

DIAL '49

THE TRIAL

MARSHAL

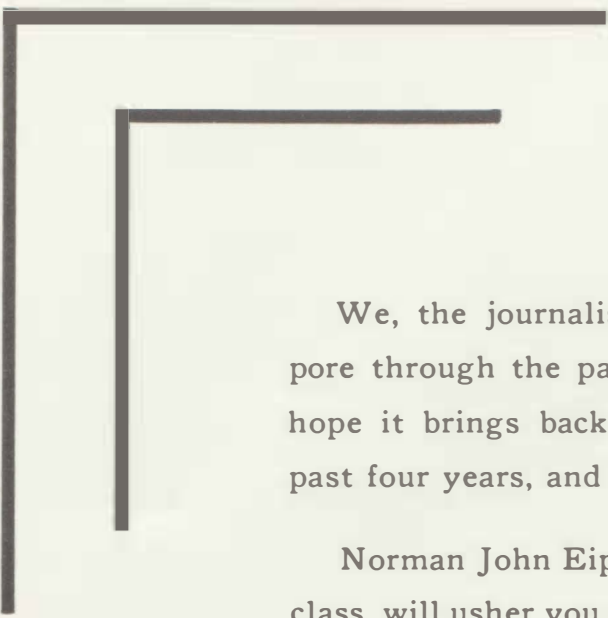

HIGH SCHOOL

To Elsworth B. More for 22 years of splendid and unselfish service on our Marshall Board of Education,

We dedicate this 1949 DIAL.

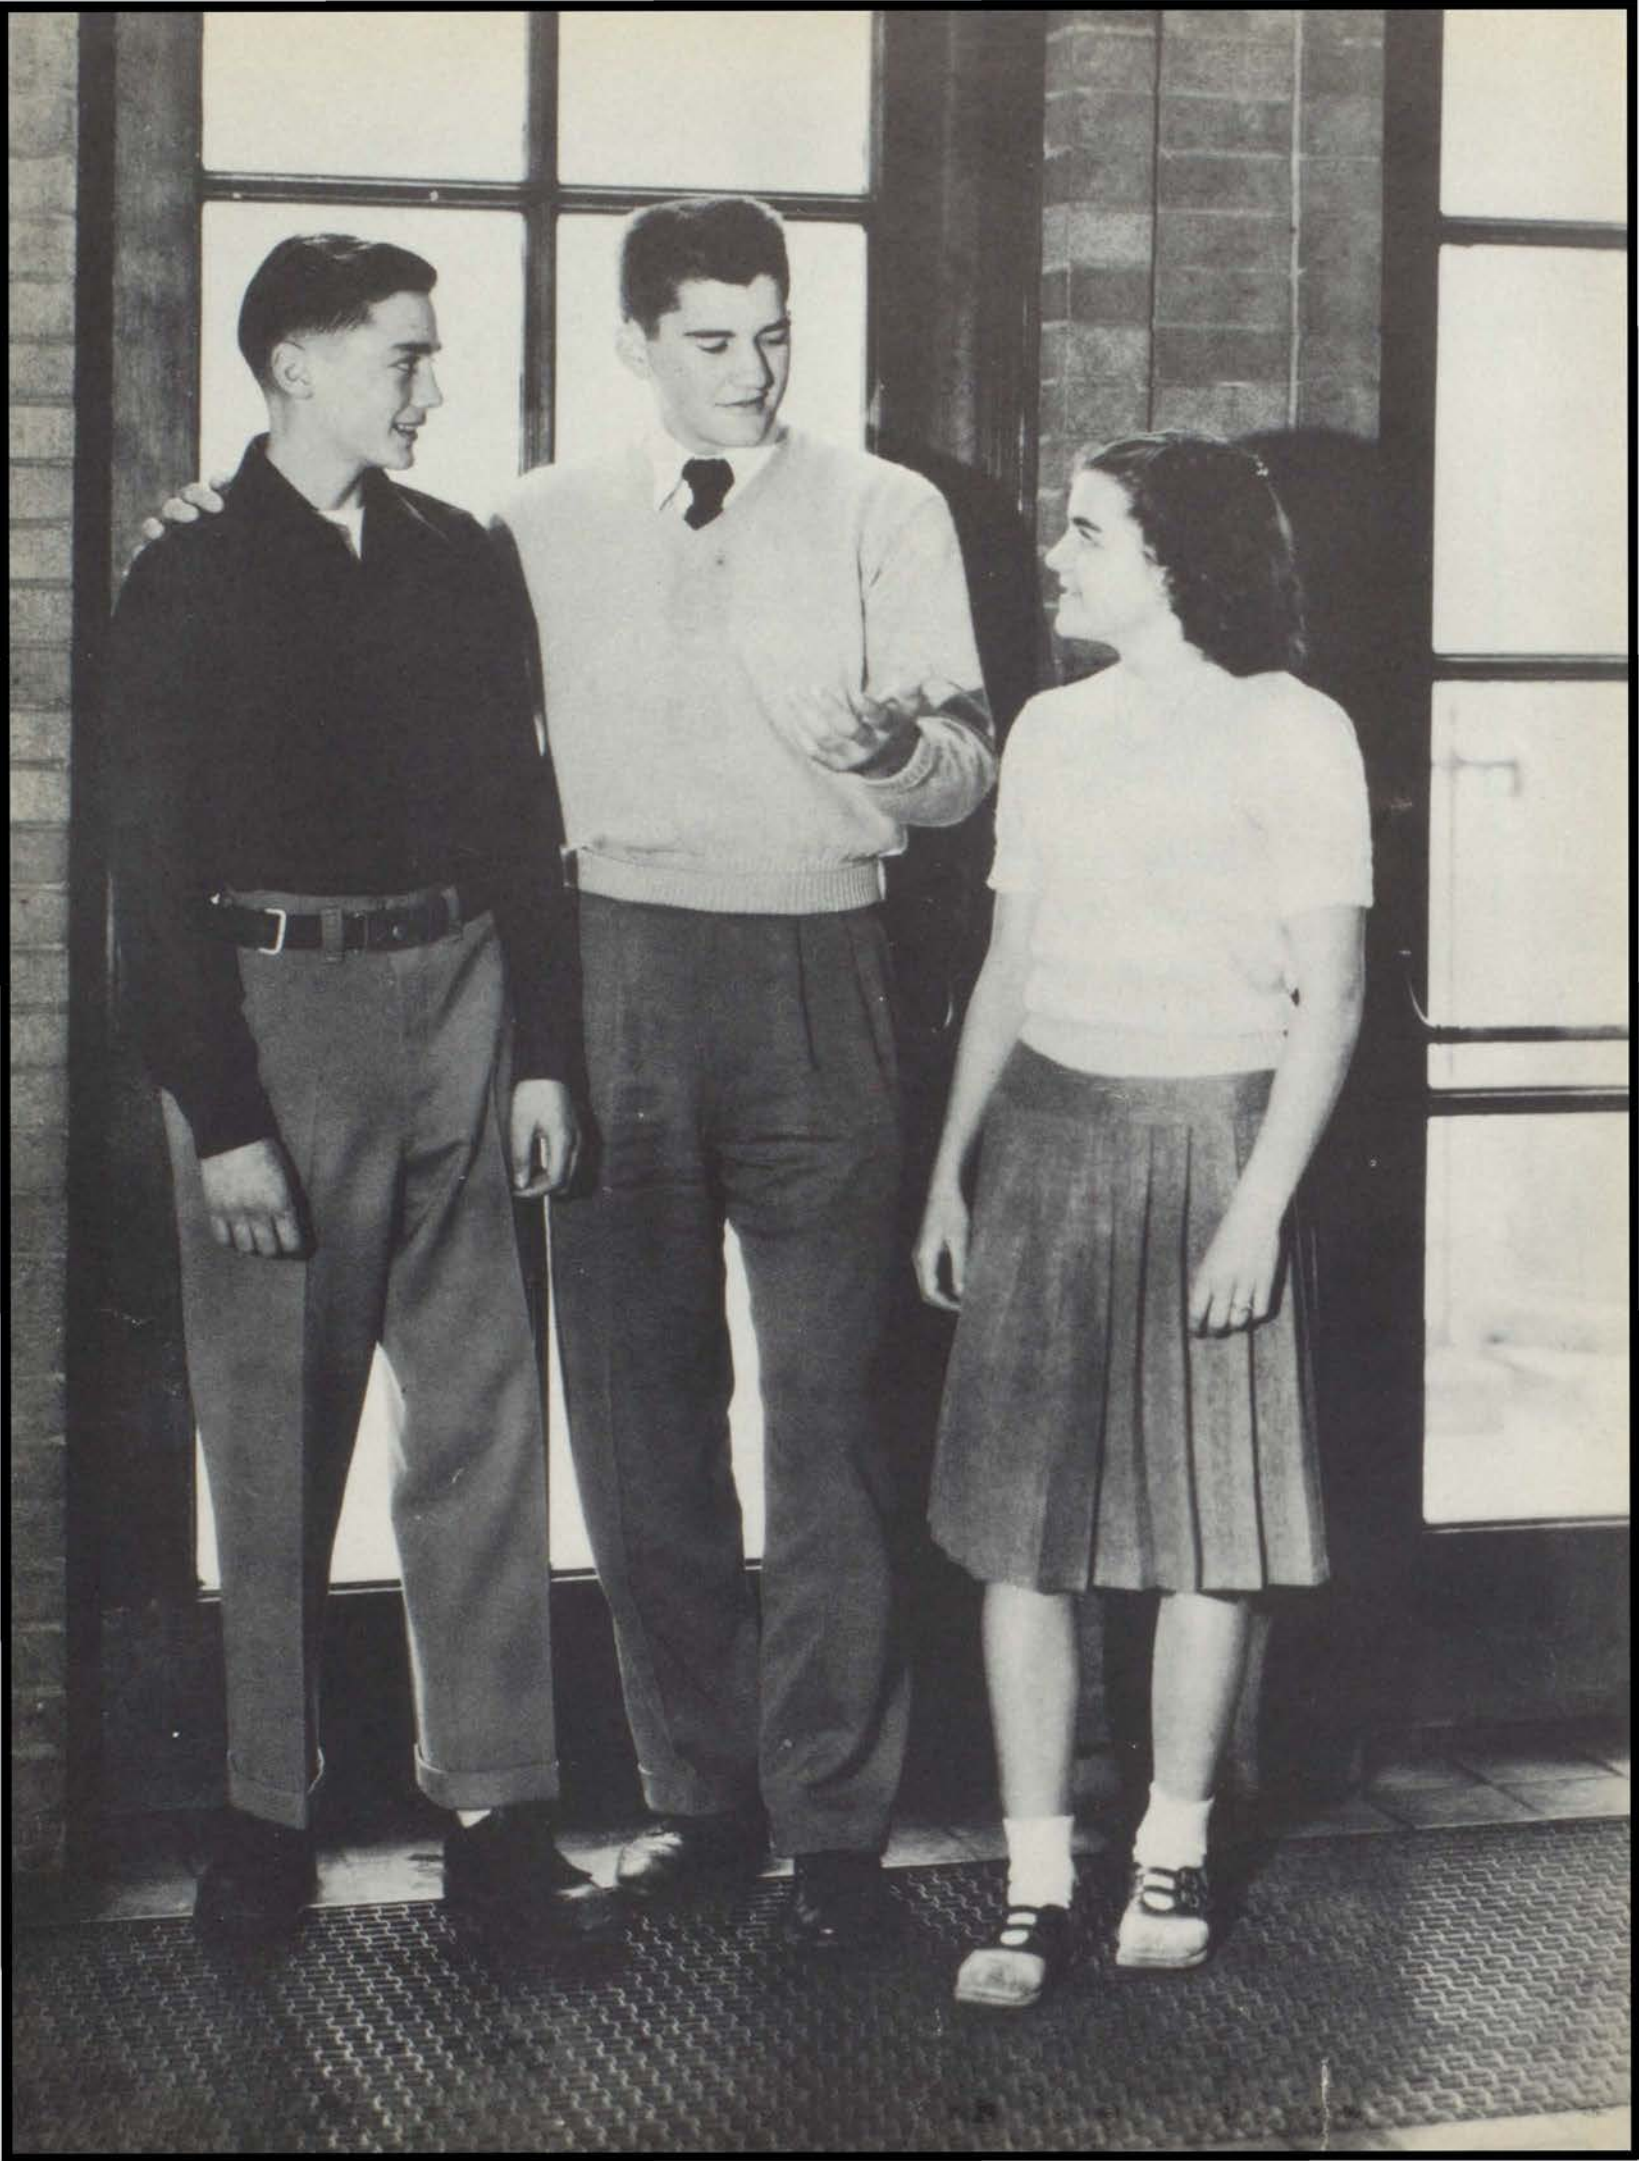

We, the journalism class of '49, invite you to pore through the pages of this year's DIAL. We hope it brings back treasured memories of these past four years, and visions of the coming ones.

Norman John Eipper, Jr., president of the senior class, will usher you through, while introducing two 1949-50 freshmen to the distinctive features of M. H. S. He will introduce these eighth graders to the teachers they will meet, classes they will have, and activities they will enjoy during the next four years.

We will maintain this idea all the way through the book, until the closing page, whereupon Norm, symbolic of the entire senior class, will leave the school in that cherished cap and gown. Turning over the responsibilities, honors, and fun of four years in M. H. S. to the Senior Class of 1950 and ensuing classes, hereupon we begin our project . . .

“Come on in, kids, and meet the powers that make our school tick. I’ll show you the four-way set-up that guards and guides M. H. S. life.”

"Meet Mr. H. W. Holmes, our superintendent, giving dictation to his secretary, Mrs. Vira Hecht."

"May I next introduce Mr. Bruce A. Gray, assistant principal and athletic director. You will report to him after being absent or tardy."

"Step in here and meet our principal, Mr. E. G. Rose, making the daily announcements over the P.A. System. This system was a gift to the school in '48, from the classes of '48, '49 and '50. It has a variety of other uses, such as broadcasting assemblies to Central School, music for our dances, and publicity skits. It has a wire recorder for the English, speech, music, and foreign language groups to use."

“These student-elected officers and their committees, with the help of Mr. Rose, make up our Student Council, the governing body and promoter of activities and assemblies.”

Seniors—Lee Whittaker and Mary Lou Carty

Juniors—Jackie Fast and George Bicknell

Sophomores—Jack Sherman and Sid Cato

Freshmen—Jack Humphrey

“Walk right in, Freshies; your class sits on the right side of the auditorium. You will be here one hour. It is nine o’clock now. Listen while Mr. Rose tells you the do’s and don’ts of your daily life this year . . . Well, this sounds like the grand opening of an eventful four years in M. H. S.”

"Each spring, Joie and Alan, the juniors give a formal dance in honor of the graduating seniors. This dance, the J-Hop, is the social event of the year."

"The junior play will give you two a chance to release that acting yen inherent in every high school boy and girl."

COACH COOPER

“Well, Joie and Alan, you are arriving at the goal you have been striving for during the last three years. You are entering the treasured year of the Seniors. Here maturity actually begins and you learn how to handle yourself in all situations found in our world today. It has been quoted, “You get out of life just what you put into it.” This is emphatically true of your Senior year. Remember this when your sponsors call for volunteers, and put up your hand. You’ll have fun and achieve the important merit of getting along with your fellow workers.”

“If you are artistically inclined, Joie and Alan, you may have Mrs. MacVean at some period from grades 7 through 12; but your senior year will definitely bring Mr. MacVean and government.”

"Thrills and chills, glamour and fun — all these are a part of performing in the Murray-directed senior play; and the girls always cherish their flowers, mementoes of one of the biggest moments in M.H.S."

"Joie and Alan, to be chosen by Mrs. Murray for journalism is an honor and responsibility; for the journalists create both the bi-weekly and the annual. Great times, combined with fascinating work, make this class a senior favorite."

"This is an honor page, Joie and Alan; it is the Hall of Fame. These five students were selected for their application to academic work, their genial friendliness, and their faithfulness in various activities. Follow their pattern and you'll be successful and popular."

WILLIAM BAIRD

JOY BELL

JOYCE HOFFMAN

WILLIAM STOUT

MARY LOU WICKMAN

GERALDINE ADAMS

Ebony-haired Gerry belonged to G.A.A. 4 yrs. and F.H.A. 1 (historian). Gerry admits to occasional sarcastic remarks. Working for Mr. Cunningham, and having only three subjects made her senior year bearable. Home-living was her favorite subject; Miss Merritt reigned as her ideal personality. A career in the world of fashion as a dress shop owner, or as a buyer, would suit Gerry fine.

ROZADA ADAMS

Rozie was a busy girl 4 yrs. with Spanish Club 2 yrs., collecting points in G.A.A. 4; F.H.A. 1; Jr. Hist. Soc. 4 (where she won 2nd prize in an essay contest her soph. yr.); singing in choir 2; and playing in band 1. She will attend Albion College, and then on to Cornell University. Rollerskating and horseback riding use up Rozada's excess energy.

JAMES ALBREGHT

F.F.A. 1 yr. was the only activity that caught shy Jim's interest. He liked art class though, and he exhibited some real artistic ability. Mr. Cunningham was his four-year favorite of teachers. Musical-fingered Jim had a way with guitar strings. His own guitar is his most prized possession. With it he helped Milt Jenks place 3rd in the big amateur show. He's glad school's over.

VANESSA ALEXANDER

Alex tarantellated in Spanish Club 1 yr., F.H.A. 1, Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, and Glee Club 1. Preparing refreshments was Alex's contribution to the J-Hop. Her big thrill came when she got her horse. Snapping her fingernails is her lamented habit; her great weakness, an inability to refuse requests. Horseback riding for fun, sewing for enterprise, and potatoes for diet suit her. Plans college at M.S.C.

NORMA ALLEN

Petite, lady-like Bea added her bit to Latin Club 2 yrs. Bea likes to ride her horse, then curl up with a good book to recuperate. Bea's sr. year was fun, with 2 study halls and her favorite subject, English. Bess Murray tops her list of teachers. Her steady the last 2 yrs. was Dick Miller, who provided her biggest thrill when he made their first date.

GLORIA JOAN ALLEN

Gloria enriched Latin Club 1 yr. (vice-consul); Usher 1; G.A.A. 4; Jr. Hist. Soc. 3; Library Club 1; the DIAL Staff; Jr. play stage crew; was Jenny in the Sr. play; created Gay Nineties costumes for the J-Hop. Bones' pet peeve anklets with pumps. Social affairs and wonderful teachers made her school life painless. Some sterling silver pieces cause stars in her eyes. Western Michigan's portals will open for winsome Gloria.

STUART AVERY

Stuart spent 1 yr. in the F.F.A. at his former school. Homer; he spent 1 yr. in basketball; his favorite course was agriculture; favorite teacher, Mrs. Murray. Stuart enjoyed this sr. year as a "big wheel." Pretty girls proved his greatest weakness. Future plans include working on a farm; but school protected him from this up to now. Slender silent Stu loves to hunt Michigan game.

WILLIAM S. BAIRD

College-bound Bill talked his way through Latin Club 2 yrs., and speech 2. Golf was a part of Bill's activities 2 yrs., as were the Jr. and sr. plays in which he played an irate father, and a college chap. Bill was bus. mgr. for this yearbook. Horseback riding, ice skating, skiing, golf. Miss Erskine, and journalism are his favorites; a Caribbean cruise, his heart's desire.

NORMA JOAN BAUER

Norm presided in Latin Club as vice-consul and scribe 2 yrs.; frolicked in G.A.A. 4; slapped grease paint on the sr. play cast; used her artistic talents on J-Hop Decor., reported for the Dial, and belonged to Jr. Hist. Soc. Her favorite recreation, loafing at Peck's, back-fired with her most embarrassing moment (asked to leave). She liked being gym asst.; her goal, a college degree.

JOY BELL

Musical-minded Joy sailed through Latin 2 yrs.; Jr. Hist. 2, band 3 1/2, orchestra 4, and was the talented art editor of this yearbook. Jake's greatest weakness is a liking for stray animals; her pet peeve, people with racial prejudice. Genteel Joy enjoys horseback riding, reading, and art work. Otto Wimpler is Joy's ideal personality. Orchestra she loved. Her future includes college at Western Mich.

THOMAS R. BICKNELL

Bick didn't care for many activities. He did try his artistic talents on the J-Hop decorations. This pie-and-ice-cream-loving boy found his first freshman day most thrilling. Bick's hobbies include sleeping, and collecting old coins. Mr. Cunningham, his favorite teacher, taught his favorite subject, history. His casting rod and the idea of making a million dollars some day are his obsessions.

NEIL BEMIS

Marrying Anita Sherer in Dec. topped off Neil's sr. yr. Neil learned farming in F.F.A. 1 yr., and thoroughly enjoyed playing basketball on its team. He hates to see girls smoke, and didn't have enough study periods to suit him. Neil likes math, chop, chocolate pie, and chewing gum. Gentlemanly Neil would like to own a store some day, but his real goal is the ministry.

BRUCE B. BIDELMAN

Throwing paint on J-Hop decorations, reciting on Caesar and his friends 2 yrs. in Latin Club, and recalling Marshall's history in Jr. Hist. Soc. 2 yrs. kept Skip out of trouble. Bruce of the brawny brain took physics and Crumrine in stride, and liked both. Albion College will greet scholarly Bruce, after his most enjoyable year as a sr., and his work at the Book Shop.

KATHERINE M. BOEHMER

Red-haired Katy was in Latin Club 2 yrs., reported for F.H.A. 2 yrs., raised the roster of Jr. Hist. Soc. by 1, and played a realistic Mrs. Garnet in the jr. play. Her downfall is "chomping" gum in classes. Those new-look skirts hold no charm for Kathie. Her hobbies: swimming, horseback riding, ice skating, and square dancing. College is her heart's desire.

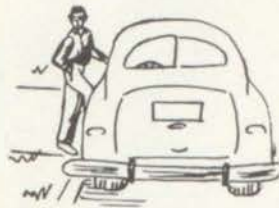

DONNA B. BLIGHT

Fair-haired Donna of the soft blue eyes will make someone a good wife, with 2 yrs. of her beloved F.H.A. (pres. and reporter) behind her. G.A.A. held her interest 1 yr., Spanish Club, 2. Writing Flushing High School Fresh. Class minutes kept Donna busy a year before she came to Marshall. She practiced skating and horseback riding techniques. Donna's sr. year was best.

GLORIA ELAINE BOWERS

Gloria of the big brown eyes slaved in Latin Club 1 yr., struggled through G.A.A. 4 yrs., was parliamentarian in F.H.A. 1, Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, and portrayed Clara in the sr. play. Blossom's most thrilling moment was her first prom; after graduation, Gloria hopes to be a model or a nurse. Acting in the sr. play and working for Mr. Gray added the crowning touches to her best year.

CARL BOYER

Quiet Bud attended Flint Northern, coming to Marshall his jr. yr. Oysters, Mr. Cunningham, and history were favorites. He added one more name to our engaged list when he gave his greatest weakness, Donna Lewis, a diamond. Smythe Printing Co. kept Bud too busy for activities. Ice skating and driving his car filled his spare hours. After graduation, he'd like to work, and travel South.

JOSEPH BRAMBLE

Explosive Joe rushed through Latin Club 1 yr., F.F.A. 3, portrayed Jasper in the sr. play, found props for the jr. play. Joe represented the F.F.A. in Kansas City, Mo. Bev's ring takes first place in his treasure box; strawberry shortcake tops his food list. Joe wants to overcome his fiery temper; New Year's Eve provided Joe with a very thrilling moment. His work heads his agenda for the future.

EVELYN BROWN

Quiet and serious Evelyn spent 2 yrs. in Spanish Club, 2 in Jr. Hist. Soc., and one in Library Club. She was on publicity for the jr. and sr. plays. She likes photography, collecting souvenirs, and eating candy. Spanish and history are her favorite studies, and Mr. Cunningham her matinee idol. Her senior year was tops; she's college-bound.

LARRY C. BRANDT

Playing janitor for the J-hop and keeping money and notes for jr. class meetings made Larry sigh with relief when his sr. yr. rolled around. Clem relaxes by hunting with his old trusty shotgun. He pursues girls in B. C., where he works at Freeman's. That third floor mob scared cautious Larry blue eyes, a butch cut, and real personality make Larry an all-round good fellow.

DON BROWNELL

Stan-Kenton-loving Don broad-jumped in track 2 yrs., and was a member of Spanish Club 2. His greatest weakness is, not too amazingly, girls! He likes all kinds of food, Cunningham, history, and basketball. Light-hearted Don had more fun his soph. year because of intramural basketball. "Basketball Don with the wicked smile" they called him in those days.

BEVERLY JEAN BURLINGAME

Blonde, blue-eyed Bev whisked through Latin 2 yrs., G.A.A. 4, F.H.A. 2, Jr. Hist. Soc. 3, speech 1, choir 1, and band 1. Working on make-up was Bev's contribution to the jr. play; she portrayed satirical Isabel in the sr. play; made programs for the J-Hop; loves cherry pie, horseback riding, going steady her senior year, and Joe's class ring. Blushing annoys Bev.

ALBERT J. BURKHARDT

Garrulous Jed served 4 yrs. in F.F.A. He was a member of the ticket com. for both the jr. and sr. plays. Driving the tractor thrilled him; being teased irks him. Animated Al hopes to live on a farm with a wife skilled at cooking tasty food. He was O.K. in his amateur show act, rendering calls for barnyard life. He treasures his pets, a cow and a hog.

CRAIG B. BUSHONG

Bush liked football, and it liked Eush, as winning letters at guard proved. Craig worked at making sr. play programs. Hunting and fishing make Bush's life interesting. His first deer hunting trip was his most thrilling moment; his prized possession, a Winchester 16-gauge shot gun; his heart's desire, to shoot a 16-point buck. Curly-haired Craig spends summers farming.

MARY LOU CARTEY

Melody-making Midge sang in choir 2 yrs., was vice-pres. of Student Council her jr. yr., and elected to the Senior Council this year. Shortie reveled in playing for the choir. She liked govt., loved her jr. and sr. yrs., and likes everyone she meets. Torchy plans a secretarial position. Her heart's desire is to be a singer in one of the "name" bands.

JAMES DOBBINS

Blond Dobbie expertly played trombone 4 yrs. in band, 3 yrs. in orchestra, and in Rudy's dance orchestra. Track occupied 1 yr. and Jr. Hist. Soc. another. Cookies, Bing Crosby, and music head his list. Mr. Chadderdon rates as favorite teacher. Work in Loomis' grocery consumed his spare time; Jim likes his Ford, and Mr. Crumrine. Future plans include Barbara Baker and plenty of hard work.

ROBERT J. CLAREY

Butch-cut, brown-eyed Jerry played reserve basketball his fresh. yr., the yr. he enjoyed most; he was without a care in the world. Absence slips and girls with high heels irk Ort. His prized jeans are his uniform. Bob's weakness is fair-skinned, blue-eyed brunettes; being late to school first hour was a 4-yr. Clarey habit. Bob hopes to earn $1,000,000, but quick.

MARIETTA DOWDING

Copper-crowned Marietta veni, vidi, vice'ed in Latin Club 2 yrs. Home Living and Mrs. Redmond remained her favorites throughout. Laughing and talking out of turn made Red's face turn the color of her hair. Her dad, her ideal personality, will send Marietta on to achieve a career in nursing; she'll be good. Her sr. yr. in school was the most exciting to modest Marietta.

RICHARD ORAL DRUMM

Basketball (2 yrs. at forward), and football (2 yrs. at center) made sports Jake's favorite activity, but he decorated for the J-hop his jr. yr. Birds and animals scatter when Jun approaches with his trusty shot gun. Miss Erskine has a way with teaching algebra which he liked. Two favorites: girls that don't smoke, and steaks. If Uncle Sam's services don't prevent, Junior wants to see Alaska.

MELVA DOWDING

Mr. Gray's grade A sec'y spent all her active time in office practice. Her senior year was the most fun, with fewer studies (surprisingly). Mel liked knitting and ice cream; disliked home work and long dragging hours. Another Miss Erskine and math fan; couldn't stand the sight of high heels worn with blue jeans. Although nobody minded it, Mel thought she talked too much.

NORMAN J. EIPPER, JR.

Our blue-eyed hunk of manly physique, popular pres. Eip (also soph. pres.) busied himself with Spanish Club 1 yr., Jr. Hist. Soc. 3 yrs., plodded through football as fullback 2 yrs., track 2, J-hop decor., jr. play stage crew, did the romantic lead in the sr. play. Eip prizes his greatest weakness. Nan; plans include M.S.C., a honeymoon in Florida, then a family.

DENA MARY FISK

Dena came from Dry Ridge High, Ky., where she sang in glee club, and played basketball, softball, and tennis. Dena's big thrill, her first date. Forgetting addresses is her weakness. A home of her own is her heart's desire. Hobbies are movies, letters, horseback riding, and her camera. Dena dislikes getting up in the morning. She will do office work. M.H.S. was tops.

ROBERT FLYNN

Bob of the sleek red hair and Irish shenanigans played end in football, winning 2 letters; kicked track cinders 2 yrs.; spent 2 yrs in Latin Club, 1 in F.F.A.; did the lead in Out of the Frying Pan, and Leo in the sr. play; served as sr. sec-treas.; Bob's a tease, a flirt, a sports lover, and a "good Joe." U. of Detroit, here comes Flynn.

LESLEIGH K. FREER

Lanky Clem added to his farming knowledge by belonging to F.F.A. 3 yrs. Horseback riding, a new western saddle horse, and collecting cowboy clothing give Tex that 'ole western look. Mr. Wilcox won Clem's admiration. Hunting, ice cream, and driving too fast are tempting to Clem. Les appears bashful around girls, but a first date made his jr. yr. the most enjoyable of the 4.

MARCELLA L. GRUBBE

Marcy tooted the flute in band 2 yrs., and in orchestra 2. Spanish Club 2 yrs., J-Hop decorations, sr. play publicity, and Dial Staff duties kept her busy here, after her arrival from Mackenzie High School, Detroit. Traveling to Hawaii or Alaska would be heavenly, and might supply ideas for writing that best-seller, her goal. Being late is Marcel's greatest weakness. Wayne University will get her.

GORDON A. GOLDBERG

Bashful Gord backed up the football line as guard 2 yrs., winning 1 letter. Gord sped along the cinder path in the 100-yd. dash 1 yr. Was distribution manager of the Dial; also chief printer. Mr. Crumrine meets his ideals. He admits to being bashful, overplaying pinball machines, and disliking egotists. His biggest thrill was seeing that football letter adorn his prized letter sweater.

JON HALE

Absent-minded Jon did his bit for Spanish Club 2 yrs., Latin Club 2, jr. inst. Soc. 4, sprinted in track 1. Speed portrayed poised Tony in the jr. play, found stage props for the sr. play, and splashed paint for the J-hop. Jon devours mashed potatoes and gravy. Mr. Cunningham's his favorite teacher. Flaxen-haired Speed trudged the aisles at the Bogar in after-school hours; Jon's college bound.

WALTER M. HENKER

Mechanics and magic tricks were mastered by our man of all maneuvers. Walt can't stand to see women smoke, nor to hear the fire gong in M.H.S. Traveling in Florida, flying a plane, and becoming an auto mechanic are his ambitions. His sponsors, Miss Erskine and Mr. Cunningham, were his favorite teachers; gym was his favorite class. Walt's fun-fest came his jr. year.

CHARLES HEATHERLY

Athletic Chuck played basketball 4 yrs. (2 letters) and football 4 (4 letters); received honorable mention three times in T. V. football. Sturdy Heath was pres. of his freshman and jr. classes. Caveman mourns his most embarrassing crisis: hitting the 200 mark. He hopes to get married, but first plans college at Western Michigan or State. His biggest thrill—grasping that graduation diploma.

ELEANOR JEAN HICKS

Blue-eyed Jean left Albion for Marshall to spend 1 yr. in Spanish Club, 3 in G.A.A., 2 in Usher Club, 1 each in Debate and Library Club. "Muriel" of our jr. play scouted entertainment for the J-hop. Russ Chapman provided her most thrilling moment with that diamond ring; her big weakness, late hours with Russ. Liked reporting for the bi-weekly DIAL.

MERLE D. HILL

Mert went out for reserve football 1 yr. and F.F.A. 1. The "new look" is already out with him; but it doesn't affect his favorite recreation of hunting deers and 'dears.' Gov't., Mr. Cunningham, and pretty girls all suit our "lonesome polecat's" tastes. His first date was his most thrilling moment; his sr. yr. the best. Learning and a family are Mert's objectives.

JOYCE M. HOFFMAN

Naturally-curly-haired HOFFIE Ushered 3 yrs. (ass't jr. yr., head-usher sr. yr.); collected G.A.A. points 4 yrs., debated 1 (won a letter and medal); broadcast in Radio 2; Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, secured J-Hop music and art; portrayed Marge in the jr. play; was an asset to sr. play stage crew; able Photo. Ed. for this Annual. School-loving Joyce prizes her watch from her ideal, her mother.

KENNETH HOFFMAN

Ken traveled through 1 yr. of F.F.A., 1 of Jr. Hist. Soc., and drew decorative masterpieces for the 1948 J-Hop. His artistic hands won him the post of art editor for the Dial, and he worked on stage crew for the sr. play. Unassuming Ken, known for his black curly hair and likeable personality, had fun drawing, fishing, and playing basketball in 48-49.

ROBERT J. HOFFMAN

Having spent 1 yr. in the Latin Club, 2 yrs. in F.F.A., and 1 as guard on the football team, Bob now wants to attend college. After college he would like to fulfill his heart's desire, and travel to California. Miss Erskine, gym, and assemblies pleased Bob most during high school days. Even though Bob considers girls who smoke repulsive, he divulges a great weakness for women.

MARY LOUISE HOWARD

Mickey attended Spanish Club 2 yrs., G.A.A. 4, F.H.A. 1, and Jr. Hist. Soc. 4. Mickey slapped paint as her effort toward the J-Hop. She represented the girls at Wolverine Girls' State. High heels with anklets irk Mick, and Gov't rests in the same category. Bowling, Miss Erskine, and math rate high. Talkative Mick annoys herself and others with cracking her gum. Mickey plans work, or college.

SARALOU HUNT

Already a Latin Club member 2 yrs., Sally tried 1 yr. of Si Senorita too. Saralou liked math and Miss Erskine best. Reading and eating consumed her spare time. No girl who wore slacks to school rated. Giggling Sally had trouble confining her laughing and talking to the right places. Her sr. yr. turned out to be more interesting and exciting than any other.

MILTON RANSOM JENKS

Mighty Milt farmed in F.F.A. 3 yrs. (treas. and sentinel 1 yr. each), won 2 letters tackling in football; tossed the iron ball in track, and used his mellow voice in choir. Jr. and sr. play work revealed great acting ability, and being Student Council pres. his jr. yr. proved his leadership. Milt mailed exchange Dials. Babe likes cherry pie. Miss Diehl, and girls.

MARGARET FRANCES JONES

Blithe spirit Jonesy spent all her activity time in 4 yrs. of G.A.A. Always with gum in her mouth, Margaret liked musical assemblies, Miss Kolch, working in the main office, cherry pie, bowling, and dancing. She prizes her class ring, and driving her folks' car. A business, college may see capable Jonesy as she'd like to be a stenographer or a Michigan Bell operator.

NANCY ANN KELLERMAN

Imagine!—Girls' State delegate; D.A.R. girl (alternate); G.A.A. 4 yrs. (secy-treas. 2); pres. of F.H.A. 1; Usher 2; Library Club 1; Radio Forum, dramatic reading winner, freshman secy-treas., soph vice pres., Home-coming queen attendant; starred in both jr. and sr. plays; asst. editor of the bi-weekly DIAL! Whew! Norm Eipper, her ideal, inspires the desire to settle down with a husband, home, and family.

ETHEL M. KENYON

Winning one of the few honored choir letters thrilled Ethel, after her do-re-meing in her favorite subject, choir, 4 years, F.H.A. 1 yr. and Library Club a half yr. were also Shorty's pursuits. Ethel wants to ice skate; she's already mastered riding horseback. Her watch and class ring are precious. College or work looks ahead; working for Mrs. Robert Thick is her present task.

ROBERT JAMES KIPKER

Handsome, blue-eyed Bol was a rugged guard in football 3 years, and a member of Jr. Hist. Soc. 2. Bob's hobby is sports; a big shiny Cadillac is his heart's desire. Pie tops Bob's list of foods; his weakness is women. Bob considered sr. class parties tops; Mr. Crumrine's his favorite instructor, and math's his choice of subjects. Future plans? Undecided at the moment.

DOROTHY JANE KIPKER

G.A.A. minded Dottie won a 4-yr. letter; 2 other yrs. she spent on F.H.A. as reporter and vice-pres. Kipker's greatest weakness is squandering money, so she plans to get a job and work hard. Gossipy people don't rate with this gal. Bowling, her favorite recreation, caused an embarrassing moment when a ball guttered and Dot screamed, "Look." Dot voted her senior year best.

SUZI KNAPP

Spanish Club 2 yrs., Latin Club 1, and Debate 1 divided non-committal Suzie's attention three ways. Horseback riding, shrimp, Queen Bess and English were Knapp favorites. Meeting Bob Mitcum at the Brown Derby is a moment Sue will never forget. Suzi wants to return to Cal., after a summer there. Some college will enroll Sue; meanwhile she spends spare minutes at Hemmingsen's working.

DOROTHY J. LANNING

The decoration comm. of the J-Hop, Usher Club 1 yr., G.A.A. 4 yrs., and Library Club 1 all benefited from Dor's personable presence. Dor (of the Betty Grable figure) prizes Bob Flynn's ring. She can't make herself come in early, so of course has trouble getting up. Miss Carey, basketball, scalloped corn, and gossiping were favorites with dusky-eyed Dot.

MILDRED L. LAMBKA

Busy bee Milly buzzed through Latin 1 yr., and Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, Library Club added 3 yrs. to her agenda, (1 pres.; 1 vice-pres.; 1 social chm.). Milly wielded charcoal for J-Hop decorations, one of the activities she enjoyed most, along with working in Library Club. Clerking in Morris' 5 and 10 took her spare time. Artistic Milly paints and reads for hobbies; her date provided a big thrill.

BARBARA J. LAPHAM

Beauteous Babs graced G.A.A. 4 yrs., was sec. of F.H.A. 1 yr., and Ushered 1 Barbara did make-up for the jr. play and "stage crewed" the sr. play. Babs' most thrilling moment was her coronation as football queen. (Capt. Whittaker's knees helped). Babs likes ice skating, boys, and her watch. She wants to travel to Mexico, and to be a successful home-maker.

LAWRENCE L. LINE

Long and lanky Larry became a member of Latin Club 2 yrs., Jr. Hist. Soc. 3, and mixed paint for the J-Hop. Quincing annoys Larry; conceited girls don't make him any happier. To off-set this: red raspberry pie, cruising around town, and the Little Reds basketball team were joys. Larry admired Mr. Crumrine; Stilts would like to retire at 21, but plans a try at college first.

CLYDE JOHN LOGAN

Genial John spent 2 years in Jr. Hist. Soc., and was on the stage crew for the sr. play; enjoys hunting (loves his gun) and cruising; ideal personality, Mr. Cunningham; heart's desire, a new Buick; confessed weakness, not doing school work. He liked his co-operative teachers; the Poker Club in library made his jr. yrs. tops; shop suited John; he'll work in one.

ARLENE M. MILLER

Lefty led yells and "ran the school" in Student Council at Alba before she came to Marshall. Vivacious Arlene combined baseball and basketball with 4-H work. Our Gladys of the sr. play had her most thrilling moment when she flew a plane the first time. Arlene, while continually twisting her locks of hair, likes hunting, archery, rollerskating, and Miss Kolch. She'd like to travel in other countries some day, or be a nurse.

RICHARD L. MILLER

Senior Dick took Spanish 2 yrs., enunciated in speech (winning 1 letter), argued in debate 2 yrs., used his golden throat in choir 1 yr. Dick became a 3-star veteran in amateur shows; did J-Hop tasks, and topped his sr. yr. as Preston in the sr. play. Piano-playing, singing, banana cream pie, Mrs. Murray, English, and Norma Allen have top billing. College, radio or television work (and Norma) are his dreams.

RHEATHA M. MYERS

Dark-haired Rheatha, came to M.H.S. from B.C. Central where she joined G.A.A. and Latin Club. Homely girls who get the cute fellows pain Rheatha. Her most embarrassing moment: being called down for skipping. Blushing is her nightmare. Bread and peanut butter please her palate. Rheatha spends her extra time and energy working at Hitchens' drugstore; future plans are night school, then a secretarial job.

BOB OBENOUR

Basketball 3 yrs., football 2, track 3, and Jr. Hist. Soc. 1 kept 5-letter-man Obe in a whirl. Jr. play crew added more activities. Sleepy Obe prizes his shot gun which always accompanies him when he pursues his favorite activity—hunting. Bob dislikes seeing girls smoking, and he wasn't in love with gov't. Lots of dates gave Bob many magic moments in his sr. yr.

DON O'LEARY

Using the language of romantic Spain 2 years, and boosting Marshall's past in Jr. Hist. Soc. 1 consumed dark-eyed Don's interest. Although he appeared quiet and studious, he used his muscles to advantage in football, his favorite activity 1 yr. Pat Gore, his girl, was his treasure. Don loves puttering around with outboard motors. His sr. year outshone the others.

JOANNE M. PARK

Latin Club 2 yrs., G.A.A. 4, Usher Club 2, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, Debate and speech 1, kept blue-eyed Jody busy with a capital "B." M.C.'ing the Amateur Show, selling jr. play tickets, hiring the orchestra and decorating for the J-Hop, and reporting Dial dope left no spare time. Her senior play role thrilled her; so did Crumrine and journalism. Some lucky gal will see this smart gal soon.

NORVA CHRISTINE PECK

Pixie sparkled through 3 years of G.A.A., Ushered 2 yrs, rendered service to Library Club 1 yr., was active on jr. play publicity, played Alice in the sr. play, served refreshments for the J-hop. Chris is famous for her vivid black hair and glorious eyes. Elizabeth Taylor is her ideal. Norva spent much effort in Mr. Rose's office; plans work, and an apartment with B. Lapham and N. Kellerman.

DONNA MARIE PETCH

Auburn-haired Donnie came to Marshall from B. C. Central where she was active in a sewing club, a foods club, and on party duties. "Bawling brats" and boys irritate her; she likes bowling and skating. Her ideal personality is Guy Madison (what? He was a boy once). Her senior year was her pleasantest; she liked M. H. S. because of the friendly people and nice clean atmosphere. Donna's plans include working.

RICHARD (DICK) PLUNKETT

Curly-locked Dick made moonlight and garden scenery for the sr. play. If he could hunt, fish, eat rice pudding, and cruise, he was happy. His most thrilling moment, his entry into M.H.S., reached perfection his sr. yr.-his favorite because his last. Dick liked Henry, and art. The slow school buses annoyed Plunk. If Dick doesn't serve Uncle Sam, Alaska will see him some day.

WILLIAM JOSEPH POSTULA

Posty from Rio came to M.H.S. from St. Philips, B. C. Freshman class treas., Latin Club, Spanish Club, Jr. Hist. Soc.; 3 yrs. in: baseball (1st sacker), track (high jumper), and football (all-T.V. hon, mention); 4 yrs. in basketball (co-capt. 1948-49); loved playing Genial Maxim in the sr. play. Rangy Bill's biggest thrill-throwing a 65-yd. touchdown pass; goals college, and a way with women.

EVELYNNE PAULINE PRITCHETT

Active Evie played in G.A.A. 4 yrs., presided in Library Club 3, warbled in choir 1, joined F.H.A. 1, and planned J-Hop food. Conceited boys pain Evie, and exams don't help. She collects statues of horses; likes to dance, bowl, and eat goulash. Her mother's ring is dear to Evelyn. Long hair and bright eyes distinguish Evie; flirting and chewing gum are her downfall. Plans: modeling school; maybe marriage.

SHIRLEY A. REED

Dark-eyed Shirley kept the books in order 1 yr. in Library Club, decorated for the J-Hop, ran up and down the aisles in Usher Club 2 yrs., belonged to G.A.A. 4 yrs. (pres. her sr. yr.). Playing with the G.A.A. Kitty Kats was Shir's favorite activity. Dancing-perfectionist Shirley prizes her first letter from Guy, who fills her time not spent working at Freddie's Market.

JACQUELINE A. ROCHO

Jackie graced G.A.A. 3 yrs. and served refreshments for the J-hop. Collecting pictures of houses and dogs is Jack's hobby; her ideal personality, Bing Crosby; favorite foods, French fries and ice cream; favorite teachers, Mr. Cunningham and Mr. Gray. Jackie's raven hair and sparkling eyes are eye-catchers. Necking in the halls and long skirts are Jack's pet peeves. Wright's Beauty School in B. C. is her destination.

BILL STOUT

Loquacious Bill argued his way through debate 2 yrs., radio 3, and edited the bi-weekly Dial. Sparkling-eyed Bill played the brash policeman in the jr. play. Bill returned to M.H.S. his jr. yr. from Redford High, Detroit. He was highly pleased when, as a jr., he won the Regional Oratorical Contest. Bill, the Man with the Rabbit, likes all his teachers. It's college Bill favors.

HAROLD C. STRASEL

Erudite Harold came from Western High School in Detroit where he belonged to French Club and the R.O.T.C. In M.H.S. he played Mr. Kenny in the jr. play and helped direct the sr. play. He enjoyed Dial staff duties most. Harold's thrilling moment came when he found himself cast for the jr. play. College, with chemical research study, is ahead.

MARY JUDITH TENNEY

Nursing-minded Judy sped through Latin Club 2 yrs. (scriba); G.A.A. 4; F.H.A. 2 (treas.); and Jr. Hist. Soc. She helped publicize the jr. play, mixed paint for the J-hop, and helped direct the sr. drama. Her job at the Power Shop consumes her extra time. Miss Merritt's English exams terrorized Judy. Talkative Judy plans nursing at St. Luke's in Chicago, upon graduation.

JAMES WILLIAM TUNNING

Industrious Jim served all 4 yrs. in F.F.A., he held two offices: vice-pres. and treas. He enjoyed playing F.F.A. basketball; his favorite teacher, Mr. Wilcox. Pie-eating Jim felt mighty embarrassed his first day as a ninth grader. Jim occupies his spare time riding horses and teasing girls. For 4 yrs. he has worked on the farm, and plans to make a future of it.

GORDON W. VANCE

Loose-jointed Gordon served 1 yr. on the basketball team and 1 on the track team. He was a member of the Latin Club for 2 yrs. and Jr. Hist. Soc. 2. Gordon contributed his bit to the J-Hop as a member of the decorations comm. When not doing his distasteful homework, Gordon spent his time hunting and fishing. Future plans include either college or the army.

WILLIAM WARD

Lanquid Willie charged through basketball 4 yrs. (3 letters), football 3; track 4 (4 letters). Pill made All-T.V. basketball 2nd team his jr. yr.; chief dislikes about school—ugly girls, long skirts; preferences—girls (and more girls). Willie's most outstanding physical feature is his face (he says). Bill's plans—college, or U.S. service.

RAYMOND DALE WARNER

Popular Ray pursued football 4 yrs. (all-T.V. honorable mention one), track 4, basketball 4, and baseball 3. He served the srs. as pro-consul. Platinum-haired Ray came to M.H.S. this year from Williamston where he helped win a league football championship. He prizes his dog; Mr. Gray's his favorite teacher. A new car and a police career are Ray's goals. Women are Ray's weakness.

JO ANN CAROLYN WHETSTONE

Jody divided her time between 1 yr. in Spanish and Library Clubs, 2 in Jr. Hist. Soc., 3 in G.A.A., 3 in choir, 4 in her favorite activity, cheerleading, and cleaned up for the J-Hop. Her hobby is collecting miniature horses. Jo likes swimming, Prof. H. C. formals, and game; but didn't really like school. She loves her class ring and the thought of a certain sailor's return.

VERSER WHITE

Verser, despite his dislike of getting up early for school, joined Latin Club 2 yrs. His weakness, staying out late in his prized car, probably was the cause of this weariness. Fish and chips and bowling were outside avocations. Verser camped in Steve's place, where he worked the last 3 yrs. Mr. Wilcox's way with Biology made Verser like both "him and it." Destination, some undetermined college.

LEE WHITTAKER

Dynamic Lee, small but powerful, led the gridders 4 yrs. (capt. sr. yr.); was a track sprinter 2. Popular Lee served the Student Council as pres. his sr. yr. Whit's name was on All-Twin-Valley 2nd teams 2 yrs. and he received all-state honorable mention for his performance in football. Girls smoking cigarettes disgust Lee. Whit liked Mr. Wilcox and ag. He plans to own a farm some day.

MARY LOU WICKMAN

Vice-pres. of jr. and sr. classes, F.H.A. 1 (vice-pres. 1), Jr. hist. Soc. 1, Ushering 2, selling jr. play tickets, and acting superbly in the sr. play gave sweet-smiling Wickie little spare time, but she found it to work on J-Hop, and to be asst. Ed. of this year book. This year's D.A.R. girl enjoyed basketball as a G.A.A. Kitty Kat. Future—Bob and W.M.C.

MARY LEE WILDER

Program chm. and vice-consul in Latin Club took 2 yrs., and G.A.A. 4 yrs. of Mr. Lee's career. Lee's jr. yr. was the best for she was asst. director of the jr. play; but the sr. year was far from boring, for she was on the sr. play make-up crew, and Dial Staff; and Jan. brought her diamond from Art Haggerty. Mary Lee likes Miss Erskine, math, and horseback riding.

ELDONNA J. WILLIS

G.A.A. 1 1/2 yrs., F.H.A. 1 yr. (her favorite activity), Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, and Library Club 2, divided Eldonna's time well. She prettied up the personnel of the sr. play cast to finish off her activities. Being initiated into G.A.A. embarrassed her no end. She prizes her class ring. Eldonna hasn't yet revised her taste, so rejects the new look. College at Michigan State—she hopes.

ALICE LEILA WILSON

Ruddy-cheeked Al gamboled in G.A.A. 4 yrs.; warbled 2 yrs. in choir, in Glee Club 1; and served J-Hop refreshments. Falling down stairs while rushing to see her favorite teacher, Miss Erskine, to learn more about that interesting algebra, caused that annoying habit of biting her fingernails. A trip to California would be a wonderful vacation from working at Peck's the last 2 yrs.

WALTER J. WILSON

Walt was an all-round manager, engineered basketball 1 yr. and football 2. Jr. Hist. Soc. 2 yrs. was the only other activity that caught his interest. H. H. Harrison and mechanical drawing couldn't have functioned without Walt. He prizes his gleaming-haired Homer sweetheart, Roxana Oxenrider, and her class ring. Walt likes swimming, frog legs, fishing, and farming. Future plans include college and marriage.

The Dial's apology to Norma Singer. Due to a misunderstanding between the office and the Journalism Class, her name was omitted from the original senior list; we are, therefore, placing her picture on this page.

NORMA SINGER

Her senior year topped them all, but Norma enjoyed all her activity-filled years here. Spanish 1, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2; choir 3; Glee Club 1. Norma passed cokes and cookies for the J-Hop. Of her studies, Norma liked Glee Club best; she loves singing. Norma's favorite recreation is horseback riding; her mother, her ideal personality; her greatest weakness, spending money. Future plans include travel, working, and maybe vocal training.

“Then at that climactic moment Mr. E. B. More, President of the Board, bestows those long-sought diplomas on the triumphant graduates.”

“To you,
the future students of Marshall, I leave all the headaches, laughs, tears, fun, and academic experiences of high school life. I have enjoyed every minute of it; so now I must be on to college, where I will prepare for more and heavier responsibilities of life. Have fun, Joie and Alan; take part in all, and be good.”
