Steve Heidenreich played exceedingly well, placing second in singles play. A twelve team field, led by defending champion Greenville took part in the biggest track relays ever held during the Sports Festival. Marshall finished second with 60 points after Lansing Waverly was stripped of 40 points because of a technical violation. The Redskins won three events, long jump, 440 relay and the sprint medley and placed among the top five in three others. In baseball, the teams played a four game tournament. In the opening game Gerry Hice pitched Marshall to a 3-2 victory over Napoleon, which gave them a spot in the championship game. Portage Central won the baseball title by taking Marshall in a bizarre championship game, 15-4. The proceeds of the festival will be placed in a fund for the construction of a new football stadium.

On your mark...

Marshall Redskins Varsity Track team was undefeated in the Twin Valley conference in dual meets; however they had to settle for second best in the T.V. meet as they lost to Sturgis by two very slim points. Coach Barney Roy's track and field aces did manage a fine overall season with 9 wins against only 2 losses in their dual meets. The tracksters took second at the Albion Relays, the Marshall Sports Festivals and the Holt Invationals. At the regional the team finished in fifth place. Craig Lafountain, Dick Smith, Mike Boehmer and Greg Lasky set new school records in their events.

Lafountain was impressive all season in the low and high hurdles. At the state meet Craig placed third in both events while setting school records of 14.4 seconds in the high hurdles and 19.4 seconds in the 180 yd. low hurdles. Dick Smith set a new conference record in the mile with a time of 4:27.2. Mike Boehmer threw the discus to a record 153'7". This was the first year discus throw event. Greg Lasky was outstanding all year in the high jump. He set a school record of 6'4" at the Twin Valley meet.

Cagers break records

(A) Tammy Heidenreich takes a jump shot while trapped in the middle of the Albion defenders.

Several team records were broken during the 1975 season. These records were points per game, most rebounds in a game and season and most assists in a game and season. Individual records included most assists in a single game (8) and most in a season (50) both held by Terri Barlund. A record for most field goals (40) in a season set by Sue Zblewski and finally best freethrow percentage was turned in by Pam Lasky. Sickness and injury slowed the Redskins at mid-season but the team "put it all together" with a strong finish winning four of their last five games giving them a 6-9 record. Individual honors went to Terri Barlund, Most Valuable Player who was also named to second all league team. Maureen Wayward received honorable mention. Dorothy Smith received Most Improved Player award.

young skins had high hopes but...

Marshall's JV basketball team started the season on a winning note. It travelled to Jackson County Western and came back with a 23-16 victory. We all had high hopes for the season. But fate was not, kind to the J.V. for out of the next 9 games the JVs won only one beating Hillsdale by a score of 32-6. We ended the season with 5-15 overall record and a 3-9 Twin Valley record. It took quite a long while for the girls to realize that the basketball backboard is there for a reason. We also had a rough time developing team work. Team work is the name of the game. We all have high hopes for next season. We learned a lot this year.

(B) Melody Boehmer scores an easy lay-up against Albion. (C) After being fouled Rena Lautzenheiser shoots a freethrow.

Netters get right bounce

And the right bounce is all the varsity tennis team needed as they powered their way into third place in the Twin Valley Conference, with a 7-4 season record. The JV team also made a good showing with a fine 4-1 season mark. Sophomore Steve Heidenreich led the varsity racqueteers with an 18-6 individual performance. He placed first in the Battle Creek Central Tournament, took second in the Marshall Sports Festival and the Twin Valley Tournament and tied for third in the regional. John Sullivan and Phil Filabrandt also made fine showings at the MHS Sports Festival. In the Twin Valley the varsity netters placed fourth in dual meets and third in tournament play. They also took a third place at the B.C. Central Tournament and fourth at the regionals.

A) Senior Phil Filbrandt follows through on his backhand to win the game. B) Marshall doubles player Tony Lembke watches the ball as he serves up another ace. C) Redskin first singles player Steve Heidenreich concentrates as he begins to serve the ball to an opponent.

MHS's varsity baseballers recorded a somewhat disappointing season mark of 6-18. In Twin Valley conference play the team managed a 3-9 record and sixth place in the league, obviously, a rebuilding year for the Redskins, the team had only one returning letterman in senior Greg Lasky. Lasky pitched the team to all three of the Twin Valley victories. He also played third base and outfield for the skins. New Coach Jim Bourbeau was forced to rely on a majority of underclassmen on the diamond. The starting nine included five sophomores, Gabby Rivard, Greg Weatherly, Mike Bills, Russ Smaston and Bob Phillips; three juniors, Chuck Sayers, Ralph Knauss, and Gerry Hice, and Lasky the only senior. "This year was a learning experience for both me and the team," said coach Bourbeau. "With a team dominated by underclassmen the future looks good," he added.

With two strikes on the batter Redskin pitcher Gerry Hice attempts to get the third strike.

Fore!

The 1976 girls golf team did very well this year as they finished with a 17-1 season. However instead of taking a first alone as they did last year they had to share the Twin Valley title with Sturgis. The team placed third in the regionals which made it possible to go on to the state meet where they finished there too. Marshall had four girls recognized as Twin Valley honors, Chris Zull was named first man, Ellen Barnes second man, Wendee Karcher, Teresa Vandenheed were both named honorable mention.

Student Life

Davis tells all

The 1976 year started off on a bright 'n' early September 5. The first thing anyone heard was Mr. Ray Davis, Assistant Principal, laying down the rules 'n' regulations. Ben Armstrong (below) voted most popular teacher for 2 years in a row listened intently to what Mr. Davis had to say. Although the student body (bottom), may still have summer fun on their minds, they were shocked into awareness at the registration assembly.

cuttin' the rug ...

While the band takes five the girls above seem to be enjoying themselves. As Deb Dostal jives to the music, John Trapp looks a little out of the scene. Joe Amaro looks on as Jack Kipp persuades the 'Duke' (Alias Doug Kenworthy) to get out and dance.

Homecoming with a touch of nostalgia

Homecoming week got rolling on Monday, October 13th with a roller skating contest, a tricycle race, a wagon pull, an apple on a string eating contest, egg throwing, and a pogo stick contest. Tuesday night was set aside solely for working on floats. Throughout the school on Wednesday, many students dressed up in outfits which reflected the nostalgic 50s. Thursday was 'mourning day' for the Coldwater Cardinals and that night was set aside for the traditional VW push. Friday was red and black dress-up day. Also on Friday was a two hour pep assembly consisting of many activities ranging from a peanut nose push to skits performed by teachers. Friday night the annual Homecoming parade proceeded through town and on to the athletic field for the football game leading the parade was the Homecoming Queen and court and the Grand Marshall, Ivan Fleser and his wife Betty.

Show'em how

(A) A group of Seniors show their spirit by chanting 'we're number one.' (B) Diane Wydendorf, Cheryl Semon and Ellen Barnes are all business as they add finishing touches to their float. (C) Ruthann Samson gives a victory smile as she is pulled across the finish line in the wagon pull contest. (D) Jeff Minniear and Joy Tew get a kick out of watching the apple eating contest at the fairgrounds. (E) Greg Bush and Pam Robinson 'chow down' hoping for a victory.

Throughout Homecoming week all the classes were even in the class standings, but Friday the Juniors pulled ahead winning many of the contests in the pep assembly. For the class of '77' Jean Kalisz and Junior Arizmendi took first place in the wheel barrow contest. Next Dan Kipp and Sue Boyd took a quick first in the jump rope competition. Terri Holmes also aided the Juniors win with a second place in the hula hoop contest.

During the week Kim Esbaugh and Dave Weinert had taken first in the wagon pull race held at the fairgrounds. And to top it all off the Juniors won the class competition with an overwhelming display of spirit during Friday's pep assembly.

At an all school assembly in the MHS gym the 1975 Homecoming Queen and court were announced by Brett Grable, Student Government president.

Tears and cheers filled the gymnasium as Kelly Kendall and Pat Peek were called from the stands to take their place as the freshman attendant and escort. The sophomores chose Chris Boyd as their attendant and Tim Sykora as her escort. Junior attendant was Christa Clifton. Christa was escorted by Jim Bramble, Deb Chrispyn was selected as the senior attendant and Bill LaValley joined her as the senior escort. Each attendant was presented with red roses by their escorts and a hush fell throughout the gymnasium as the time neared for the announcement of the 1975 Homecoming Queen and her escort.

"The 1975 Homecoming Queen," echoed Brett Grable, "is Alicia Heidenreich." The gymnasium rang with cheers and applause, heads turned to all corners of the Redskin gym but Queen Alicia was no where to be seen. Her escort Dick Smith accepted her roses and crown and place them on her chair. As to the 1975 Homecoming Queen, she was at Harper Creek with the girl's tennis team, aiding their win in the regional.

(B) Escort Jim Bramble and Attendant Christa Clifton represented the Junior class.

Here comes the queen?

(D) Queen Alicia Heidenreich and her Escort Dick Smith. (E) Escort Bill LaValley and Senior Attendant Deb Crispyn. (F) Escort Dick Smith, Queen Alicia Heidenreich, Attendant Deb Crispyn, and Escort Bill LaValley represent the Senior Class.

(A) Jeff Harinck has a 'hair raising' experience. (B) Rob Beattie and Mark Makin demonstrate how energy can be used in an assembly. (C) The band Free Fare, entertains the student body in an assembly. (D) Bill Barroso, Steve Neitzka and Steve Boughton amuse each other at a class assembly. (E) Jeff Face and Jim Bredice add to the pep band with their drum talent.

Great Gatherings

Assemblies are a part of the entertainment and cultural activities which occur outside the classroom at MHS. This year MHSers attended many different assemblies ranging from the educational, like the Consumer Power presentation, to the light entertainment of 'Free Fare.' Besides the professional programs the student body was also entertained at many pep assemblies.

A night on treasure island

The 1976 GAA Formal was centered around the theme, 'Treasure Island.' The cafeteria was made to look like an island paradise with palm trees and window murals making up most of the decorations. Treasure chests, pirates and a grass hut were also part of the decorations. The formal was held on March 13th from 8:00 p. m. to 11:00 p. m. with music provided by 'Infinity.' Approximately seventy-five couples attended this dance.

A) Surprised, Matt Robison tucks his best actors award under his jacket in a typical dramatic manner. B) Cindy Sinclair and Cathy Albrecht happily accept their outstanding newspaper award. C) Lori Jasenas admires her GAA award. D) Outstanding debater, Rick Uselton makes his way through the crowd to accept his award. E) Judy Dobbins, Cathy Maresh and Lauri Bills all received top honors in GAA.

Tons of Trophies

Awards Day, 1976 . . . A general assembly was held for the annual Student Awards Day sponsored by the MHS student government. Teachers were asked to select outstanding students from their areas, while students were given an opportunity to vote on teachers in several special categories.

Some awards earned by the students included: 'Outstanding English Student' Laura Hall; 'Outstanding Yearbook Staff Member,' Karen Walsh and 'Outstanding Art Student,' Annette Bennett.

Teachers awards included Mr. Richard Kelly, 'Most Dedicated' and Mr. Ben Armstrong, 'Outstanding Teacher of the Year.'

Probably the most dramatic moment of the assembly came when Ms. Susie Schnaitman, art teacher and junior class sponsor, was given a standing ovation by the student body. Ms. Schnaitman will be leaving Marshall High School following the closing of school this year.

An all night affair

The theme of the J-Hop for 1976 was "Odyssey Under the Sea." Many hours of hard work were spent on the decorations. This year the J-Hop was an all night affair. Dinner was served at 7:30 p.m. The dance followed this from 9:00 p.m.-12:00. Students were then given a choice of seeing the movie "American Graffiti" or going bowling. A breakfast concluded the J-Hop from 2:30 a.m.-3:30 a.m. Many of the students went to Lake Michigan the next day to end a very exciting weekend.

ACTORS PERFORM "HARVEY,"

A Song For MHS”

A) Lori Beattie and Jill Betterton express themselves with their hands. B) Debbie Ayotte tries to figure out Lizanne Hamaker during an exercise in play practice. C) Lizanne Hamaker perfects her lines for 'Harvey.' D) John Blair assures Doug Humes that everything will turn out fine.

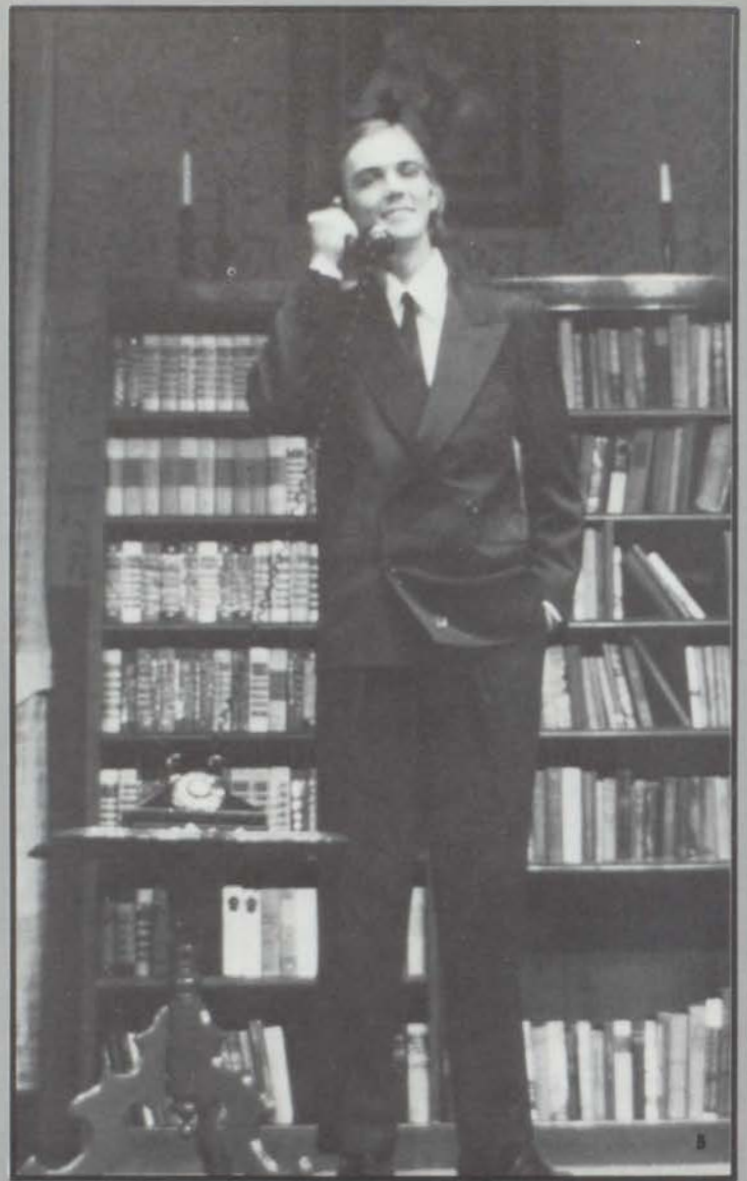

This year Mr. Bush's theatre groups have produced a variety of dramatic entertainment for MHS. The acting groups started out the year with 'Harvey' a senior sponsored play. 'Harvey' was followed by an improvisational theatre production called 'Sandcastles,' an innovative kind of theatre presentation with the audience seated on the stage.

The theatre classes ended their season with the production 'A Song For Sara' a children's theatre presentation. The acting group traveled to the Marshall elementary schools to present 'A Song For Sara,' to the elementary students.

HARVEY

On Friday, November 14, the cast of 'Harvey' presented its opening performance. Sponsored by the senior class, the play kept audiences in stitches. Elwood P. Dowd (Larry Bates) and his imaginary six-foot rabbit friend, Harvey captured the hearts of many. Elwood's sister Veta Louise (Lizanne Hamaker) and niece Myrtle May (Debbie Ayotte), kept trying to commit Elwood to Chumley's Rest, a sanitarium outside of town. Dr. Chumley (Pat Shaner) and his wife Betty (Terry Niehaus) were having marital problems, while Dr. Sanderson (Matt Robinson) and Nurse Kelly (Nannette Clatterbuck) were only involved with each other. Meanwhile Wilson (John Blair) as the attendant tried to keep things in order. Judge Omar Gaffey (Doug Humes) was trying to figure out the whole mess, while Cabbie (Mike Carlton) understood the situation and convinced everyone to see Harvey as he really was REAL!

Underclass

UNDERGLASS

JUNIORS

A) Rick Tymkew and Rick Wiltse have a familiar case of the munchies. B) Jean Kalisz and Terri Holmes are exhausted from a victorious tug on the rope. C) Jackie Strand, Karen Dale, Jean Kalisz and Shawn Weidner are hoping to be the flag football champs.

POWER TO THE JUNIORS?

Pushing a VW shouldn't be that difficult, except when only six juniors show up for the traditional Homecoming event. However, the junior power did show when they tied in overall Homecoming activities, and won the two hour pep assembly. Another way the juniors used their power was in the annual candy sales which brought them profits over $700. The juniors ended their year working hard to keep up the good reputation to a successful J-Hop with the theme "Odyssey Under the Sea."

A) Dan Kipp, Daryl Redfield, and Kemper Porter take time out from chemistry class. B) Sarah Vogelreuter buckles up for safety.

SOPHOMORES "GASH-IN"

The sophomores ran the annual concession stand during the football season. They earned over $400 selling their popcorn and candy to the football crowds. Their profits will go towards next year's J-Hop and Junior Class play. Also this year, a turf sale campaign brought the sophomores a first place in the contest, and a reward of a week off from homeroom.

FRESHMEN

FROSH PULL THRU

The freshmen's first year was very successful as they won many first places. They began their year winning the float competition and tying for first with the juniors in overall Homecoming activities. Later in the year the freshmen proved victorious winning the tug-of-war at Student Faculty Night. The freshmen have pulled through their first and have a good start in their remaining years.

A photograph of a Burger Chef restaurant sign. The sign features a chef character with a smiling face and a tall hat, positioned above a large oval containing the words "BURGER CHEF". Below this, a dark banner displays "HAMBURGERS" in white capital letters. The background shows a building and trees. Below the photograph, the words "BURGER CHEF" are printed in a large, bold, stylized font.

A black and white photograph of the National Bank of Marshall building. The building is a two-story structure with a prominent portico supported by four columns. The words "NATIONAL BANK OF MARSHALL" are visible on the facade above the entrance. The building has a gabled roof with a small circular window in the center. The photograph is framed by a decorative border.

WOW, WHAT A YEAR!

A YEAR FOR CELEBRATION: Karen and Deb surprised the gang with a Christmas party. Santa and his elf had presents for everyone.

A YEAR OF DETERMINATION: How I wanted to win that race (and I did too).

A YEAR OF FRIENDSHIP: Ruthann peers over at the camera for a friendly snapshot. Gina helps me out by holding a few things while I zero her in for a photo.

A YEAR OF GOOD TIMES: Silly Hutch, always a joker. Then there is Gail, performing her famous and nutty impression.

A YEAR OF RETREAT: Believe it or not, there is some escape from the madness. Betsy Sullivan takes time out to relax, read the paper, and escape. Most of all, A YEAR OF WORK, hard work. Day after day, week by week, month upon month, pages were developed and filed together to form a book, until one day our goal of 208 pages was achieved. Belinda Biggs, Deb Allen, and Kathy Hutchings worked on the advertising and did an excellent job in creating an original and interesting section. Kathy Maddux provided us with a beautiful full colored opening, and a color page closing. Karen Walsh covered boys sports and Pam Lasky took care of girls sports. Both of them worked independently and efficiently. (Credit goes to them, as it was a difficult section to cover.) Gina Wynne and Gail Vander Geest did a great job with the senior section. They added the senior poll to the book this year, adding to its originality. A big thanks to Norm Brubaker for putting up with us girls. Norm provided us with the cover, endsheet design, layouts, and a few special effects throughout the book. Betsy Sullivan helped us out by taking care of the organization section, along with the help of Kathy. The teachers were covered by candid this year making for an interesting section. Ruthann Samson was in charge, and she also took charge of the academic section. Rhonda Smith was our business manager. In addition to her position, Rhonda did many other extras. Terri Holmes and Sarah Vogelreuter aimed to please the students by adding an opening section to underclass. They worked hard all year, along with everyone else. Alicia Heidenreich put together the student life section. I would especially like to thank her for her devotion, and her extra time and help.

Now that the staff is introduced, I would like to say that there is no way to express our gratitude to the Dial staff members. They worked with originality and tremendous effort in putting out a book for the student body of Marshall High School. However, as they thumb through the pages, that they themselves have coordinated, I am sure they will feel that their efforts have been well rewarded.

A special thank you goes to Mr. Steve Poole. On behalf of the Dial staff I would like to say that there is no way to express how important this man was to the production of our book. If a time card was punched on his extra time alone, and his pay was $2.00 an hour, then he would have ended up a wealthy individual. I take this time to tell him how much he is appreciated, because in our day to day work sessions our gratitude does not always shine through as it should. Mr. Poole, thank you. To our Taylor yearbook representative, Mr. Bob Talsma, we also extend our gratitude. The staff appreciated your time and patience. Lastly, and most important, I would like to thank you, the student body, for your continual support for the school's yearbook. Without you there would be nothing but a book with blank pages.

Finally, as the staff gets together and looks over our completed 1976 Dial, we can turn the last page and close it to sit back and reminisce about a Year to Remember.
